Time: (M/Wed) 2:00-3:20pm
(M/Wed) 3:30-4:20pm
Meeting Place: RTFP 137

Course Description

Intermediate techniques for theatrical lighting, stage instrumentation, and circuitry. This class will examine the lighting design process from the first read of the script to strike. This process will include research techniques, script analysis, CAD drafting, organizational skills, and presentation skills. In addition to the design process, heavy emphasis will be placed on the role, duties, and knowledge of being a Master Electrician.

Course Objectives

- Ability to effectively analyze a script as for the purposes of Lighting Design
- Ability to effectively communicate the physical and emotional properties of light through the use of verbal, written, and pictorial communication
- To gain the skills to effectively manipulate the physical and emotional properties of light in the completion of a design
- To gain the skills to effectively document (plot, section, paperwork, etc.) the design process
- To gain an historical perspective on lighting design and its practitioners.

Course Requirements

Attendance: This class is meant to be part of your training to enter the theatrical production industry, as such, punctuality is an important aspect. Attendance is mandatory. After the second absence, your final grade will be lowered for each additional absence. Lateness of more than 5 minutes to class or lab will be factored in as half an absence. You will be responsible for missed information.

Lab Attendance: As part of the LAB for this class, you are required to participate in 1 FULL LIGHTING HANG and 1 FULL LIGHTING FOCUS. Failure to meet this requirement will result in a demotion of your final grade by two (2) full grades. The schedule will be given out during the first class meeting and sign up will occur on the second class meeting

Notices:

Disabilities Accommodation:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Academic Conduct:

You are encouraged to become familiar with the University's Policy for Academic Dishonesty found in the UNT Student Handbook. Academic misconduct will not be tolerated in this course, and is subject to discipline. Cheating, plagiarism, collusion and falsification of academic records or the attempt to do these things constitute scholastic dishonesty. The Code of Student Conduct provides specific penalties faculty members may assign for cheating. For more information – www.vpaa.unt.edu/academic-integrity.htm

Student Behavior in the Classroom:

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.unt.edu/csrr
