

ANDREW J. TORGET

Department of History | University of North Texas | andrew.torget@unt.edu

EDUCATION

- Ph.D., American History, University of Virginia, August 2009.
- M.A., American History, University of Virginia, August 2002.
- B.A., History, Texas A&M University, May 2001.

POSITIONS

- Professor of History, University of North Texas, 2024-Present.
 - University Distinguished Teaching Professor, 2024-Present.
- Fulbright Visiting Professor of History, Universität Bremen, Germany, 2023.
- Associate Professor of History, University of North Texas, 2016-2024.
 - University Distinguished Teaching Professor, 2019-2024.
- Assistant Professor of History, University of North Texas, 2009-2016.
- Director, Digital Scholarship Lab, University of Richmond, 2007-2009.
- Project Director, Virginia Center for Digital History, University of Virginia, 2003-2009.
- Instructor, Department of History, University of Virginia, 2006.

WRITING AWARDS

- Named Fellow of the Texas State Historical Association for “distinguished published works” and “exemplary scholarly activities,” 2023.
- Named “Texan of the Year” Finalist by The Dallas Morning News for the “uncommon, inspirational impact” of my research, 2021.
- Texas Old Missions and Forts Restoration Association Book Award, 2018.
- David J. Weber-Clements Center Prize for Best Non-Fiction Book on Southwestern America, Western History Association, 2016.
- William M. LeoGrande Prize for Best Book on U.S.-Latin American Relations, Center for Latin American and Latino Studies, American University, 2016.
- Ramirez Family Award for Most Significant Scholarly Book, Texas Institute of Letters, 2016.
- Honorable Mention, Deep South Book Prize, Summersell Center for the Study of the South, University of Alabama, 2016.
- Coral Horton Tullis Memorial Prize for Best Book on Texas History, Texas State Historical Association, 2016.
- Ottis G. Lock Prize for Best Book of the Year, East Texas Historical Association, 2016.
- Honorable Mention, Frederick Jackson Turner Award, Organization of American Historians, 2016.

- Kate Broocks Bates Award for Historical Research, Texas State Historical Association, 2016.
- Summerfield G. Roberts Award, Sons of the Republic of Texas, 2016.
- Catherine Munson Foster Memorial Award for Literature, Brazoria County Historical Museum, 2016.
- Publication Award, San Antonio Conservation Society Foundation, 2016.
- Finalist, C. Vann Woodward Dissertation Award, Southern Historical Association, 2010.

TEACHING AWARDS

- Berninghausen Prize for Outstanding Teaching (<https://www.uni-bremen.de/preis-fuer-gute-lehre/der-preis>), top teaching award given by the University of Bremen, Bremen, Germany (for teaching done while a Fulbright Scholar), 2023.
- Best Instructional Video, for “The Legacy of Barbara Jordan” on the Texas History for Teachers Project, Association of Research Libraries, 2023.
- Osher Lifetime Learning Institute at UNT Provost’s Faculty Award, 2023.
- Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching Award, College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences Advisory Board, University of North Texas, 2020.
- Leadership in Education Award, Texas State Historical Association, 2020.
- Outstanding American History Teacher Award, Texas Society of the Daughters of Colonial Wars, 2020.
- University Distinguished Teaching Professorship, University of North Texas, 2019.
- Piper Professor Nomination Award, for being selected as UNT’s sole nominee for the Minnie Stevens Piper Professorship, state-wide award for excellence in university-level teaching, 2019.
- Guinness World Record Holder for “World’s Longest History Lesson,” Performed August 24-25, 2018, at the University of North Texas.
- J. H. Shelton Excellence in Teaching Award, University of North Texas, 2016.
- Teaching Excellence Award, College of Arts and Sciences, University of North Texas, 2014.

SERVICE AWARDS

- Excellence in Public Engagement Award, Department of History, University of North Texas, 2025.
- Outstanding Departmental Service Award, Department of History, University of North Texas, 2024, 2025.
- NITLE Community Contribution Award, for work on History Engine, 2009.
- Classics Award for History, Multimedia Educational Resource for Learning and Online Teaching (MERLOT), for work on the Valley of the Shadow Project, 2005.

RESEARCH GRANTS

- Summerlee Foundation Grant, to support and develop the Digital Austin Papers project, 2011-2012.
- “Mapping Historical Texts: Combining Text-Mining and Geo-Visualization to Unlock the Research Potential of Historical Newspapers,” National Endowment for the Humanities, Digital Humanities Start-Up Grant, Level 2, 2010-2011. Designated a “We the People” project by the NEH. 11 percent of projects were funded.
- “Visualizing the Past: Tools and Techniques for Understanding Historical Processes,” National Endowment for the Humanities, Digital Humanities Start-Up Grant, Level 1, 2008-2009. 13 percent of projects were funded.
- Summerlee Foundation Grant, to support and develop the Texas Slavery Project, 2005-2007.
- Southern Historical Research Grant, University of Virginia, 2005.

FELLOWSHIPS

- U.S. Fulbright Scholar to Germany, University of Bremen, 2023.
- Whiting Public Engagement Fellowship, for work on the “Texas History for Teachers Project,” Whiting Foundation, 2022-2023.
- David J. Weber Research Fellow for the Study of Southwestern America, William Clements Center for Southwest Studies, Southwestern Methodist University, 2011-2012 (inaugural recipient).
- Junior Faculty Summer Research Fellowship, University of North Texas, 2012.
- Raven Society Research Fellowship, University of Virginia, 2007.
- Stephen F. Austin’s Old Three Hundred Research Fellowship in Texas History, Texas State Historical Association, 2006.
- Robert J. Huskey Travel Fellowship, University of Virginia, 2002, 2004-2006.
- Southern Fellowship, University of Virginia, 2001-2004.

TEACHING GRANTS

- Tocker Foundation, to support and develop the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2025.
- National Endowment for the Humanities (in partnership with Humanities Texas), United We Stand Grant, to support and develop the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2024.
- The Burdine Johnson Foundation, to support the development of the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2023-2024.
- Summerlee Foundation Grant, to support the development of the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2022-2024.
- The Barbara Jordan Freedom Foundation, to support the development of the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2022-2023.

- Humanities Texas Grant, to support and develop the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2021.
- Summerlee Foundation Grant, to support and develop the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2021.
- Pevehouse Family Foundation, to support and develop the “Texas History for Teachers” project, 2021.
- Summerlee Foundation Grant, to support and develop the “Day at UNT” program, 2014.
- NITLE Instructional Innovation Grant, to support and develop the History Engine project, 2008-2009.
- National Institute for Technology and Liberal Education Grant, to support and develop the History Engine project, 2007-2008.

