Welcome to UNT:
As members of the UNT community, we have all made a commitment to be part of an institution that respects and values the identities of the students and employees with whom we interact. UNT does not tolerate identity-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. UNT’s full Non-Discrimination Policy can be found in the UNT Policies section of the syllabus.

Course Description:
This course investigates key moments in the history of American popular music from 1945 to 2000, exploring popular music’s effect on American society; the expression of ethnic, racial, and gender identity through musical performance; the evolution of recording and listening technology; and the business practices of the music industry.
Regular use of sound and video recordings of music will play an integral role in the class, but prior musical ability (including the ability to read music) is not required or expected. There are no prerequisites for this course, and it fulfills the Creative Arts and Component Area Option A of the UNT Core Curriculum.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the course:

- Students will identify, examine, and describe the role of popular music in the formation of identity. In order to most effectively examine these issues, students will introduce problems and questions; present, interpret and analyze historical documents and contemporary scholarship related to the music being studied in this course; consider the context and credibility of source material; develop and present arguments; and present conclusions, while assessing their implications. (Core LO: Critical Thinking)
- Students will evaluate and communicate how popular music has both reflected and shaped American society. To communicate effectively, students will be asked to present a central idea; organize material cohesively; develop content; and apply rules of Standard English in their arguments. (Core LO: Communication)
- Students will identify issues of social responsibility by engaging with musics from a wide variety of cultural contexts. Students will acknowledge and apply diverse perspectives; acknowledge and apply civic responsibility; and articulate insights about personal attitudes, behaviors, or beliefs as they relate to the history of American popular music. (Core LO: Social Responsibility)
- Working as a part of a team, students will participate in frequent in-class group activities and will work together to complete a final creative project. Throughout these activities, students will reflect frequently on how best to contribute to a group; prepare and collaborate with a team; foster a constructive team climate; and respond to feedback constructively. (Core LO: Teamwork)

Course Materials:

Required:

- iClicker Student Account (provided by UNT) and a compatible device, such as a laptop or smartphone, to use in class each day.
- Access to Microsoft Word (provided by UNT)
Suggested:
- Access to a music streaming service such as Spotify, Tidal, Apple Music, etc.

All other course materials will be uploaded to our course’s Canvas site

Rules of Engagement:
Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:
- While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
- Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
- Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
- Speak from personal experiences. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups or other individual’s experiences.
- Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people’s ideas, instead of attacking individuals.
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.
- Proofread and fact-check your sources.

See these Engagement Guidelines https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips for more information.

Course Evaluation:

Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is the student evaluation system for UNT and allows students the ability to confidentially provide constructive feedback to their instructor and department to improve the quality of student experiences in the course. SPOT evaluations will be conducted in the final weeks of class and all students that complete this course’s evaluation will be given extra credit.

Course Policies:

Face Coverings
UNT strongly encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guidelines could change based on community health conditions.

Attendance
Attendance is important to your success in this course. Rather than take formal attendance, your attendance will be recorded based on your participation via iClicker. If you cannot attend class, for whatever reason, please contact me or one of the TAs directly. While I will try to be lenient, discretion over whether you will be able to make up (or be excused from) coursework will take place on a case-by-case basis.

COVID-19 impact on attendance

While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to a related issue regarding COVID-19.

If you are experiencing cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fever, or any of the other possible symptoms of COVID-19 (https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider.

While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and that of others in the community, is far more important.
Course Materials for Remote Instruction
Remote instruction may be necessary if community health conditions change or you need to self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19. Students will need access to a computer, stable internet connection, webcam, access to Zoom, and microphone to participate in fully remote portions of the class. Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at https://online.unt.edu/learn

Late Work Policy:
Late work will not be accepted in this class without a reasonable excuse. If you must submit something late, please contact me or the TAs as soon as possible. As with attendance, whether you will be able to submit (or be excused from) from late work will take place on a case-by-case basis at the instructor’s discretion.

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity:
NOTE: ALL WRITTEN MATERIALS IN THIS CLASS WILL BE AUTOMATICALLY SCANNED FOR PLAGIARISM VIA TURNITIN

Class Guidelines:
It is important when writing a research paper to make it absolutely clear when you are using someone else’s idea(s). This is done through proper attribution and citation practices, which we will discuss multiple times in class. Plagiarism occurs when you accidentally or purposefully do any of the following:
- Use someone else’s words either verbatim or nearly verbatim without attribution
- Use someone else’s evidence, line of thinking, or idea without attribution
- Turn in someone else’s work as your own
- Turn in previously submitted work as new work without instructor approval
If you are unsure if something constitutes plagiarism, please consult me, the TAs, and/or the web resources I’ve linked to in Canvas.

UNT Policy:
Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam. Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students (Office of Academic Integrity), who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term “cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term “plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to: a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Student Behavior:
Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students’ opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student’s conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university’s expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

ODA Statement
The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Access.

As such, the University of North Texas is committed to maintaining an open, welcoming atmosphere that attracts qualified students, staff, and faculty from all groups to support their success. The University of North Texas does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in its application and admission process, educational programs and activities, employment policies and use of university facilities.
