Learning Objectives

UNT CORE OBJECTIVES

• Critical Thinking
• Communication
• Social Responsibility
• Teamwork

COURSE OBJECTIVES

• Students will investigate the construction of the Western art music canon and, subsequently, the creation of art music “masterpieces.”
• Students will rethink the power of a chronological, canon-oriented, musical experience by listening to music in a way that focuses on musical aesthetics across time, space, and genre.
• Working as a team, students will explore an aesthetic-based concept of music; collaborate to identify a new music element; construct a group essay to explore and justify this element; and curate a playlist that accompanies this new element.

In-Class Activities
Course Overview Quiz (Due: End of Week 2, Sunday @ 11.59pm)
Assignment Guidelines

Individual Activities
During each class session, students will produce a variety of responses: short writing assignments, responses to multiple choice questions, discussion questions. These submissions will be completed via iClicker Reef. Each class will total around 5 points. The total number of points that you can earn during the semester is capped at 100. Since you will have the opportunity to answer more questions than are required to reach 100, you can still build 100 points even if you miss a couple of classes or answer some questions incorrectly. Further, because will be given more than 100 points worth of polling questions throughout the semester, you may not make up missed questions, regardless whether you have forgotten to bring a response device, you are late to class, or you miss class. Again, there is no makeup for missed questions. (If you have extenuating circumstances, please notify me so that we may work together to ensure your success in learning the material.)

Please Note: If you abuse your iClicker Reef privilege by responding in disrespectful or inappropriate ways, your polling ability will be will be suspended for the remainder of the semester, meaning you forfeit all remaining in-class participation points.

Academic Integrity: The misuse of iClicker Reef will be considered a violation of proper student conduct and will be treated as cheating. For this class, iClicker Reef is to be used as a learning tool by you in the classroom. Misuse would include submitting answers for a friend who is not in attendance in class, submitting answers when you are absent, having someone else submit answers for you when you are absent, or any other use of iClicker Reef by which you are not submitting your own work in class.

Group Activities
Nearly every Wednesday or Friday meeting will include a problem-based learning activity. Four of these activities will be graded. You will complete these tasks with your core group and submit your work via Blackboard, Google Classroom, or in hard copy. These discussion days will incorporate different kinds of activities, depending on that week’s topic. Some possibilities:

- Groups react to source material, decide on a “stance,” and prepare talking points to discuss and debate
- Groups are assigned a “stance” based on the assigned source material and must find evidence to support and defend this assigned position
- Groups complete a prepared assignment and then discuss and debate
- Groups search out popular media and music, apply concepts, and generate analyses to discuss and debate

Course Overview Quiz
There is a short, 25-question quiz over the Course Overview Module. Any informational item or document contained therein is fair game for the quiz, so make sure you take a look at everything in that module. There will be 25 multiple choice and true/false questions. Each question is worth one point. You will have two attempts to complete the quiz.

Padlet Explorations
Assignment Guidelines
Due: End of Weeks 2-15 (Sundays @ 11.59pm)

General Information
Over the course of the semester, you will complete regular “Padlet Explorations,” which ask you to engage with the course content on your own terms. These assignments qualify as one of your main out-of-class, “blended” exercises, as they ask to you interact with readings and ideas that we might not discuss during our class meetings. Padlet is a fun, innovative, and easy-to-read platform that allows you to integrate text, videos, images, and music. To get started, go to padlet.com and create a free account. You are required to submit 10 Padlet Explorations over the course of the semester. There are 14 opportunities to complete the required 10, allowing you to miss 4 submissions without penalty. Only the 10 best scores will count in your final grade.

Here’s a link to Padlet Support if you need help getting started: https://padlet.com/support.

Formatting & Submission Guidelines
You will need to create a new Padlet for each exploration. You can format and structure your Padlet any way you like. To submit your Padlet for grading, following the directions below. Please note, you will need to submit your weekly Padlet in two places or you won’t receive credit: to the assignment submission for grading and to your group “Padlet Discussion Board” in Blackboard; there will be a unique “thread” for each Padlet Exploration.

To submit for grading:
- Click on the “share” icon in the top right hand corner
- Check your privacy settings
- Click on the “Share/Export/Embed” tab in the right-hand corner
- Click on “Embed this Padlet” and copy the code
- In the assignment submission, select the Blackboard HTML editor
- Paste your copied embed HTML code, save, and submit (You will see a large yellow box in the Blackboard text box until you submit it.)

After you’ve submitted your assignment for grading, please also embed your Padlet into your group Discussion Board in Blackboard, so that you can view and comment on your other group members’ work. You’ll receive 1 point extra credit each week for commenting on at least one of your group members’ Padlets.

To embed your Padlet in your group discussion board:
- Select your group in Blackboard
- Go to your group discussion board thread for the associated Padlet Exploration
- In the discussion board submission, select the Discussion Board HTML editor
- Paste your copied embed HTML code, save, and submit (You will see a large yellow box in the Blackboard text box until you submit it.)

Here are more details on how to embed your Padlet: https://padlet.com/support/padlets_embed.

Required Content:
Each weekly Padlet Exploration should contain the following:
- Title/Subtitle: Your title should encapsulate your main focus and take for that Padlet.
- Short Introduction: You should include a 150-250-word response to the prompt and general guide to your Padlet.
- Quotes: Each prompt below will ask you to engage with a concept or reading assignment. If there is an associated reading assignment, your Padlet should incorporate at minimum two substantial quotes that relate to your interpretation and understanding of the prompt; these quotes should also bring together the content on your Padlet. If there is no reading associated with that week’s Padlet exploration, seek out quotations from others that help illuminate your ideas. Please caption and credit all quotes with the author’s last name, title of reading, and page number when appropriate. Quote your favorite artist, quote a music critic, quote your wise best friend...the options are limitless!

- Images: You should have at least two images that express your interpretation of the prompt. If you take them yourself, all the better. Please caption and credit images that are not your own.

- Media (Videos + Musical Examples): You should have at least two musical examples that engage with your interpretation and reaction to the prompt. You can embed Spotify tracks very easily into Padlet, as well as YouTube videos.

Padlet Exploration Prompts:

Padlet Exploration 1:
- Due Date: Week 2
- Prompt: Give a preview/summary of your Media Report 1. How do you define music? How do you interact with music on a regular basis? What’s “your” music—your favorite genre? What does music mean to you? Take images or videos of your musical encounters (stores, walking across campus, clubs, cars with friends, etc.).
- Associated Reading: None.

Padlet Exploration 2:
- Due Date: Week 3
- Prompt: Based on this week’s reading and discussion, how would you define the Western Art (“Classical”) Music canon in your own words? To achieve this task, I’m asking you to complete two short scavenger hunts:
  - Find one example of the Western Art Music Canon represented on UNT’s campus, which is one of the oldest and largest music schools in America. Take a picture or video. Do you see a program posted for an upcoming concert with canonic composers? Students carrying around instruments at the core of some of the most important canonic genres? Do you hear someone practicing what sounds like canonic music?
  - Associated Reading: “If History is Written by the Victors”

Padlet Exploration 3:
- Due Date: Week 4
- Prompt: Now that we’ve defined the canon, it’s time to start problematizing it. For this week, I’d like you to visit the website of at least two different American Symphony Orchestras. Look at their repertoire, and what they’re playing for this upcoming 2017-2018 season. Take a listen to some of the pieces. You can find a listing here: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_symphony_orchestras_in_the_United_States. What kinds of music is missing? How does the group “innovate” musically? By performing popular music? By performing a few pieces outside of the canon? What kind of music would you like to see performed? Do you see yourself in the music that is being performed? Why or why not?

Padlet Exploration 4:
- Due Date: Week 5
- Prompt: Give a preview of your concert review! Include your reactions, examples of the music performed, and an overview of your experience.
- Associated Reading: None.
Padlet Exploration 5:
- Due Date: Week 6
- Prompt: Define and evaluate the concept of repetition (Ratliff, Ch. 1) as an important musical element across all kinds of music. Do you agree with Ratliff's arguments regarding this musical element? Why or why not? Examine at least one musical example in Ratliff's playlist in detail – how does it exemplify this musical concept? Find at least one musical example outside of Ratliff’s playlist and justify its inclusion – how does it exemplify this musical concept?
- Associated Reading: Ratliff, Ch. 1

