30(b)(6): Deposing the Corporate Representative - Advanced Deposition Strategy & Practice

Rule 30(b)(6) is the most underused and misunderstood weapon in the arsenal of a trial lawyer. It is not just for major corporate litigation. It can be used in any case where it is necessary to get information from an organization, even if they are not a party!

This program will show you how to cut to the chase and get the information necessary to win your case. Harnessing the power of 30(b)(6) requires thoroughly understanding the law, then crafting airtight 30(b)(6) notices, and then asking the correct questions to build a record to expose the adversary's obstruction. When properly executed, 30(b)(6) can be analogized to jujitsu. The power comes from deflecting the adversary's obstructive conduct back upon them. This advanced deposition program enables David to face Goliath without fear.
