Make It a Practice – Submit to TrialSmith, Inc.

Every time you take a deposition of a defense expert, draft a brief, find a qualified expert or use a novel jury instruction, submit that information to WAJ's online information system – www.TrialSmith.com. TrialSmith is the nation's largest on-line litigation bank on the Internet. Receive a $5 credit for every item you upload; use the credit towards a download of one of 270,000 documents from other plaintiff attorneys. There is no limit to the amount of credit you may earn. TrialSmith also affords you free access to your transcripts, helping you to build your own private, digital library. You may upload, email or mail the brief, deposition or jury instruction. WAJ wants this practice to become second nature for every member. Do your part to ensure the continued success of this valuable service. For more information, contact TrialSmith at (800) 443-1757.

We appreciate any comments regarding WAJ services or suggestions for future services:
