

Dennis Speight, Director of Political Affairs • Austin

Dennis started with TTLA in December of 2013, where he manages the political affairs of the association, including maintaining relationships with candidates and campaigns, along with allied organizations. In addition, Dennis serves as a member of the in-house public affairs team during session and the interim.

Prior to coming to TTLA, Dennis served as the Finance Director of Texas Watch, a non-profit consumer group that advocates for insurance consumers and an open, accessible court system.

Dennis has tremendous experience having worked in politics and campaigns from a young age. He began his legislative career in 1999 at the capitol and has worked for several members of the legislature and their campaigns, including Speaker Laney's leadership PAC and the House Democratic Campaign Committee.
