SCORE

To Whom It May Concern:

Twelve years ago, my partners and I met with your organization to formulate a small business start-up plan and discuss various options. The well-informed gentleman who counseled us was kind enough to share his expertise such as explaining the difference between an LLC vs a Corporation as well as developing a realistic financial and marketing strategy. Knowing how challenging it is to prosper in a seasonal Cape Cod economy, SCORE helped our "good idea" become a thriving, successful business.

At Home Again, Inc. is one of those success stories. Since opening in 2005, we have grown substantially; expanding to 3 buildings, including a warehouse and a solid, growing customer base.

At Home Again is an upscale consignment shop that attracts locals as well as off-cape customers and tourists. We strive to offer quality furniture and decorative accessories that reflect current trends and styles. Our high standards on what we accept for consignment results in a very high turnover.

As our business grew, we developed other ways to bolster our success. We have held 11 annual charity yard sales, contributing a large portion of the proceeds to organizations such as Habitat for Humanity, Nam Vets Hyannis, Dream Day on Cape Cod, Independence House, Latham Center, Lower Cape Food Panty, Wounded Warriors, Heroes in Transition and many more.

I understand that SCORE recognizes local entrepreneurial businesses. As a SCORE graduate, we would be very pleased to be among those businesses you consider.

Please feel free to visit our shop in Chatham or to call us for more information. Thank you.
