

Rahab

Joshua 2, 6:17

Rahab had faith in God. When God sent His spies to the city of Jericho, Rahab hid them on the roof of her house and kept them safe. Rahab had faith and trusted God to take care of God's spies.

The king of Jericho heard about the spies and he got very angry! He sent his soldiers to Rahab's house to catch them but Rahab encouraged them, protected them, and helped them to escape! Rahab had faith in God and trusted God to take care of God's spies.

Rahab tied a red rope in her window, just like the spies told her to, so they would know which house to keep safe. Then one day, the walls of Jericho came tumbling down but Rahab's house didn't fall! She and her family were safe because she had faith in God. Rahab had faith in God and trusted God to take care of her!

Rahab Had Faith!

Discovering The Story: Rahab took care of God's special spies. God rewarded her and saved her and her family. As a parent who is teaching your child to follow God, think of someone who God has put in your life. How can you encourage them? Could you send a special note, deliver a small gift, or cook them a special treat? Include your child in this process and explain that you are thankful for how faithful this person has been to God and to you!

Talk About The Story:

1. Who did Rahab hide from the enemy?
2. Did she have faith that God would take care of them?
3. What happened to the city of Jericho?
4. Did Rahab's house fall down? Did Rahab have faith that God would take care of her?
5. Can YOU have faith that God will take care of you and your family?

I WILL HAVE FAITH

JACK LEARNS TO HAVE FAITH

Jack wanted to be brave like his dad, but he was really afraid of heights! One day, they went to the park, and Jack was afraid to climb up to the slide. When his dad asked him if he was scared, Jack said, "No! I am brave, and I can do it!" But when he started to climb, he stopped and sat down. He told his dad, "Well, I am a little scared. But I want to be brave like you!" His dad replied, "I get scared, too! But God always helps me to have faith. Do you want to pray and ask God to help you stay brave?" Jack nodded, and after they prayed, he felt so much better! His dad went up behind him and they went down the slide together. Soon, Jack even went down the slide all by himself! He prayed again because he wanted to thank God for how much He helped him to have faith.
