

Read, Make Max and Leo's Happy Faces, and Answer the Questions

Max and Leo Learn to Love

Max and Leo were brothers. But they had a big problem. They argued about everything! One sunny day, they went hiking with their dad. Max wanted to climb the big hill, but Leo wanted to explore the stream. They started to argue again! Their dad sat them down under a big tree and said, "Boys, did you remember that God wants us to love each other?"

"The Bible says that we should love one another because God loves us." Max and Leo thought about it. They decided to take turns – first the hill, then the stream. As they hiked together, they laughed and helped each other. They learned that loving like God makes everything better and makes them happier, too.

Questions:

- What was Max and Leo's problem?
- Who reminded them to love each other?
- What happened when they listened to their dad and began to love as God asks us to?
- What will happen if you love others the way that God wants you to?

JOHN

Dear Parents, This is the fourth and final week of our series, What If? In this series, we have been learning about being called to live a rich and satisfying life by finding our identity and purpose in Christ. Today, we learned to love others through the Life of John in 1 John 4:7-12. You can help your child continue to grow in their faith by helping them complete the provided activities at their own pace. It's fun, easy, and you will grow together! When your child completes it, sign the front and have them return it to class the following week for a prize.

John Learns to Love

Retold From
1 John 4:7-12

A long time ago, John was friends with Jesus.

1

He saw Jesus help sick people, feed
the hungry, and love everyone.

3

John told others about God's love and wrote about it, too. He wrote, "God is love!
Let's love each other like God loves us."

4

When we love, God lives in our hearts,
and His love shines through us!
Let's share love every day!

When God's love fills us up, it spills out onto everyone around us.

We can love our friends, our family, and even people we don't know yet, all because God loves us!
