Assignment Policy:

The official due dates for each assignment can be found in the Course Schedule, assignment instructions can be found in the Assignments Section in Canvas, please submit assignments and documents in the stated format (example PDF, Word, .png, .jpeg). Points will be deducted for assignments that are submitted late. Note: No late work will be accepted and a grade of zero will be assigned after seven (7) calendar days from the original due date unless extenuating circumstances are reported to Dean of Students office or a provision has been announced for later submissions.

Extra credit points MAY be offered for virtual career fair events or sessions by instructor discretion only. Additional information will be provided if an extra credit opportunity is offered.

Academic Integrity:

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that assignment or exam [or specify alternative sanction, such as course failure]. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students, who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term "plagiarism" includes but is not limited to a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Use of Technology:

Technology should not be used in this class unless we are working on a tech-driven project together or if the instructor grants permission. In a professional setting texting, monitoring your phone, web surfing, listening to music, etc. is distracting and rude. Please put away your devices unless otherwise directed.

Course: Business 1200.006 Fall 2022
Day/Time: Thursday 5:00 pm - 5:50 pm - in person

Course Conduct:

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at <http://deanofstudents.unt.edu>.

Disability Accommodation Statement:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://disability.unt.edu>. You may also contact them by phone at (940) 565-4323.

Eagle Connect:

Your access point for business and academic services at UNT occurs at <http://www.my.unt.edu>. All official communication from the university will be delivered to your Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward your e-mail: <http://eagleconnect.unt.edu/>

Student Evaluation of Teaching:

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The Student Evaluation of Teaching (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available at the end of the semester to provide you with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught.

Course: Business 1200.006 Fall 2022

Day/Time: Thursday 5:00 pm - 5:50 pm - in person

Location: BLB.010

Retention of Student Records:

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Blackboard online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. You have a right to view your individual record; however, information about your records will not be divulged to other individuals without the proper written consent. You are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the university's policy in accordance with those mandates at the following link:

<http://essc.unt.edu/registrar/ferpa.html>

Emergency Notification and Procedures:

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all active faculty staff, and students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at <http://www.my.unt.edu>. Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include: 1) know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas in the buildings where your classes are held, 2) determine how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and 3) identify where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly. In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Illness and Class Attendance:

Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent so I may decide about accommodating your request to be excused from class. Resources: Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) and Dean of Students.

Technical Difficulties:

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the

Required Access to Textbook, Software, And Hardware: Required Resource (free through UNT):

Microsoft Office Suite® and Adobe PDF Reader are the official software packages for this class. You are enrolled in a College of Business class; therefore, you may obtain a free-of-charge copy at: <https://cob.unt.edu/students/microsoft-campus-licensing-agreement>.

Do not send assignments in Pages®, Word Perfect®, or linked to Google Docs®.

You will also need access to a Windows or Apple compatible PC/ Tablet/ Smartphone connected to an electrical source and the Internet. Additional requirements include a screen, web cam, microphone, keyboard, mouse, speakers, printer, and video codec software. Most computers less than five years old have the necessary codec software. Campus access labs are also fully equipped.

Emergency Evacuation Procedures for Business Leadership Building:

Severe Weather In the event of severe weather, all building occupants should immediately seek shelter in the designated shelter-in-place area in the building. If unable to safely move to the designated shelter-in-place area, seek shelter in a windowless interior room or hallway on the lowest floor of the building. All building occupants should take shelter in rooms 055, 077, 090, and the restrooms on the basement level. In rooms 170, 155, and the restrooms on the first floor.

Bomb Threat/Fire In the event of a bomb threat or fire in the building, all building occupants should immediately evacuate the building using the nearest exit. Once outside, proceed to the designated assembly area. If unable to safely move to the designated assembly area, contact one or more members of your department or unit to let them know you are safe and inform them of your whereabouts. Persons with mobility impairments who are unable to safely exit the building should move to a designated area of refuge and await assistance from emergency responders. All building occupants should immediately evacuate the building and proceed to the south side of Crumley Hall in the grassy area, west of parking lot 24.

Succeed at UNT:
