MELBOURNE GIRLS GRAMMAR ARCHIVES RULES FOR ACCESS AND USE

I understand and accept the following conditions of access to records and archives, including photographs and memorabilia, maintained by the MGGS Archives.

1. Access to MGGS records may be granted on the understanding that the privacy of individuals named in the records is respected and any copyright obligations are observed {e.g. where applicable: Victorian Freedom of Information Act (1982) and Information Privacy Act (2000); and Commonwealth Copyright Act (1968)}.
2. Users will be held accountable for legal consequences arising from publications deriving in whole or in part from authorized or unauthorized access to records and material maintained by the MGGS Archives.
3. Records made available are not to be marked, altered in any way, removed from their sequential order within the file or holder, or removed from the reference area without the permission of the archivist.
4. Copies of records including photographs and memorabilia will not be made without the specific permission of the MGGS Archivist or the Principal. Any approvals will be subject to intended use, relevant legislation and the physical condition of the records.
5. Copies of records, including photographs and memorabilia, shall not be further reproduced without the written permission of the Archivist or the Principal.
6. Publication of material in the custody of the MGGS Archives shall not be undertaken without the written permission of the Principal.
7. In the event of publication, appropriate acknowledgement of sources must be made.
8. The preferred form of acknowledgement should include specific reference to the MGGS Archives. Where it is desired to thank individuals for their assistance this should include name and title. Job titles should be confirmed for accuracy.
9. The recommended form of citation is as follows:

For documents: Series Number/Item Number/Box Number, MGGS Archives e.g. 56/3/142, MGGS Archives

For images: Series Number/Item Number/Box Number, MGGS Archives e.g. 76/3/P2

For memorabilia: Series Number/Item Number/Box Number or OB Number, MGGS Archives e.g. 23/3/OS1 or OB32