PUBLICATIONS

Monograph:

- Seeds of Empire: Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of the Texas Borderlands, 1800-1850 (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2015).
 - The David J. Weber Series in the New Borderlands History.
 - Winner of twelve awards, prizes, and honors.
 - Paperback edition published 2018.

Edited Books:

- These Ragged Edges: Histories of Violence Along the U.S.-Mexico Border (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2022), co-editor with Gerardo Gurza-Lavalle.
- This Corner of Canaan: Essays on Texas in Honor of Randolph B. Campbell (Denton: University of North Texas Press, 2013), co-editor with Richard McCaslin and Donald Chipman.
- Two Communities in the Civil War: A Norton Casebook in History (New York: W. W. Norton & Co., 2007), co-editor with Edward L. Ayers.
- Crucible of the Civil War: Virginia from Secession to Commemoration (Charlottesville: University of Virginia Press, 2006; paperback edition, 2009), co-editor with Edward L. Ayers and Gary W. Gallagher.

Non-Refereed Books:

- San Jacinto Battleground: State Historic Site (Austin: Texas Historical Commission, 2025).

Peer-Reviewed Articles and Chapters:

- “Mapping Texts: Examining the Effects of OCR Noise on Historical Newspaper Collections,” in Estelle Bunout, Maud Ehrmann, and Frédéric Clavert, eds., Digitised Newspapers – A New El Dorado for Historians: Reflections on Tools, Methods and Epistemology (Berlin, Germany: De Gruyter Press, 2023).
<https://doi.org/10.1515/9783110729214>
- “Smuggling and Violence in the Northern Borderlands of New Spain, 1810-1821,” in These Ragged Edges: Histories of Violence Along the U.S.-Mexican Border (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2022), co-author with Alberto Barrera-Enderle.
- “The Problem of Violence in the U.S.-Mexico Borderlands,” in These Ragged Edges: Histories of Violence Along the U.S.-Mexican Border (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 2022), co-author with Gerardo Gurza-Lavalle.
- “The Problem of Slave Fight in Civil War Texas,” in Jesús F. de la Teja, ed., Lone Star Unionism, Dissent, and Resistance: Other Sides of Civil War Texas (Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 2016).
- “The Saltillo Slavery Debates: Mexicans, Anglo-Americans, and Slavery’s Future in Nineteenth-Century North America,” in Bonnie Martin and James F. Brooks, eds., Linking the Histories of Slavery: North America and Its Borderlands (Santa Fe: School for Advanced Research Press, 2015).
- “Stephen F. Austin’s Views on Slavery in Early Texas,” in This Corner of Canaan: Essays on Texas (Denton: University of North Texas Press, 2013).
- “Mapping Texts: Visualizing American Historical Newspapers” and “Building New Windows into Digitized Newspapers,” in Journal of Digital Humanities 1:3 (Summer 2012), first author (with Jon Christensen).
- “Unions of Slavery: Slavery, Politics, and Secession in the Valley of Virginia,” in Crucible of the Civil War: Virginia from Secession to Commemoration (Charlottesville: University of Virginia Press, 2006).
- “Carpetbagger on the Brazos: The Texas Freedmen’s Bureau in Robertson County,” Agora 1:2 (Winter 2000).
<http://www.tamu.edu/chr/agora/winter00/torget.pdf>

Peer-Reviewed Conference Proceedings:

- “Topic Modeling on Historical Newspapers,” peer-reviewed and published in the conference proceedings of the Association for Computational Linguistics workshop on Language Technology for Cultural Heritage, Social Sciences, and Humanities (ACL LATECH 2011), June 2011, pp. 96-104. Second author (with Tze-I Yang and Rada Mihalcea).

White Papers:

- “Slavery in the Era of the Texas Revolution,” for the Alamo Trust, Inc. (August 2023). 51,000 words.
- “Mapping Texts: Visualizing Digitized Historical Newspapers,” for the National Endowment for the Humanities (March 2012), first author (with Rada Mihalcea, Jon Christensen, and Geoff McGhee). 14,200 words.
<http://www.mappingtexts.org/whitepaper>
- “Visualizing the Past: Tools and Techniques for Understanding Historical Processes,” for the National Endowment for the Humanities (January 2010), first author (with James W. Wilson). 10,900 words.
http://dsl.richmond.edu/workshop/White_Paper.pdf

Digital Scholarship:

- Texas History for Teachers*, Founder and Co-Director, 2020-Present
<https://education.texashistory.unt.edu/>
The Texas History for Teachers project is an initiative to provide 4th and 7th grade social studies teachers access to the very best in cutting-edge historical content and evidence-based pedagogical resources for Texas history.
 - Awarded development grants from Humanities Texas, the Summerlee Foundation, the Barbara Jordan Freedom Foundation, the Whiting Foundation, the Pevehouse Family Foundation, and the Texas Bar Foundation.
- Digital Stephen F. Austin Papers*, Founder and Director, released 2023
<http://www.DigitalAustinPapers.org>
The Digital Austin Papers project seeks to recreate the turbulent world of the U.S.-Mexican borderlands during the early 1800s as seen through the eyes of Stephen F. Austin.
 - Awarded a development grant from the Summerlee Foundation of Dallas, Texas.
- Mapping Texts: Visualizing Historical Newspapers*, Director, released 2012
<http://www.MappingTexts.org>
Mapping Texts is an initiative to develop new methods for analyzing and visualizing language patterns embedded within massive collections of historical newspapers.

- Awarded a Level-2 Digital Humanities Start-up Grant by the National Endowment for the Humanities in 2010. Only 11 percent of proposals received funding.
 - Designated a “We the People” project by the National Endowment for the Humanities.
 - Featured in a special issue of the Journal of Digital Humanities (<http://journalofdigitalhumanities.org/1-3/>)
- History Engine*, Co-Founder and Director, released 2009
<http://www.HistoryEngine.org>

The History Engine is a teaching tool focused on using technology to make active learning and student collaboration a central part of the university classroom experience.

 - Awarded grants from the National Institute for Technology and Liberal Education (NITLE) organization in 2007 and 2008.
 - Awarded the 2009 NITLE Community Contribution Award.
- Voting America: United States Politics, 1840-2008*, Director, released 2008
<http://americanpast.org/voting/v1/>

Voting America examines the evolution of U. S. presidential politics from the beginning of the modern party system through the present day, offering a wide array of cinematic and interactive visualizations of county-level voting on the county level during the last two centuries of presidential elections.

