

Wedding at Cana John 2:1-11

Jesus went to a wedding. Everyone was having a great time! But then something happened. They ran out of the special wedding drink! Oh no! Mary went to Jesus and said, "They have no wine left." She knew that Jesus could help.

Jesus told the servants to fill six big jars with water. The servants obeyed Jesus and did as He said. They filled each jar to the top.

The servants loved and obeyed Jesus. They trusted Him. When they dipped their cups into the jars, the water had turned into wine! Jesus had preformed a miracle by turning the water into wine!

The Servants loved by obeying!

Discovering The Story: Filling the jugs with water just didn't make sense. But the servants obeyed, a miracle occurred, and the wedding was saved. Has God ever asked you to do something that just didn't make sense? As an adult, it may be all too easy to reason away what seems like a nonsensical requests from our loving Heavenly Father. Could it be that you have lost the faith you once had as a child? In your quest to grow a stronger family, take notice of how your child watches, trusts, and obeys you. When you apply that childlike faith to your own spiritual journey, obeying God as a family becomes easier, you will grow stronger together, and miracles will occur!

I WILL LOVE BY OBEYING

MIRA CHOOSES TO OBEY

Mira did NOT want to clean her room, even though her mom said she had to, so she sat down on the ground and was very angry! She crossed her arms and stomped her feet. Her mom sat down with her. "I know that cleaning your room isn't fun, but we have to obey! That means we listen. Did you know that I obey, too?" Mira was so surprised! "But you're a mom!" Mira's mom laughed, "I am! But I still obey Jesus because He wants to help me. He wants you to obey me because I want to help you! There's no need to be angry, it'll all be okay." Mira thought about this. Her mom listened to Jesus, and Jesus knows everything! She knew she should listen to Jesus, too, and obey her mom. Mira got up to clean her room, and she felt all better when it was done. She knew Jesus was happy she obeyed her mom!

I will obey!
