Gta v children of the mountain guide

Share Billboard Advertising Kids From The Mountain T-shirt Kids Mountain is a religious movement previously led by Darius Fontaine, who lost in a legal battle with brother Adrian. It is also the subject of an optional side-mission for Franklin Clinton in Grand Theft Auto V, which is completed using the in-game internet.

Description When he plays as Franklin Clinton, after the Merryweather Robbery mission, he receives a text from brother Adrian, asking him to go to his website, to complete the four stages of the C.o.M. process. In addition, Jane (a recruiter) is always standing in the same place (next to Rockford Hills Town Hall) and preaching about cults of conviction. All the protagonists can talk to her. According to her, unlike the Epsilon program, it's not a cult. The children of the mountain are about self-realization and trust. Their mansion is located at the intersection of Strawberry Avenue and Forum Drive in Strawberry, curiously near Franklin's first hideout. Instructions of the first stage The player will have to answer the test with a selection of answers. Regardless of which answers the player chooses, the result will always be the same; It will say that Franklin is frustrated with his life and that he needs to find a purpose in his life and a deeper understanding of himself. After that, the player will have to wait several game hours to receive the password via email in order to continue the test. The password will always be IN VAIN; Once received, the player must go to the email link and write the password to close the first phase of the C.o.M. Process Two phase To complete the second stage, you will need to donate $199 to the cult. Once the player donates money, he will have to solve a puzzle consisting of forming words with letters that are presented once the words are created the letter is added to the phrase at the bottom of the page. The player must complete the phrase in less than one minute. Eleven words are: Divine, Completeness, Orthodoxy, Process, Realization, Awareness, Timeliness, Denial, Perception, Interpretation and Potential. However, it is impossible to complete the puzzle in one minute (the finished phrase is you are an idiot). After the time has elapsed, no matter how many words have been found, the second phase will be completed. The third stage to proceed to the third stage, the player will have to donate $4,999 to the cult. The third stage consists of a presentation, which the player must follow to the end. Continue by clicking the link at the bottom of the page in the last slide. Wait a few minutes to receive a new email with a new password (ACTUALITY) and write to the website and close the third stage. Fourth phase to continue The player will have to make a new gift of the cult, this time $9,999. The fourth stage consists of a new test, but now the player can only answer Yes or No. Select Yes for all questions to complete the final stage and receive his certificate of completion of the C.o.M. Process. Then Franklin receives the last email from Brother Adrian suggesting that the Children of the Mountain T-shirt has been delivered to his wardrobe, which is a reward for completing this side mission (therefore, getting a T-shirt costs Franklin $15,197). It's not explained why Brother Adrian decides to contact Franklin directly. After completing four stages and receiving a T-shirt, Adrian suggests that the C.o.M. intends to continue harassing Franklin to participate in other courses, and he will regularly receive additional emails inviting him to visit the website for further instructions (no more are available, even if Franklin is free to donate more money). Cultstoppers cult stoppers website lists Kids Mountain as a cult listed between epsilon program and several other organizations. Several people in the state of San Andreas also share this view, to which members reply that the Children of the Mountain are not a religion. Well-known members of the Bill Anthony Franklin Clinton Jane Gallery Billboard advertising cult on East Joshua Road in Sandy Shores.Franklin wore a Kids from the Mountain T-shirt during a risk assessment. Completing 11 puzzles during phase 2 yields an incomplete sentence with no way to proceed until the timer reaches 0. Video Trivia During the second phase, it is actually possible to complete 11 word puzzles in under one minute using Franklin's special abilities (that is, while sitting in the car) just before opening a link to the website on his phone. The time then slows down to about 15 seconds (with maximum use of special Stat abilities), which increases the actual time available to a person to complete the entire puzzle. However, after completing 11 words, the sentence remains incomplete (you are _n id_t), although no new puzzle is offered, and the timer continues to tick down. Once it reaches 00:00, it progresses to the third stage as usual. See Also community content is available in cc-by-sa unless otherwise noted. Everyone else is destined for catastrophic Cultstoppers.com according to the website. The group also teaches that followers can treat themselves with diseases, including cancer, after receiving 'power' from a group that is likely taught during an actuality analysis seminar taught by Brother Adrian himself, where he forces followers to go without food, water and bathroom breaks until 'they get lost or land themselves'. These seminars can also lead to 'success, happiness, enlightenment, sexual prowess.