 - Adopted by Google (in partnership with my digital lab), which released a KML version of the Voting America maps for Google Earth in October 2008.
- Texas Slavery Project*, Founder and Director, released 2007
<http://www.texasslaveryproject.org>

The Texas Slavery Project is an initiative to help scholars and students understand the spread of slavery into the borderlands between the United States and Mexico.

 - Awarded a development grant ($17,500) from the Summerlee Foundation of Dallas, Texas.
 - Selected to be one of only two featured projects in the 2007 Nebraska Digital Workshop at the Center for Digital Research in the Humanities, University of Nebraska at Lincoln.
- The Valley of the Shadow Project*, Project Manager and Co-Editor, 2003-2007
<http://valley.lib.virginia.edu/>

The Valley of the Shadow: Two Communities in the American Civil War is a large digital archive at the University of Virginia documenting the coming, fighting, and aftermath of the Civil War in one northern and one southern community.

Other Articles:

- “Remembering Randolph B. ‘Mike’ Campbell,” Southwestern Historical Quarterly 126:3 (January 2023): 291-293.
- Foreword, A Southern Community in Crisis: Harrison County, Texas, 1850-1880 (Austin: Texas State Historical Association, 2016), by Randolph B. Campbell.
- “Cotton Farms, Horse Raids, and the Opening of Texas,” in Texas Insights 7:2, (October 2016).
- “La Gran Inundación de San Antonio de Béxar,” Revista BiCentenario 16:4 (Summer 2012): 12-17.
- “A Conversation with Digital Historians,” Southern Spaces (January 2012), with Scott Nesbit and Robert K. Nelson.
<http://www.southernspaces.org/2012/conversation-digital-historians>
- “The History Engine: Doing History with Digital Tools,” Academic Commons (September 2009), co-author with Scott Nesbit and Robert K. Nelson.
<http://www.academiccommons.org>
- “History Engine: Creating a Writing Assignment for the Digital Age,” in Perspectives on History: The Newsmagazine of the American Historical Association 47:5 (May 2009): 60-62, co-author with Scott Nesbit.

Book Reviews and Encyclopedia Entries:

- Review of The Strange Career of William Ellis: The Texas Slave Who Became a Mexican Millionaire by Karl Jacoby, in the Hispanic American Historical Review 98:4 (2018): 733-734.
- Review of This Vast Southern Empire: Slaveholders at the Helm of American Foreign Policy by Matthew Karp, in The Journal of Southern History, 84:3 (August 2018): 735-737.
- Review of Railroaded website (digital appendix of Richard White’s 2011 Railroaded) (<http://web.stanford.edu/group/spatialhistory/cgi-bin/railroaded/>), in the Western Historical Quarterly 46 (Autumn 2015): 398.
- Review of Why Texans Fought in the Civil War by Charles Grear, in The Journal of Southern History 77:4 (November 2011): 968-969.

- Review of Nexus of Empire: Negotiating Loyalty and Identity in the Revolutionary Borderlands, 1760s-1820s, edited by Gene Allen Smith and Sylvia L. Hilton, in the Southwestern Historical Quarterly 114:3 (January 2011): 329-330.
- “Texas” in Encyclopedia of Slavery in the Americas, Edward Baptist, ed., (New York: Facts on File, 2011).
- “Andrew Jackson” and “Quanah Parker” in Treaties with American Indians: An Encyclopedia of Rights, Conflicts, and Sovereignty, Donald Fixico, ed., 3 vols., (Santa Barbara: ABC-CLIO, 2008) 3:827-28, 3:870-72.
- Review of The American Civil War Center at Historic Tredegar museum in Richmond, Virginia, in the Journal of American History 94:3 (December 2007): 894-896.
- “Mexico City Plot (1612)” in The Encyclopedia of Slave Resistance and Rebellion, Junius P. Rodriguez, ed., 2 vols., (London: Greenwood Press, 2007), 1:319-321.
- Review of The Slavery Debates, 1952-1990: A Retrospective by Robert Fogel, in The Virginia Quarterly Review 80:2 (Winter 2004): 253.

CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

- “The Rise and Destruction of Nineteenth-Century Galveston,” keynote presentation at the annual Real Places Conference of the Texas Historical Commission, Austin, Texas, April 2025.
- “The Power of Teaching Texas History in a Broader Context,” a presentation made at the annual meeting of the Texas Council for Social Studies, Round Rock, Texas, November 2024.
- “The Texas History for Teachers Project and Your Classroom,” a presentation made at the annual meeting of the Texas Council for Social Studies, Round Rock, Texas, November 2024.
- “From Old South to New West,” presentation in roundtable “Where in the World (of History) Is Texas?” at the annual meeting of the Western History Association, Kansas City, Missouri, October 2024.
- “Texas and the Long Problem of Race in American History,” a presentation made at the Critical Race Perspective on U.S. Welfare Regimes Symposium at the Passau Institutional Centre for Advanced Interdisciplinary Studies, Universität Passau, Germany, June 2023.

- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made for the Forschungskolloquium zur Neueren Geschichte at the Institut für Geschichtswissenschaft, Universität Bremen, Germany, April 2023.
- Panelist, “Texas as a Borderland: A Long Durée Look,” a roundtable discussion at the annual meeting of the Western History Association, San Antonio, October 2022.
- “Bringing the Texas History for Teachers Project into the Classroom,” a presentation made at the Texas Council for the Social Studies annual conference, Denton, TX, October 2022.
- “Slavery and the Causes of the Texas Revolution,” a presentation made at the annual San Jacinto Symposium, Houston, April 2022.
- “Teaching the Texas Revolution with the TX4T Project,” a presentation made at the Texas Council for the Social Studies annual conference, Round Rock, TX, November 2021.
- “The Texas History for Teachers Project,” a presentation made (virtually) at the Texas Council for the Social Studies annual conference, October 2020.
- “Mapping Texts: Examining the Effects of OCR Noise on Historical Newspaper Collections,” a presentation made at the “Digitised Newspapers: A New El Dorado for Historians” virtual conference hosted by the Digital Humanities Laboratory (DHLAB) Ecole Polytechnique Federale de Lausanne, Switzerland, the Institute of Computational Linguistics Zurich University, Switzerland, and the Centre for Contemporary and Digital History (C2DH) Luxembourg University, Luxembourg, April 2020.
- “Stephen F. Austin: Mapping and Remaking the Landscape of East Texas,” a presentation at the General Land Office’s annual “Saving Texas History Symposium,” Austin, September 2019.
- “Doing Scholarly Editions in the Digital Age,” a presentation at the annual meeting of the Western History Association, October 2018.
- “The Digital Austin Papers,” lightning round presentation at the annual meeting of the Western History Association, October 2018.
- “Taking American Slavery into Northern Mexico,” a presentation at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, April 2018.

- “New Methods and Partnerships in the Digital Stephen F. Austin Papers,” a presentation at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, April 2018.
- “Experimenting with Sentiment Analysis and User Interfaces on the Digital Stephen F. Austin Papers,” a presentation at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, January 2018.
- “The Evolution of Slavery Studies in Texas,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association, March 2017.
- “The Saltillo Slavery Debates: Mexicans, Anglo-Americans, and Slavery’s Future in Nineteenth-Century North America,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association, November 2015.
- “Digital Humanities and Teaching,” a roundtable panelist at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, April 2015.
- “Digital Scholarship, Academic Careers, and Tenure,” roundtable panelist at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, January 2015.
- “The Promise and Perils of Digitized Historical Newspapers,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, April 2014.
- “The Problem of Slave Flight Before and During the Civil War,” a paper presented at the Texas Unionism Symposium, Texas State University, April 2014.
- “Exploring the Digital Humanities,” a paper presented at the Texas Library Association Annual Conference, April 2013.
- “Mapping Historical Newspapers,” a paper presented at the Digital Frontiers conference, University of North Texas, September 2012.
- Chair of “Women on the Border: Raising Awareness of Civil War Women’s History and Manuscript Collections,” a panel at the Southern Conference on Women’s History, June 2012.
- “Stephen F. Austin’s Views on Slavery in Early Texas,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association, March 2012.
- “Digital History: State of the Field,” roundtable panelist at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, January 2012.

- “The Valley of the Shadow Project and Its Progeny after 20 Years,” roundtable panelist at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, January 2012.
- Commentator, “Peculiar Texas Slave Cases: What They Reveal About the Institution,” at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association, March 2010.
- “Slavery over Union: The Rise and Fall of a Slaveholders’ Republic in the U.S.-Mexican Borderlands,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association, November 2009.
- “Mapping Slavery’s Spread into the West: GIS and the Republic of Texas, 1836-1845,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Western History Association, October 2009.
- “What Can Digital Tools Tell Us About Slavery in Early Texas?” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association, March 2009.
- “Experiments in Twenty-First Century Research and Teaching,” a paper presented at the annual Coalition for Networked Information conference, December 2008.
- “Why Borders Mattered to American Slaveholders: The Case of Mexico,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association, January 2007.
- “Slavery on the Edge of the American Empire: Texas and Mexico, 1820-1845,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, April 2006.
- “Living in the Valley of the Shadow: Using Digital Technology to Teach the Civil War,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, April 2006.
- “Beyond the Southern Frontier: Taking American Slavery into Mexican Texas, 1821-1836,” a paper presented at the annual Missouri Valley History Conference, March 2005.
- “Confederate Nationalism in Civil War Louisiana,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Louisiana Historical Association, March 2005.

- “Delicate Jeopardy: Blacks and the Freedmen’s Bureau in Robertson County, Texas,” a paper presented at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association, March 2002.

KEYNOTES AND INVITED ADDRESSES

- “The Coming and Fighting of the Battle of San Jacinto,” a presentation made the San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site, April 2025.
- “The Rise and Fall of the Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Dallas Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, February 2025.
- “The San Jacinto Campaign and Battle,” a presentation made for the “Texas and American Life” lecture series, St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, Denton, Texas, February 2025.
- “The Great Storm of 1900: The Rise and Destruction of Nineteenth-Century Galveston,” a (virtual) presentation made for the Winedale Historic Site, Briscoe Center for American History, University of Texas, January 2025.
- “Texas History for Teachers and Your Classroom,” a virtual presentation made for Midland ISD social studies teachers, November 2024.
- “The Great Storm of 1900: The Rise and Destruction of Nineteenth-Century Galveston,” a presentation made at the Neill-Cochran House Museum, Austin, October 2024.
- “What Really Happened at the Battle of San Jacinto?” a presentation made at the San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site, April 2024.
- “Who Was the Real Stephen F. Austin?” a presentation made at Austin College, Sherman, Texas, February 2024.
- “How Do We Combine ‘Digital’ and ‘Traditional’ to Reimagine the Past?” a presentation made at the University of Texas, February 2024.
- “Texas Women during World War II: In Uniform and on the Home Front,” a presentation made to the Dallas Women’s Club, November 2023.
- “Why We Need to Teach Texas History as U.S. and Global History,” a keynote presentation at the Irving ISD Professional Development Conference, August 2023.

- “The Problem of Slavery in Mexican Texas,” a (virtual) presentation made to the Friends of the Texas Historical Commission, March 2023.
- “The Power of Teaching Texas History in a Broader Context,” keynote presentation at the Texas Social Studies Supervisors conference, Austin, Texas, February 2023.
- “The Problem of Violence along the U.S.-Mexico Border,” a presentation made at the Clements Center for Southwest Studies, Southern Methodist University, November 2022.
- “The Road to Juneteenth,” keynote presentation made to the Midwest State Parks Executive Conference, October 2022
- “How Do We Combine ‘Digital’ and ‘Traditional’ in History?” a presentation made as part of the Transformational Historians Speaker Series at Texas A&M University, October 2022.
- “Texas and the Road to the Civil War,” a virtual presentation made to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, September 2022.
- “Slavery and the Texas Revolution,” a presentation made to the Alamo Citizens Advisory Council meeting on “The History of Unfree Labor at the Alamo,” San Antonio, July 2021.
- “Runaway Slaves in Texas,” talks given as part of the National Park Service and Organization of American Historians Roundtable on the Underground Railroad in Texas, June 2021.
- “Women of the Texas Revolution,” keynote address at the national meeting of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, San Antonio, May 2021.
- “Texas and the Road to the American Civil War,” a presentation made at the Neill-Cochran House Museum as part of their Modern Times series, Austin, May 2021.
- “The Roots of Slavery in Early Texas,” a presentation made (virtually) for the Houston Seminar, March 2021.
- “The Rise and Fall of the Republic of Texas,” a Facebook Live presentation broadcast by the Galveston Historical Foundation, August 2020.

- “What It Means to Teach History in the 21st Century,” keynote presentation for the University of Texas OnRamps Professional Learning Institute, July 2020.
- “Lessons from a Career in Digital Humanities: From Graduate School to Tenure,” keynote presentation at the 11th Annual Texas A&M History Conference, February 2020.
- “Making and Breaking the Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the 6th Annual Daughters of the Republic of Texas History Symposium, Austin, February 2020.
- “The Life and Times of the Peters Colony,” a presentation made at the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the Peters Colony Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Denton, December 2019.
- “The Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Annual Meeting of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas District III, Las Colinas, October 2019.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and Texas Culture, 1800-1850,” a presentation made at The Witte Museum’s The Art of Texas: 250 Years conference, San Antonio, May 2019.
- “The Life and Times of Stephen F. Austin’s Colony,” a presentation made at a meeting of the Dallas Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution February 2019.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Neill-Cochran House Museum, Austin, February 2019.
- Panelist, “Convergence of Cultures in the Texas Revolution,” a presentation made at the Alamo, San Antonio, February 2019.
- “American Slavery in Mexican Texas,” a presentation to the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, San Antonio, December 2018.
- “The Presidencies of Sam Houston and Mirabeau Lamar,” a presentation made at the meeting of the Sons of the Republic of Texas – Thomas J Rusk Chapter, Dallas, September 2018.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Richardson Public Library, Richardson, July 2018.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of Texas,” keynote presentation at the Alamo Tricentennial Lecture Series, at the Alamo, San Antonio, June 2018.

- “The Transformation of the Texas Borderlands,” a presentation made at the San Felipe de Austin Museum, June 2018.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made to the Franklin County Historical Association, May 2018.
- “Building the Mansfield Museum: How We Used Simple Digital Tools to Transform Inexperienced Undergraduates into Published Researchers,” a presentation made at Southwestern University, Austin, April 2018.
- “The Perilous Path of Going Up for Tenure in the Digital Age,” a presentation made at the Scholarly Communication Symposium, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, April 2018.
- “The Crisis at Mansfield: How UNT’s Portal to Texas History Is Uncovering Forgotten Stories of the Civil Rights Era in Texas,” keynote presentation of the Arlen Edgar Distinguished Lecture Series at the Petroleum Museum, Midland, March 2018.
- “The Problem of Slavery in Texas,” a presentation made at Southwestern University, Austin, February 2018.
- “Texas, Slavery, and the Road to the Civil War,” a presentation made at the meeting of the Dallas Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, February 2018.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of Texas,” a presentation made to the Texas Old Missions and Forts Association, Dallas, January 2018.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Museum of Fine Art, Houston, October 2017.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of Texas,” a presentation made to the Heritage Society, Houston, August 2017.
- “How Cotton Transformed Mexico’s Far North into the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Bastrop County Historical Society Museum, Bastrop, Texas, July 2017.
- “King Cotton, Slavery, and the History of Early Texas,” keynote presentation made at the inaugural Juneteenth Celebration at Washington-on-the-Brazos State Park, June 2017.

- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Dallas Book Festival, April 2017.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and Early Texas,” keynote address at the annual Cotton and Rural History Conference, American Cotton Museum, Greenville, April 2017.
- “Mansfield and the Fight Over Desegregating Texas’ Public Schools,” a presentation made at Tarrant County College – Northeast Campus, February 2017.
- “Tejanos, Slavery, and the Remaking of Texas,” a presentation made at the University of Texas—San Antonio, February 2017.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of Texas,” a presentation made at the Denton Courthouse-on-the-Square for the Denton County Office of History and Culture, February 2017.
- “Slavery and the Transformation of Early Texas,” a presentation made at the Bullock State Texas History Museum as part of the Purchased Lives symposium, Austin, January 2017.
- “Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of Texas,” a presentation made at the Neill-Cochran House Museum, Austin, January 2017.
- “The Story of the Alamo (And How We Can Use It to Get Kids Excited About College),” a presentation made to the Board of Advisors for the UNT College of Arts and Sciences’ “Lunch and Learn” series, December 2016.
- “Seeds of Empire: How Cotton Transformed Early Texas,” a presentation made at the San Felipe de Austin Historic Site, Sealy, November 2016.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Galveston Historical Foundation, November 2016.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Dallas Chapter, October 2016.
- “Seeds of Empire: Cotton, Slavery, and the Transformation of the Texas Borderlands,” a presentation made at the Clements Center for Southwest Studies, Southern Methodist University, September 2016.

- “King Cotton and the Problem of Slavery in Mexican-Era Texas,” a presentation made at the annual Saving Texas History Symposium, General Land Office of Texas, San Antonio, September 2016.
- “How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Allen Public Library’s Back to Books Cultural Arts Series, Allen, June 2016.
- “King Cotton, Afro-Texans, and the Origins of Texas Plantation Society, 1821-1835,” a presentation made at the San Jacinto Symposium, April 2016.
- “Big-And-Messy versus Tiny-But-Beautiful: Which Is a Better Archive for 21st-Century Historians?” a presentation made at the University of Colorado-Boulder, January 2016.
- “The Promise and Perils of Doing History in the Digital Age,” a presentation made at the University of Texas, November 2015.
- “Seeds of Empire: How Mexico’s Far North Became the American Southwest,” a presentation made at the McFadden-Ward Historic House Museum, Beaumont, July 2015.
- “Twenty Years of Digital Innovation,” a presentation made at the Galveston Historical Foundation, June 2015.
- “What Does the Digital Revolution Mean for History?” a presentation made at the University of Oklahoma, June 2015.
- “What the Digital Age Means for Archives,” keynote presentation at the annual meeting of the Society of Southwest Archivists, Arlington, May 2015.
- “How We Built the Mapping Texts Project,” a presentation made at the “Visualizing the History of the Black Press in the United States” NEH Digital Humanities Workshop, Johns Hopkins University, October 2014.
- “Smuggling Slaves Along the Gulf Coast: How the Laffite Brothers and Jim Bowie Made a Fortune in Human Flesh,” a presentation made at the annual Laffite Seminar, Galveston, April 2014.
- “The Promise and Perils of Doing History in the Digital Age,” a presentation made at Duke University, October 2013.

- “What I Learned from Building My Own Digital Project as a Graduate Student,” a presentation made at Duke University, October 2013.
- “Understanding the Digital Humanities,” a presentation made at Texas A&M University, October 2013.
- “What Every Graduate Student Needs to Know About the Digital Humanities,” a presentation made at Texas A&M University, October 2013.
- Panelist, “Slavery in Modern North America: Nineteenth Century to the Present,” at the “Uniting the Histories of Slavery in North America and Its Borderlands” symposium, Southern Methodist University, April 2013.
- “The Promise and Perils of Digitized Historical Newspapers,” a presentation made at the Digital Humanities Center and the Summersell Center for the Study of the South at the University of Alabama, February 2013.
- “The Problem of Slavery in Early Texas,” a presentation made at San Angelo State University, February 2013.
- “The Promise and Perils of Doing History in the Digital Age,” a presentation made at the University of Houston’s Digital Humanities Initiative, November 2012.
- “Mapping Texts: Visualizing Historical American Newspapers,” a presentation made at the Digital Humanities Colloquium at the University of North Texas, October 2012.
- “What Does Ten Million Words Look Like?” a presentation made to the Library of Congress, National Digital Newspaper Program, Washington, D. C., September 2012.
- “What Can Digital Tools Tell Us About Slavery in the Texas Borderlands?” a presentation made at the Clements Center for the Study of the Southwest, Southern Methodist University, October 2011.
- “Slavery, African-Americans, and the Texas Revolution,” a presentation made at the annual Saving Texas History Symposium, Texas General Land Office, October 2011.
- Chair of “The Situations of Digital Humanities,” at the Texas Institute for Literary and Textual Studies Digital Humanities Symposium, University of Texas, May 2011.

- “Slavery and the Southwest: Mapping People and Ideas in Early Texas,” a presentation made at the semi-annual meeting of the Texas Map Society, October 2010.
- “The Slave Frontier in Texas and Mexico,” a presentation made at the annual Teaching of History conference, University of North Texas, September 2010.
- “Does the Digital Revolution Mean the End of the Humanities?” a presentation made at Rice University, April 2010.
- “The Slaveholders’ Republic,” a presentation made at the Tenth Annual San Jacinto Symposium, University of Houston, April 2010.
- “Can Historians Survive the 21st Century?” keynote address of the 2010 annual meeting of the Texas Heritage Digitization Initiative, Austin, Texas, February 2010.
- “Collaborative Digital Scholarship: Can Historians Survive the Twenty-First Century?” a presentation made at the Stanford Humanities Center, Stanford University, January 2010.
- “The South into the West: Visualizing the Spread of Slavery,” a presentation made at the Bill Lane Center for the Study of the American West, Stanford University, January 2010.
- “Digital Scholarship and What It Means for Your Campus,” Chronicle of Higher Education Technology Forum, Washington, D. C., April 2009.
- “Two Decades in the Trenches: Reports from the Frontline of Digital Teaching and Learning,” keynote presentation at the 20th annual conference of the Western Cooperative for Educational Telecommunications (WCET), November 2008.
- “What If We Could See History?” a presentation made at Harvard’s Digital Humanities Initiative, Harvard University, February 2008.
- “Mapping the Borders of Slavery,” a presentation made at the Nebraska Digital Workshop, Center for Digital Research in the Humanities, University of Nebraska at Lincoln, October 2007.
- Panelist, Freedmen’s Bureau Project Symposium at the National Archives, Washington, D. C., January 2006.

- "The Valley of the Shadow Project and Digital History," a presentation made at the Multimedia Educational Resource for Learning and Online Teaching (MERLOT) annual conference, Nashville, Tennessee, July 2005.

CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIA ORGANIZED

- "Early Texas History, 1528-1821," a one-day continuing education workshop that hosted fifty K-12 teachers (focusing on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving instruction on Texas history in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, hosted at Region 10 Educational Service Center, November 2025.
- "Teaching Texas History: 1900-1950," a three-day institute that hosted fifty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving instruction on Texas history in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, hosted at the University of North Texas, June 2025.
- "From the Republic to Reconstruction: Nineteenth-Century Texas," a one-day continuing education workshop that hosted fifty K-12 teachers (focusing on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, Edinburg, Texas, October 2024.
- "Teaching the Spanish Colonial and Mexican National Periods in Texas History," a three-session online institute that hosted sixty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, July 2024.
- "Teaching about 'Cotton, Cattle, and Railroads' in Texas," a four-session online institute that hosted sixty-five K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, January-February 2024.
- "Reconstruction and the Remaking of Texas," a four-session online institute that hosted forty-five K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, January-February 2023.
- "The Making of Mexican Texas, 1820-1830," a three-session online institute that hosted fifty-five K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, September-October 2022.

- “Teaching the Transformation of Texas, 1930-1945,” a five-session online institute that hosted sixty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, February 2022.
- “Teaching about American Indians in Texas,” a four-session online institute that hosted sixty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, September-October 2021.
- “Teaching the Texas Revolution,” a five-day online institute that hosted 130 K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, July 2021.
- “Teaching Texas History, II” an eight-session online institute that hosted sixty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, Spring 2021.
- “Teaching Texas History,” an eight-session online institute that hosted fifty-five K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving Texas history in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, Fall 2020.
- “Texas as a Borderland, 1820-1835,” a five-day online institute that hosted 160 K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving instruction on Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, July 2020.
- “Three Centuries of Texas History,” a three-day institute that hosted sixty K-12 teachers for continuing education workshops (focused on both classroom content and pedagogy) for improving instruction on Texas history instruction in public schools. Produced in partnership with Humanities Texas, hosted at the University of North Texas, June 2017.

- “Violence in the U. S.-Mexican Borderlands,” a two-part symposium gathering scholars in both the United States and Mexico to discuss the historical roots of violence along the U. S.-Mexican border, sponsored and hosted by the Clements Center for the Study of the Southwest at SMU and the Instituto Mora in Mexico City, 2015-2016.
- The Humanities and Technology Camp-Texas, an “unconference” gathering together humanities scholars and technologists, sponsored and hosted by Rice University, April 2011. <http://texas2011.thatcamp.org/>
- “Visualizing the Past: Tools and Techniques for Understanding Historical Processes,” two-day conference gathering together scholars from the U. S. and Europe to discuss the state of technology for visualizing historical processes, sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities, hosted by the University of Richmond, February 2009. <http://dsl.richmond.edu/workshop>
- Co-Director of Virginia Center for Digital History workshop, “Historians Teaching about the American South,” sponsored by the National Institute for Technology and Liberal Education, University of Virginia, April 2006.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP PRESENTATIONS

- “Spanish Explorations,” “The French Threat,” “Permanent Spanish Settlements,” “The Demise of Spain in Texas,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the teacher development workshop, Early Texas History, 1528-1821, November 2025.
- “The Power of Teaching Texas History in Broader Contexts,” “The Transformation of Texas, 1800-1850,” and “Texas and the Struggle for Civil Rights in the United States,” all presentations made for Northeastern ISD social studies curriculum professional development workshop, San Antonio, August 2025.
- “The Age of Oil” and “World War II and Texas,” both presentations made as part of the Humanities Texas teacher professional development institute Teaching Texas History: 1900-1950, University of North Texas, June 2025.
- “The Texas History for Teachers Project,” a presentation for the Diocese of Dallas Catholic Schools Conference, Frisco, Texas, January 2025.
- “From the Republic to Secession, 1845-1860,” “Secession and Civil War,” “Reconstruction,” and “The End of Reconstruction and Its Aftermath,” all presentations made as part of the Humanities Texas teacher development workshop From the Republic to Reconstruction: Nineteenth-Century Texas, Edinburg, Texas, October 2024.

