The Truck's Strong Home

Once, a family of dump trucks – Daddy, Mommy, and little Tonka – needed a new home. “Let’s build on that big, strong rock!” beeped Daddy. It was hard work! They chugged and puffed, carrying heavy stones and mixing thick mud. Tonka got so tired.

Soon, their cozy little garage house was finished. That night, big, gray clouds rolled in. Pitter-patter, SPLOOOSH! The rain came down hard, and the wind howled. But their house stood unshakable on the rock. It didn’t wiggle or wobble one bit.

They were safe and warm inside because they built their home on a solid foundation, just like their love for each other – strong enough to handle any storm.

Talk About It:

- What kind of home did the trucks build?
- Why is it important to listen to Jesus’ words?
- What kinds of things can your family do to build strong, like on a rock?
