PART 2

PERSONAL GROWTH

Who is someone that you consider to be a leader in your life?

Why do you see them as a leader? Do you have "good" leaders and "bad" leaders in your life?

Have you treated someone differently because of something they have done? Have you treated someone with love and kindness even knowing about something they have done? What made you choose to respond with kindness or not?

How can you love others by putting them before yourself this week?