- “The Power of Teaching Texas History in Broader Contexts,” “The Transformation of Texas, 1800-1850,” and “Texas during the Great Depression and World War II,” all presentations made for Northeastern ISD social studies curriculum professional development workshop, San Antonio, August 2024.
- “American Indians and Spanish Explorers,” “The Collapse of Spain and Rise of Mexico,” and “The Making of Mexican Texas,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, Teaching the Spanish Colonial and Mexican National Periods in Texas History, July 2024.
- “Integrating Primary Sources into Your Classroom,” a workshop presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop The New Nation: America, 1800-1860, Texas Christian University, June 2024
- “American Expansion, Sectionalism, and War: 1845-1860,” a presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop The New Nation: America, 1800-1860, Texas Christian University, June 2024.
- “The Last of the Indian Wars,” “Cattle Drives,” “The Problem of Cotton,” and “The Rise and Fall of the Populists,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, Teaching about ‘Cotton, Cattle, and Railroads’ in Texas, January-February 2024.
- “The View of Texas from Mexico City, 1825-1835,” a presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop Mexican Texas and the Road to the Texas Revolution, 1825-1835, Fort Worth, November 2023.
- “The Power of Teaching Texas History in Broader Contexts,” a presentation made for Frisco ISD social studies curriculum professional development workshop, September 2023.
- “New Ways of Thinking about the History of the American Civil War,” a presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop The American Civil War: History, Literature, and Culture, San Antonio, February 2023.
- “The Road to Reconstruction,” “Presidential Reconstruction,” “Congressional Reconstruction,” and “The Legacies of Reconstruction,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, Reconstruction and the Remaking of Texas, January-February 2023.

- “Sam Houston,” a presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop Civic Leaders in Texas History, San Antonio, October 2022.
- “The Collapse of Spain in Texas,” “The Making of Mexican Texas, 1821-1824,” and “Conflicts between Texas and Mexico, 1825-1830,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, The Making of Mexican Texas, 1820-1830, September-October 2022.
- “Texas in 1900,” a presentation made for Humanities Texas professional development workshop Texas in the Twentieth Century, Lubbock, Texas, June 2022.
- “Using Primary Sources and Local Archives in Your Classroom,” a presentation made for the Texas State Historical Association’s Teaching with Primary Sources workshop, University of North Texas, September 2022.
- “Texas before 1930,” “Texas during the Depression,” “Texans and the New Deal,” “The Texas Home Front during World War II,” and “Texas Transformed,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, Teaching the Transformation of Texas, 1930-1945, February 2022.
- “Teaching the Texas Revolution,” a presentation made for Denton ISD social studies curriculum professional development workshop, October 2021.
- “First Texans, Precontact through 1793,” “Spaniards and Mexicans in Indian Country, 1800-1835,” “Caught between the Republic and the United States, 1836-1860,” and “Collapse of Indian Power in Texas, 1861-1875,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher development web-series, Teaching about American Indians in Texas, September-October 2021.
- “Getting the Big Picture of the Texas Revolution,” “Tejanos in the Texas Revolution,” “Women in the Texas Revolution,” “African Americans in the Texas Revolution,” and “Making Connections from the Revolution,” all presentations made for Humanities Texas in the online teacher institute, Teaching the Texas Revolution, July 2021.
- “Angry Farmers and the Road to the Populist Revolt,” an online presentation made for Regions 10 and 11 Professional Development Workshop, “Forgotten Voices,” March 2021.
- “Causes of the Civil War,” an online presentation made for the Humanities Texas online teacher institute, Shaping the American Republic, March 2021.

- “The Problem of Slavery,” an online presentation made for the Humanities Texas online teacher institute, Teaching Texas History II, February 2021.
- “The Collapse of Spanish Texas,” and “Putting the Pieces together for our Students,” online presentations made for the Humanities Texas online teacher institute, Teaching Texas History, October and December 2020.
- “Road to Revolution,” a presentation made for the Humanities Texas online teacher institute, Texas as a Borderlands, 1820-1835, July 2020.
- “Road to the Civil War,” presentations made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshops, The Civil War Era, in Dallas and Fort Worth, February 2020.
- “Texas from the Republic to the Confederacy,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Nineteenth-Century Texas History, Midland, October 2019.
- “Smuggling Slaves on the Gulf Coast: How the Lafitte Brothers and Jim Bowie Made a Fortune in Human Flesh,” a presentation made at the Teaching of History Conference, Anarchists and Assassins, at the University of North Texas, September 2019.
- “The Spanish Era in Texas History” and “The Mexican Era in Texas History,” presentations made to the Denton ISD Professional Development Workshop, August 2019.
- “Republic to Secession” and “From Cattle Drives to Mega-Ranches,” presentations made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Texas: From Republic to Mega-State, San Antonio, June 2019.
- “Texas from the Republic to the Confederacy,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Nineteenth-Century Texas History, Fort Worth, November 2018.
- “Slavery in Nineteenth-Century North America,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, The Civil War Era, Corpus Christi, February 2018.
- “King Cotton and the Problem of Slavery in Early Texas,” and “Texas, Slavery, and the Road to the Civil War,” presentations made to the Round Rock ISD Professional Development Workshop, February 2018.

- “The Rise and Fall of the Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Three Centuries of Texas History, Denton, June 2017.
- “Taking Your Project from Dissertation to Book: Advice from the Front-Lines,” a professional development workshop presentation to the Professional Development Organization for Promising Historians, University of North Texas, April 2017.
- “Slavery and the Road to Secession,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Slavery, Secession, the Civil War, and Reconstruction, Dallas, February 2017.
- “Slavery and Antebellum Texas,” a presentation made at the Texas State Historical Association’s teacher workshop, Energizing Texas History, Dallas, November 2016.
- “The Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas teacher workshop, Chapters in Nineteenth-Century Texas History, Galveston, November 2016.
- “The Transformation of Texas during World War II,” a presentation made at the Teaching of History Conference, Reconstruction and Restorations, University of North Texas, October 2016.
- “The Problem of Slavery in Antebellum Texas,” a presentation made at the Texas General Land Office’s teaching workshop, Totally Texas, at the Bullock Texas State History Museum, June 2016.
- “Slavery in the Nineteenth-Century American Southwest,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas institute for teachers, History of the American Southwest, Texas State University, June 2016.
- “The Situation in Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas public forum The Election of 1860, at the University of Texas, April 2016.
- “The Election of 1860,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas workshops, Slavery, Secession, the Civil War, and Reconstruction, in Corpus Christi, San Angelo, and Lubbock, February 2016.
- “Using Omeka in the Classroom: Lessons Learned from Having Undergraduates Build an Online Civil Rights Museum,” an online presentation made to the Texas Digital Humanities Consortium, November 2015.

