

BROOKE HUDD

Brooke Hudd is an Associate at Merryck & Co. where she is primarily responsible for customer and client services. As part of this role she works directly with the CEO to support his activities to include all customer and client coordination and support for relationship management. She also works closely with a Managing Director assisting in coordinating key relationship management activities. Brooke works closely with the team providing critical support of business development activities across all service lines.

Prior to joining Merryck, Brooke was an AP Psychology Teacher in New Jersey, and before that she worked at Sylvan Learning Centers in both a tutoring and operational role. She has lived abroad in both Syria and Columbia, and is an accomplished pianist and singer/songwriter having released three CD's. Brooke graduated from James Madison University where she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology.