To Our Visitors...

We are honored that you chose to worship with us today. Our church family here is a loving group of Christians who share a common love for Jesus Christ and His church and look for opportunities to share that love with others. We would ask that you please stay after the services so that we can have a chance to meet and speak with you. If you would like to know more about any part of our service, please feel free to ask any of our members.

DELIVERY TEAM: Many of our ladies work tirelessly every week, preparing and delivering a nice supper meal to various people for encouragement on Monday afternoons. Anytime you can help, please see Beth James. Some are able to help every week, some two or three times a month. Whatever you can do is appreciated. Likewise, if you know of someone who could use a meal of encouragement, please let us know.

MEN'S CLASS: Men's class is currently studying from the book of Galatians. We meet Monday evenings at 6:30 in the fellowship hall. Everyone is welcome to participate.

VBS, 2020: Last Sunday afternoon, we had our first of several VBS meetings. This year's date is June 14-17, 6:30 p.m. Please remember this annual event in your continual prayers. Going along with this being an Olympic year, our theme is: PRESSING TOWARD THE GOAL (Phil.3:14). And, remember the FISH FRY, which is always the Saturday after VBS (June 20).

A SATURDAY SINGING: We're all invited to a special time of worship and singing at Larry and Kay's house, this Saturday evening, beginning at 5:30. There will be light refreshments. Please see Kay for more details. "Is any cheerful? Let him sing praise" (James 5:13).

MARRIAGE humor and thought...To prove his love for her, he swam the deepest river, crossed the widest desert, and climbed the highest mountain. She divorced him. He was never home. – from The Saturday Evening Post ("dwell with them..." I Peter 3:7)

EVERYWHERE

With our little ones, we sing, “His fingerprints are everywhere just to show how much He cares.” The Lord truly wants us to know about Him. He is everywhere (Psalm 139:7-10) and He has not “left himself without witness” (Acts 14:17).

The Lord’s fingerprints are upon His creation. “When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the sun, moon and stars which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him?” (Psalm 8:3-4) “The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims His handiwork” (Psalm 19:1). Romans 1:20 affirms that God’s “eternal power and divine nature” are clearly seen by the things which are made. “Every house is built by someone, but He that built all things is God” (Hebrews 3:4). “He did not leave Himself without witness, in that He gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying our hearts with food and gladness” (Acts 14:17).

The Lord’s fingerprints are upon our bodies. Our bodies were carefully “knit together in our mother’s womb” (Psalm 139:13). Yes, we are fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalm 139:14). Every day, our bodies operate like a machine. Each part of our bodies is arranged as the Lord chose (cf. I Cor. 12:18). How can we live and not see His glory?

Our heart and soul also bear the imprint of God’s fingers. Being made In His image (Gen.1:26, 27), we possess the ability to choose (Josh. 24:15), feel (2 Peter 1:5-8), grow (Luke 2:52) and love (Matt. 22:37-39). With these qualities, the possibilities of spiritual growth and closeness to God are rich indeed. With open hearts, we can look into the word of God and be transformed into the image of God (2 Cor. 3:18).

God’s fingerprints are also upon the Bible. God is eternal and so is the Bible (Matt. 24:35). God is decent and orderly (I Cor. 14:33, 40) and His word leads to a godly and orderly life (Matt. 6:33). The heavenly Father is perfectly holy and loving (Isa. 6:3; I John 4:7, 8) and if one follows the pattern of the New Testament, he won’t be perfect, but he will be grounded in holiness and love.

He is everywhere.