- “Slavery, Secession, and the Coming of the Civil War in Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas workshop, Nineteenth-Century Texas History, San Antonio, October 2015.
- “Beyond Stephen F. Austin: Other Empresarios in Mexican-Era Texas,” a presentation made at the Texas State Historical Association’s Discovering Texas History conference, Austin, August 2015.
- “The Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas workshop, Texas History: From Revolution to Republic, Sam Houston Memorial Museum, October 2014.
- “Stephen F. Austin’s Colony,” a presentation made at the Texas State Historical Association sponsored Exploring Texas Series, Richardson, August 2014.
- “Suffragists and Abolitionists in the 1860s,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas institute, The U.S. in the 1860s, University of North Texas, June 2014.
- “Tejanos and the Opening of Texas to Anglo-Americans,” a presentation made at the Texas State Historical Association sponsored Energizing Texas History conference, Dallas, November 2013.
- “The Republic of Texas,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas workshop, Texas Before Statehood, Dallas Institute for Humanities and Culture, October 2013.
- “Managing Scholarly Digital Projects from Start to Finish,” a presentation made at The Humanities and Technology Camp--Texas, Rice University, April 2011.
- “Sectionalism and Secession,” a presentation made at the Humanities Texas workshop, Secession, the Civil War, and Reconstruction, The Women’s Museum of Dallas, February 2011.
- “What Can Google Do For Your Research?” Google workshop and presentation at the University of North Texas, October 2010.
- “The Digital Civil War,” a presentation made at the National Endowment for the Humanities American History Workshop, Landmarks of the Underground Railroad: From Christiana to Harpers Ferry, Dickinson College, July 2006 and July 2007.

COURSES TAUGHT

Undergraduate:

- The History of the United States
- The Rise and Fall of the Slave South
- The History of Texas, prehistoric to modern day
- Slavery and the American Frontier
- African-Americans in North Texas
- The Civil Rights Era in Texas
- Texas and World War II
- Advances Methods in Public History

Graduate:

- Introduction to Digital Scholarship
- Historiography of the Southwest
- Nineteenth-Century North America
- The Era of the U. S.-Mexican War
- Borderlands in North America
- The Civil Rights Era in Texas
- African-Americans in North Texas
- Texas and World War II
- Advanced Methods in Historical Research

UNIVERSITY AND DEPARTMENTAL SERVICE

- University of North Texas:
 - Editorial board member, UNT Press, 2021-Present.
 - Fulbright Campus Committee, 2021-2022, 2025.
 - Search Committee for Director of the Office of Disability Accommodations, University of North Texas, 2017.
 - Founder and Director, “Day at UNT” program (brings middle school children to UNT for a day exploring of a university campus), 2012-2018.
 - Search Committee for Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, University of North Texas, 2014.
 - UNT Digital Scholarship Co-Operative Advisory Committee, 2013-2014.
 - Digital Scholarship Planning Committee, University of North Texas, 2011-2013.
- University Libraries, University of North Texas:
 - Library Advocacy Board, University of North Texas, 2017-Present.
 - National Digital Newspaper Program Advisory Board, 2020-2026.
 - Search Committee for Willis Library, Office of Public Outreach, 2022-2023.
 - University Library Committee, University of North Texas, 2012-2016.
 - Strategic Plan Committee, UNT Library, 2010-11

- College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, University of North Texas:
 - Promotion Affairs Committee, 2024-2027.
 - Faculty Council, 2017-2020.
- History Department, University of North Texas:
 - Department Affairs Committee, 2016-2018; 2021-2022; 2024-Present.
 - Department Liaison to University Library, 2019-Present.
 - Interim Chair, Promotion and Tenure Committee, 2025.
 - Member, “Public History” search committee, 2024-2025.
 - Chair of “Texas” search committee, 2023-2024.
 - Member, “Colonial Latin America” search committee, 2021-2022.
 - Chair of Committee on Teaching the U.S. Survey, 2020-2021.
 - Undergraduate Committee, 2019-2022.
 - Chair of “Slavery in the Americas” search committee, 2019-2020.
 - Chair of Library Committee, 2016-2019.
 - Faculty Advisor for “Professional Development Organization for Promising Historians,” UNT history department, 2015-2018.
 - Graduate Student Committee, 2012-2014.
 - Library Committee, 2012-2015.
- University of Virginia:
 - Search Committee, Director of the Virginia Center for Digital History, University of Virginia, 2005-2006.
 - Chair of the Southern History Seminar, Department of History, University of Virginia, 2002-2003.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION SERVICE

- Western History Association
 - W. Turrentine-Jackson Award Committee, 2024-Present
- Alliance for Texas History
 - Journal Committee, 2024.
- Texas State Historical Association
 - Secretary, Executive Committee, 2022-2023.
 - Board of Directors, 2018-2023.
 - Chair, Handbook Committee, 2010-2022.
 - Chair, Bates Prize Committee, 2017-2021.
 - Digital Task Force, Texas State Historical Association, 2010-2012.
 - Program Committee, Texas State Historical Association, 2009-2010.
- Southern Historical Association
 - Membership Committee, 2019-2020.
 - Membership Committee, 2007-2008.

EXTERNAL ADVISORY BOARDS

- The Bullock Texas State History Museum, Austin, Texas, 2025.

- William J. Hill Texas Artisans and Artists Archive, Houston Museum of Fine Arts, 2013-2023.
- Digital History Steering Committee, Massachusetts Historical Society, 2020-2022.
- Texas Digital Humanities Consortium, Steering Committee, 2014-2019.
- “Texas, Our Texas,” Texas PBS, 2014-2018.
- San Felipe de Austin Project, Historic Sites Division, Texas Historical Commission, 2015-2016.
- Texas State Court Records Preservation Task Force, Texas Supreme Court, 2011-2012.
- Dolph Briscoe Center for American History’s National Digital Newspaper Project, University of Texas, 2011-2012.

MANUSCRIPT AND GRANT REVIEWER FOR

- Oxford University Press.
- University of North Carolina Press.
- University of Texas Press.
- University of Oklahoma Press.
- University of North Texas Press.
- National Endowment for the Humanities.
- Mellon Foundation.
- Western Historical Quarterly.
- Southwestern Historical Quarterly.
- Riksbankens Jubileumsfond (Sweden’s leading grant-making foundation in the humanities and social sciences).
- Brill (academic publisher in the Netherlands).
- Austrian Science Fund (Austria’s leading grant-making foundation equivalent of the U.S. National Science Foundation).
- Citizen Science Alliance.