

JAMES J. HILL CENTER

The Hill is a nonprofit business center located in downtown Saint Paul. The Hill works to connect businesses, entrepreneurs and community to research, knowledge and network for each stage of business development. The Hill's mission honors the legacy of its founder by continuing to support the entrepreneurial spirit in the 21st Century. Check out jjhill.org for a detailed list on resources as well as upcoming programs and event.

BUSINESS

Providing free access to unparalleled data & research.

The Hill connects visitors to free resources and the expertise of business librarians. 200,000+ resources available.

DATABASES

Find company profiles, market research, industry surveys and vital statistics to stay competitive.

HISTORIC CATALOG

Over 100 years of business history in print. A special collection that spans mid-1800s through the early 21st century.

RESEARCH WORKSHOPS

Database instruction in a classroom setting. Learn tips, tricks and trends to help dig into data and get your business booming.

BUSINESS LIBRARIAN SUPPORT

One-on-one access to trained professionals ready to assist you at all stages of your research.

ENTREPRENEURS

Offering expert advice & peer learning.

The Hill helps you discover solutions, connect authentically and build a strong community. 8,000+ entrepreneurs served.

WORKSHOPS

Interactive learning sessions on topics such as finance, social media, funding and presentation skills to ensure you reach your highest potential.

SPEAKERS & PANELS

Top notch information about emerging issues, new trends and best practices.

EXPERT ADVICE

Essential, accurate and relevant advice for launching and growing your ideas.

NETWORKING

Opportunities to build business relationships by gathering with diverse peers, mentors and advisors at events and social hours.

Learn. Convene. Connect. Experience the Hill.

jjhill.org | 80 West Fourth Street, Saint Paul | 651.265.5500