

Bryan O. Blevins Jr. • Beaumont • 409-203-5030

Bryan O. Blevins, Jr., a native of Lufkin, Texas, earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and History from Southern Methodist University in 1987 and his law degree from the Baylor University School of Law in 1990. Mr. Blevins was admitted to the State Bar of Texas and joined the Provost ★Umphrey Law Firm in 1990 specializing in personal injury law.

He has been a firm equity partner since 1997 and now serves on the Management Committee for Provost★Umphrey.

Over the last twenty-five years, Mr. Blevins has prepared, tried and appealed a wide variety of personal injury and civil litigation matters, including vehicular and industrial negligence, civil rights, toxic tort, defective products and medical provider prompt pay cases - including several multi-million dollar verdicts.

On behalf of Provost★Umphrey and its many clients, Mr. Blevins serves on the Texas Asbestos MDL Liaison Committee before Judge Mark Davidson and numerous Asbestos and Silica Bankruptcy Trusts.

Mr. Blevins also serves as administrator, trial coordinator and/or litigator for Provost★Umphrey's Asbestos, Silica, BP Oil Spill, Banana Workers and Pharmaceutical litigation dockets.

He has been recognized by his peers as:

Board Certified in Personal Injury Law since 1995
Baylor Young Lawyer of the Year - 2005
Texas Super Lawyer - 2003 to 2015
Best Lawyers in America - 2013 to 2016
National Law Journal Top 100 Trial Lawyer since 2012

In 2015, Mr. Blevins was the President of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association and was awarded the Mike Gallagher Legislative Advocacy Award for his service.