

James Fields • Austin

James Fields earned his J.D. from the University of Texas School of Law. His 12 years of work in the Texas Legislature included serving as Chief of Staff and General Counsel for two Senators (1 Democrat and 1 Republican) and two Senate committees. He also served as Executive Director of the Texas Health Policy Task Force created by Governor Ann Richards in 1991.

Mr. Fields has been employed by the Texas Trial Lawyers Association since 1995 as Director and Senior Director of Public Affairs. In 2014, he was designated TTLA Chief Officer of Public Affairs.