

SCORE mentor Tom Noonan addresses Rotary

Community Recorder 10:35 a.m. EST November 28, 2016

(Photo: Provided)

ERLANGER – The former president and CEO of The Community Press and SCORE mentor Tom Noonan will be the guest speaker at the Rotary Club of Kenton County’s luncheon meeting on Thursday, Dec. 8.

SCORE is a volunteer-based organization in which business people help small business people solve business problems. Volunteers give freely of their time, energy and knowledge to help others. SCORE’s mission is to foster vibrant small business communities through mentoring and education.

“The Rotary Club of Kenton County is thrilled to have Tom Noonan as our guest speaker,” President Steve Gillespie said. “Our club members are looking forward to learning about the many facets of the SCORE organization.”

The luncheon will begin at noon at the Colonial Cottage Inn, 3140 Dixie Highway, Erlanger. There will be limited seating by reservation only. To make a reservation, please contact Gillespie at 859-371-2900. The cost to cover the lunch is $12 per person. Visit the Rotary Club of Kenton County’s website at <http://kentonrotary.blogspot.com/>.