- Demonstrate efficient and expressive body carriage
- Demonstrate effective baton technique
- Demonstrate the following techniques:
 - Preparatory gestures, downbeats, and releases
 - Patterns for various meters including duple/triple, simple/compound
 - Representation of a diversity of styles
 - Representation of dynamic indications
 - Independent and complimentary use of right and left arms-hand complex
 - Entrances on beats other than one and incomplete beats
 - Diversity of gestural vocabulary in the service of cues and more
 - Representation of a diversity of tempos and transitions
- Evaluate conducting techniques by:
 - Observing and evaluating videotaped conducting experiences
 - Observing and evaluating class members
 - Evaluating two different conductors of various ensembles in rehearsal
 - Evaluating two different conductors of various ensembles in concert
 - Demonstrate visual/aural discrimination skills through rehearsal situations
 - Describe the role of the conductor in historical and philosophical perspectives
 - Refine the essential skills of musicianship in a conducting context
 - Internalize transpositions and their use in score reading through independent exercises and assignments

- Demonstrate the ability to analyze a score with a focus on interpretation and rehearsal techniques.

Required Resources

For success in the course, each student must have the following materials:

- Baton (subject to instructor approval)
- Course/Score material packet (provided)
- Smartphone or personal video recording device
- Smartphone tripod such as this one
- Your major or secondary instrument as determined by the instructor

Pre-Requisites

MUAG 3800 or transfer equivalent as determined by the conducting faculty: MUTH 1380/1480/2380/2480/2390/2490.

Successful completion of the qualifying entrance examination for MUAG 3870.

Concurrent Enrollment

MULB 1806, MULB 1807, MULB 1813, or MULB 5173.500, .501, or 502

Course Requirements

Attendance/Participation: Attendance is expected for all scheduled classes. The nature of a conducting course requires active participation and interaction among all class members at all times. Absence from class on a pre-assigned conducting day will result in the student being passed over for that conducting sequence, with a grade of 0 or no credit. Excuse absences will be handled on a case-by-case basis and are best communicated in advance.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform the professor and the instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

Absences will result in a lowering of the final grade as follows:

- 1-No effect
- 2-3 reduction of 1 letter grade
- 4-5 reduction of 2 letter grades
- 6+ grade of WF if withdrawal requested or final grade of F

Grading Scale

100-90	A
89-80	B
79-70	C
69-60	D
60 or below	F

Written Assignments and Tests

Individual written work pertinent to the lecture material will be assigned as needed. Examples include self-evaluation of conducting experiences, as well as rehearsal observations of professional conductors, as outlined below:

Rehearsal Observations:

Each student is required to submit two completed rehearsal observations, each reflecting thirty minutes spent in a MAJOR university or professional conducted ensemble rehearsal. All reports must be typed: double-spaced, 12-point Times New Roman font, and all margin 1 inch. The length of the typed assignments must be a minimum of one page, and a maximum of two pages with the above guidelines followed. For full credit, this assignment must be turned in at the beginning of class on the given due dates.

Score Study and Analysis Projects:

Students will be introduced to the score study and analysis process, with a culminating project that demonstrates comprehensions and application. More details to follow.

Weekly Conducting Assignments:

Weekly conducting exercises and excerpts will be assigned and evaluated. Each student will be expected to conduct the assigned musical excerpts in class with the class members as the ensemble. the student must provide a method to record their conducting turn.

The following scores will serve as the core curriculum of the course for each conducting round, students will be assigned a particular piece (or movement as appropriate) and then assignments will rotate each round. Special care will be made to focus on areas of growth as well as diversity of repertoire for each conductor. Additional scores may be assigned as well.

Divertimento for Band by Vincent Persichetti
Lincolnshire Posy by Percy Grainger
Second Suite in F by Gustav Holst
Expanding the Canon Excerpt Book
UNT Conductors' Collegium Excerpt Book

Final Conducting Examination:

The final week of class (4/27-5/1) will be used for the final conducting projects

Grading Procedures

The final grade is based on the following criteria

Evaluation	Percentage
Conducting Experiences	60%
Written Assignments	25%
Final Conducting Exam	15%

See the above section on attendance for details about how absences will affect the final grade.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.
