

Little Crane Does Right

READ AND COLOR TOGETHER

Little Crane was the smallest on the construction site, but he had a big heart. One day, his friends decided to play a dangerous game, swinging wrecking balls wildly and knocking over walls they were supposed to build. "Come on, Crane, join us!" they called. But Little Crane remembered the lessons his builder had taught him: always do what's right, even when it's hard.

GOD HELPS ME DO RIGHT!

He thought of Joseph, who ran from trouble in Potiphar's house to honor God. So, Little Crane rolled away from the chaos, refusing to join in. His friends laughed, but soon the foreman arrived. Seeing the mess, he praised Little Crane for doing what was right. From then on,

Little Crane became a trusted leader.

Talk About It:

- What were the other cranes doing?
- Did Little Crane know that it was wrong to knock down the walls they were supposed to be building?
- What did Little Crane do?
- What should we do instead of the wrong thing?
- Who helps us do right?

Joseph in Potiphar's House

Told from Genesis 39

Joseph loved God very much. He worked for a man named Potiphar. Joseph was a very hard worker.

1

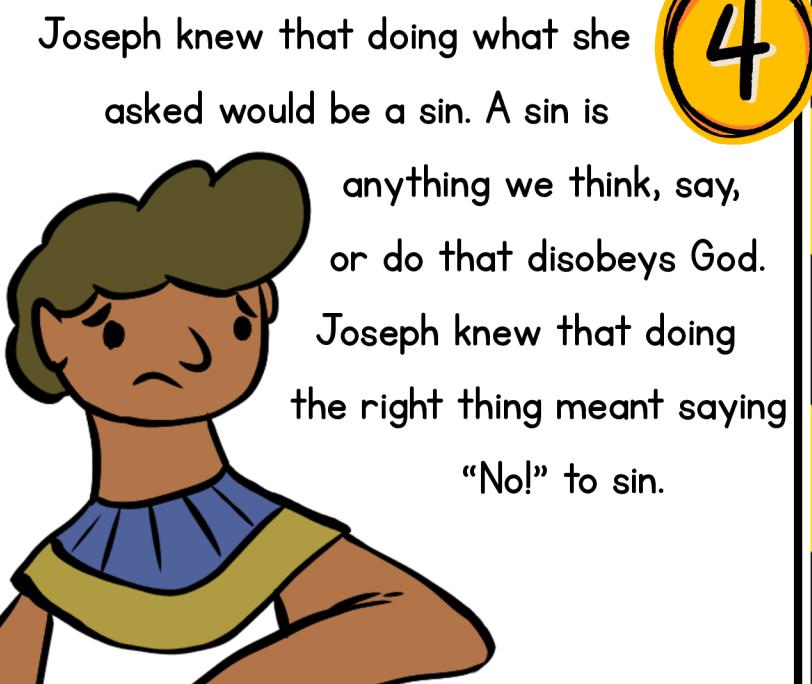

Joseph did such a good job that Potiphar put him in charge of his whole house! Joseph was like the boss of the house. He made sure everything was in the right place.

2

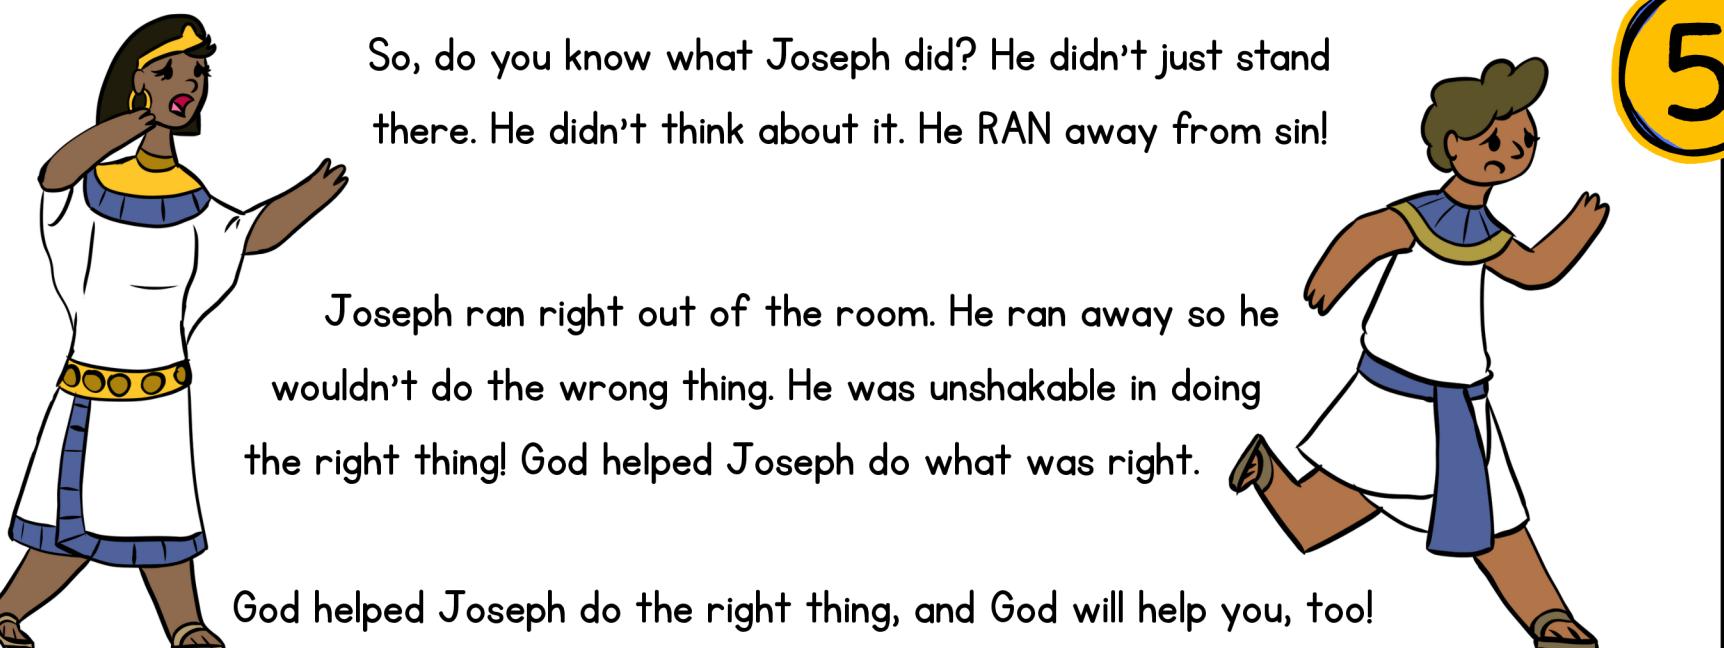

3

But then, Potiphar's wife wanted Joseph to do something wrong. She wanted him to break the rules.

4

Joseph knew that doing what she asked would be a sin. A sin is anything we think, say, or do that disobeys God. Joseph knew that doing the right thing meant saying "No!" to sin.

5

So, do you know what Joseph did? He didn't just stand there. He didn't think about it. He RAN away from sin!

Joseph ran right out of the room. He ran away so he wouldn't do the wrong thing. He was unshakable in doing the right thing! God helped Joseph do what was right.

God helped Joseph do the right thing, and God will help you, too!