Padlet Exploration 6:
- Due Date: Week 7
- Prompt: Define and evaluate the concept of transmission (Ratliff, Ch. 4) as an important musical element across all kinds of music. Do you agree with Ratliff's arguments regarding this musical element? Why or why not? Examine at least one musical example in Ratliff’s playlist in detail – how does it exemplify this musical concept? Find at least one musical example outside of Ratliff’s playlist and justify its inclusion – how does it exemplify this musical concept?
- Associated Reading: Ratliff, Ch. 4

Padlet Exploration 7:
- Due Date: Week 8
- Prompt: Define and evaluate the concept of a single note (Ratliff, Ch. 6) as an important musical element across all kinds of music. Do you agree with Ratliff's arguments regarding this musical element? Why or why not? Examine at least one musical example in Ratliff’s playlist in detail – how does it exemplify this musical concept? Find at least one musical example outside of Ratliff’s playlist and justify its inclusion – how does it exemplify this musical concept?
- Associated Reading: Ratliff, Ch. 6

Padlet Exploration 8:
- Due Date: Week 9
- Prompt: Define and evaluate the concept of endless inventory (Ratliff, Ch. 10) as an important musical element across all kinds of music. Do you agree with Ratliff's arguments regarding this musical element? Why or why not? Examine at least one musical example in Ratliff’s playlist in detail – how does it exemplify this musical concept? Find at least one musical example outside of Ratliff’s playlist and justify its inclusion – how does it exemplify this musical concept?
- Associated Reading: Ratliff, Ch. 10

Padlet Exploration 9:
- Due Date: Week 10
- Prompt: Give a preview/summary of your Media Report 2. Include a summary of a genre you listen to least and its social and cultural import in today’s world. Give a couple of musical examples. Did you change your mind on the genre? Why or why not?
- Associated Reading: None

Padlet Exploration 10:
- Due Date: Week 11
- Prompt: Define and evaluate the concept of closeness (Ratliff, Ch. 14) as an important musical element across all kinds of music. Steve Cantrell has retired from writing for the Dallas Morning News. You’ve been asked to fill in. You need to find an upcoming “Classical” or “art” music concert and write a solid, engaging review. Your review should give an overview of your experience, while also reflecting on your take on the value of the Western Art Music canon in today’s world. Take a look at some of Cantrell’s work for reference. We’ll also analyze a variety of concert reviews in class to get a sense of what it means to write one.

You can find all upcoming concerts at UNT here: http://calendar.music.unt.edu/. Try to find a larger ensemble as opposed to an intimate recital, so you can try out your newly acquired genre-identifying and serious listening skills. A few options to consider before the deadline:

- September 7, 7.30pm, Winspear Performance Hall: Dallas Symphony Orchestra
- September 19, 7.30pm, Winspear Performance Hall: Symphonic Band
- September 20, 8.00pm, Winspear Performance Hall: UNT Symphony Orchestra
- September 28, 7.30pm, Winspear Performance Hall: Wind Symphony

Formatting and Submission Guidelines

Your essay should be 2-3 pages, doubled-spaced, and typed in 12-point Times, Arial, or Cambria font with 1” margins on each side of the page. Include media and images to enhance your arguments. (It’s okay if your media pushes you over the page limit a bit, especially if you decide to incorporate throughout your review, as opposed to including only at the end.) Under no circumstances will emailed submissions be accepted. Please submit directly to Blackboard. Please cite all source material appropriately (MLA, Chicago, APA – your style choice!) and carefully proof-read your work.

Required Content

- Introduction: This section has an exciting opening hook and clearly sets up the import and relevance of concert and the main points of focus for your review. You should have a solid thesis, which identifies this main point of focus. (1 paragraph)
- Frame/Context for Concert: Give a little context of one-two of the pieces that were performed and the space within which they were performed. Take a look at the program notes and do some additional research online. Were you familiar with these composers and pieces before the concert? How did the context change your understanding of the music at hand? How did the music intersect with our discussion of big style periods and some of the most important composers at the center of those style movements? (Be sure to cite your sources, even the program notes!) (2-3 paragraphs)
- Personal Spin on the Concert: This is your take on concert itself. What did you find successful or unsuccessful? What pieces stood out to you the most? Why? Try to describe how they made you feel, while also engaging with a few musical elements you’ve been learning. Try to listen structurally throughout the concert. Are you successful when just focusing on the music? Why or why not? What do you like? What didn’t you like? (2-3 paragraphs)
- Final Thoughts: This section discusses the meaning/power of the “Classical” or art music concert. Here, I would like you to reflect on the relevance of the Western Art Music canon in today’s world. Can you connect with this kind of concert experience? Why or why not? Why does this music matter (or not) to you? Can you see traces of the music you love in this music? Why or why not? (2-3 paragraphs)
- Media: Like Cantrell, please include 4 or pieces of media to enhance your review, one of which must be a selfie of you in at the concert. Try to go with a few friends from class and take your picture together. This media you include could be images from the hall, images of the performers, etc. Try to think about images that will enhance your review and make it “real” to the reader. Check out Cantrell’s images for a guide. Please carefully caption all artwork. You can include the media throughout your review, or just include it all at the end. Images will not count towards your page length. (You can also use these images for your Padlet Exploration due the same week, which shares this experience more informally.)

Automatic Deductions:
- You have no “evidence” of concert: -15 points (Evidence includes a selfie of you at the event.)
- You write over concert before this semester started: No credit for the review, a zero is recorded.

FAQs

How do I insert the image of my program and/or selfie? (Turnitin won’t allow me to upload an additional pdf for jpeg.)

Supplemental images and media links need to be incorporated directly into your paper. Please just add them in the body or conclusion of your paper as you reference particular details or aspects (See Figure 1, See Music Video “xyz.com,” etc.). You cannot email these images separately, as noted on the formatting/submission guidelines. Turnitin also won’t allow you to attach additional pdfs, etc.

You can enter pictures as pdfs or jpegs (or other file formats) into a Word or any other kind of document. Often, you simply select the image and paste/drop it into your document. Google around online or use the help feature in the program you’re using if you can’t figure it out; you might also contact BB IT.

How should I cite my source material?

You must fully cite additional outside sources that you use to provide “background” information on the pieces of choice. Please reference the author’s name in parentheses after quotes or paraphrasing. Please include a more formal citation (whatever your style preference—Chicago, MLA, or APA) at your paper’s conclusion.

Remember: you must cite program notes! Turnitin doesn’t play. This program will note every quote, sentence, or word choice that is similar to another source. Make sure your citations are clear.

Can I use a concert I went to last summer, last year – sometime before I started taking this class?

No! You must use a concert that you’ve attended this semester while taking this course. You will NOT receive credit if you analyze a concert that took place before August 28.

I’ve uploaded my paper and need to make changes, what do I do?

Please contact the instructor or teaching assistants and ask them to “clear” you attempt in Blackboard. After your first attempt is cleared, you can resubmit your revised paper.

How do I view comments and my rubric scores in Turnitin?

Check out these guidelines here:

Assignment Packet

Album Review Assignment Guidelines
Due: End of Week 12 (Sunday @ 11.59pm)

General Information
Building on your concert reviewing skills, you will also review a record of your choice. Please choose a new album that inspires you (January 1, 2017 – Today!), in order to express yourself as a critic. You can have an overwhelmingly positive reaction to a record, a negative one, or, more likely, a combination of positive and negative feelings about a record. Given that there is a story behind every album, it is up to you to research the group, label, and/or producer’s history in the music world. You should also be aware of the perceptions of this artist in the popular realm and how this album makes (or disappoints) expectations. The album should have been released in the last year (re-issues are allowed, but not recommended) – the fresher, the better. The record can represent any genre of music. Using the website http://www.allmusic.com/, you can explore these possibilities, listen to sound clips and find out what albums in a particular genre have been released in the last year. The site requires that you register, but the process is very fast.

Here is a great link to a “How To” site for record reviews:
- https://jericsmith.com/2011/05/11/how-to-write-a-record-review

Some examples of great reviews:
- Mark Anthony Neal on Cee-Lo Green: http://www.popmatters.com/pm/review/ceelo-soulmachine
- If you would like to see some of writer Douglas Wolk’s unparalleled work as a blogger (with a focus on music) please visit his website: http://www.lacunae.com

Formatting and Submission Guidelines
Your essay should be 3-4 pages, doubled-spaced, and typed in 12-point Times, Arial, or Cambria font with 1” margins on each side of the page. Feel free to write in more informal, “fun” language of a critic – with no fluff! Include media and images to enhance your arguments. (It’s okay if your media pushes you over the page limit a bit, especially if you decide to incorporate throughout your review, as opposed to including only at the end.) Under no circumstances will emailed submissions be accepted. Please submit directly to Blackboard. Please cite all source material appropriately (MLA, Chicago, APA – your style choice!) and carefully proof-read your work.

Required Content
- Introduction: This section has an exciting opening hook and clearly sets up the import and relevance of record and focus for review. (1 paragraph)
- Frame/Context for Record: This section discusses the artist and their known body of work. This section must include an outside source (cited correctly): a previous review of the artist’s pre-existing work. Please do not include a review of the record you’re reviewing, but a review over one of their earlier records. This review should help you reflect on the artist’s relevance in today’s musical world, while also providing a comparative frame for their new record. (2-3 paragraphs)
- Personal Spin on the Record: This is your take on the record. You should try to reflect back on the meanings and goals of the record, and what you find successful (or unsuccessful). What do you like about the record? What tracks stand out to you? How do these tracks support your take on the record? You should have a detailed discussion of at least two tracks, where you describe their sound and how they support your take on the record. Your discussion of each “track” should contain 2-3 specific, appropriate music elements. Incorporate elements that Ratliff discusses

- Final Thoughts: This section discusses the meaning/power of the album in today’s cultural context by comparing it to other poets/musicians and considers where you see that artist “going.” How does this record “stack up”? (2-3 paragraphs)

- Media: You must include at least 4-5 pieces of media to enhance your review. This media could be album artwork, images of the artist, links to songs/music videos that resonate with your review, etc. Please carefully caption all artwork. You can include the media throughout your review, or just include it all at the end. The media will not count towards your page length. If media cause your essay to extend over 4 pages, don’t worry.

Grading

Your Album Review will be graded based on the criteria outlined below.

Automatic Deductions:
Your review must focus on a record released on and after January 1, 2017. The fresher the better. If you focus on a record released before 1.1.17, an automatic 25-point deduction applies.

FAQs:

How do I insert the images into my paper? (Turnitin won’t allow me to upload an additional pdf for jpeg.)

Supplemental images and media links need to be incorporated directly into your paper. Please just add them in the body or conclusion of your paper as you reference particular details or aspects (See Figure 1, See Music Video “xyz.com,” etc.). You cannot email these images separately. Turnitin won’t allow you to attach additional pdfs, etc.

How should I cite my source material?

You must cite additional outside sources that you use to provide “background” information on your artist of choice. Please reference the author’s name in parentheses after quotes or paraphrasing, or simply include the Author’s name and the title of the review in the body of your paper. Please include a more formal citation (whatever your style preference—Chicago, MLA, or APA) at your paper’s conclusion. For Ratliff, please just include an easy parenthetical citation like: (Ratliff, 130).

Remember: you must cite every single source! Use quotations when using words that are not your own. TurnItIn doesn’t play. This program will note every quote, sentence, or word choice that is similar to another source. Make sure your citations are clear.

I’ve uploaded my paper and need to make changes, what do I do?

Please contact the instructor or teaching assistants and ask them to “clear” you attempt in Blackboard. After your first attempt is cleared, you can resubmit your revised draft.
I want to use a random blog for my “previous” album source. Is that acceptable?
Please use a source that is written by a reliable, professional source. You can use any number of online newspapers or magazines, many of whom have music critics on their staff. If a reputable critic has a blog, please make that clear in your bibliography. Possible sources:
- Rolling Stone
- Pitchfork
- Allmusic
- NPR
- New York Times
- LA Times
- The Guardian
- BBC
General Information
Throughout this course, we are focusing on interrogating the concept of a “musical masterpiece,” and also questioning how we can “appreciate” music of all kinds. This assignment asks you to expand on these concepts, considering music as both an aesthetic object and a work of social and civic power. This assignment also asks you to reflect on your own musical tastes, and why certain musical genres resonate more with you than others.

For this assignment, you will seek out music and media from the last five years and reflect on the music’s meaning to its intended audience and to you. In addition, you must locate at least three reputable pop-academic sources (online article/reaction, review of artist, news story related to the song, etc.) that help you understand more fully the music at hand. At least one of these should contain information from the perspective of the performers, reflecting on their own artistic motivations. Some pop academic articles might come from sources comparable to:

- Rolling Stone
- Pitchfork
- Allmusic
- NPR
- New York Times
- LA Times
- The Guardian
- BBC

You will complete two reports over the course of the semester; each asks you to engage with two unique musical genres. Your own musical “taste” or “preference” will help guide your musical choices. For your second report, you must choose a song/issue that is outside of your immediate cultural perspective.

- Report 1: Please find a song/issue from a genre of music that you are most likely to listen to regularly. (In other words, you have this genre pre-programmed in your favorite radio stations and a Spotify playlist dedicated to it.)
- Report 2: Please find a song/issue from a genre of music that you are least likely to listen to regularly. (In other words, when this genre comes on if you’re in a store…you leave.)

Relying on the worksheet below, please reflect on how and why the song was written (or the motivations of musical event), what it means from the cultural perspective of the singer (or musicians), how it engages with civic/community issues, and what it means to the cultural perspectives of the target audience. You should also reflect on the artist’s own personal reactions and attitudes, and question how you can understand the meaning of the song by moving past your own cultural biases. Finally, you should consider how and why the music is socially relevant in today’s broader world, how it has influenced your own understanding of the civic/community issue at hand, and how you can engage with this music in new ways.

Formatting and Submission Guidelines
Please type directly into this provided worksheet below. Please type your response below “Student Response.” You should download the rubric, and then save and upload the rubric as a new document. Please don’t copy and paste into the Blackboard submission box, but add as an attachment. Your media report should be the only content you upload; please do not include these directions.
Required Content
Please provide a detailed response to each question below. You must respond to each criterion, and your response should range from 150-250 words. Please write in a structured, narrative style (i.e.: no bullet points!).

Please Note: If a song/issue is chosen outside of the five-year time-frame, an automatic 5-point deduction applies.

Final Group Essay and Playlist
Assignment Guidelines
Due: End of Week 15 (Thursday @ 11.59pm)

General Information
For your final essay, you and your group will identify a new kind of musical element in the vein of Ratliff. You will brainstorm with your group during class sessions, construct a rough outline, and compose an essay together. Finally, you will curate a playlist that exemplifies your musical element. To show your work, you will upload most tasks to your Blackboard group.

Formatting and Submission Guidelines
Your essay should be 8 pages, doubled-spaced, and typed in 12-point Times, Arial, or Cambria font with 1” margins on each side of the page. Under no circumstances will emailed submissions be accepted. Please submit directly to Blackboard. Please cite all source material appropriately (MLA, Chicago, APA – your style choice!) and carefully proof-read your work.

You should submit your playlist on the final page of your paper. Your playlist doesn’t count toward your page limit. Please curate your playlist on Spotify or YouTube and include the link at the outset of your playlist. You should then list the Artist, Song/Album, Year for each selection on your playlist. See Ratliff’s chapter playlists for formatting guidelines.

Required Content
- Introductory Matter: This section gives a broad overview to your element. You should include personal anecdotes (like Ratliff) along with several philosophical/aesthetic questions. Why you chose your element, and why this element matters should be apparent. (2 pages)
- Element as Applied to Diverse Musical Examples: This section discusses the element as applied to several unique musical examples. How does your element manifest in music? Why does it matter? What additional questions do these musical examples raise? How do these elements influence you and your group personally? How does this element ask you to listen in a new way? Why and how? (4 pages)
- Final Thoughts: This section should wrap up your big questions and leave your reader with a few more “big questions” and musical ideas to consider. Your ending should be pointed and powerful. (2 pages)
- Playlist: You must include at least 5-10 songs/albums that exemplify your element. This playlist should be curated via Spotify or YouTube. The final page of your paper should include the Artist, Song/Album Title, Year. Each example you include should have been referenced explicitly in your essay.
Grading

Syllabus Appendix II: Policies

Grade of I (Incomplete)
University policy specifies that the grade of I-incomplete is “a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a semester and only if a student is (1) passing the course; (2) has justifiable reason why the work cannot be completed on schedule; and (3) arranges with the instructor to finish the course at a later date by completing specific requirements that the instructor must list on the grade sheet. All work in the course must be completed within the specified time (not to exceed one year after taking the course).”

ODA Statement
The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation.

For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website here, disability.unt.edu. You may also contact them by phone: (940) 565-4323.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress
A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course being doing so.
