Course Description

According to the World Tourism Organization, sustainable tourism is tourism that leads to the management of all resources in such a way that economic, social and aesthetic needs can be fulfilled while maintaining cultural integrity, essential ecological processes, biological diversity and life support systems. The new sustainability paradigm gives compelling reasons for governments and the conventional tourism activity to seriously pursue the implementation of sustainable policies and practices.

The course explores the key sustainability-related themes in tourism and challenges for implementation of the operators and suppliers of tourism. Students will also gain the understanding of the economic, environmental and social aspects of tourism and why sustainability is a necessity.

Course Objectives

- Understand the sustainable tourism development core issues: the economic tourism impacts, social and cultural tourism impacts, and environmental impacts
- Understand issues in policy and planning for sustainable tourism
- Understand the major components of the sustainable tourism industry (Triple bottom line)
- Identify tourism stakeholders as base and support for sustainable tourism development
- Understand the role of key international organizations and stakeholders as support of sustainable tourism development

Course Materials (Recommended but not required):

Swarbrooke, J. (1999). Sustainable Tourism Management. CABI Publishing: Oxon.

Liburd, J. J., & Edwards, D. (2010). Understanding the Sustainable Development of Tourism.

Classroom Expectations

- Arrive on time to join the class session. If you miss an in-class activity due to an unexcused absence, you will not receive credit for that class.
- Arrive prepared to participate in the discussion session. Do not sleep, read newspapers,

- books, magazines, or work on other assignments during the class session.
- Refrain from using your cell phone during the class session. Turn the ringer OFF before class begins and do not send text messages. Sending or receiving phone calls, text messages, or other forms of communication via a cell phone or similar device is strictly forbidden. Violations will count against class participation.
  - Be respectful of your classmate's opinions and contributions to classroom discussions. Inevitably, others will have different views than you on a certain topic. These dialogues should encourage each of us to think about topics from a new perspective and will contribute to a lively discussion. The classroom is a "safe place" where others will not be judged or ridiculed for their opinions, and where everyone should feel comfortable contributing to the discussion. Students who are disrespectful to their peers or the instructor will be asked to leave the session and will receive an unexcused absence for that class period.
  - Honest and ethical conduct is both a required academic and professional behavior. Students who are found cheating, plagiarizing, or demonstrating poor ethical decision making will be subject to the full range of academic penalties presented in the UNT Student Handbook.

Excused absences require a written explanation and include documented emergencies, university excused/sponsored events (you are provided an excused slip from the dean of students), or a CMHT event. However, considering COVID-19, absences will be evaluated leniently to allow excused absence. Policies will be revisited to accommodate unforeseen circumstances. All documentation for excused absences must be provided to the instructor no later than one week after excused absence and before the final exam in the class. Failure to provide an explanation within this time frame will be considered unexcused.

Self-Introduction (Share a Picture - Optional)

For this assignment, you will introduce yourself in 200-250 words, information disclosure is voluntary. However, the purpose of the activity is to understand your traveling experiences (domestic or international). A guideline for this assignment will be available on Canvas.

Travel Personality Quiz and Discussion

You will take a travel personality quiz. Once you get the results, you post a brief discussion of your travel personality. You will also require a reply to at least 4 responses from your peers. The guideline will be posted on Canvas.

Grade and Class Concerns

Do you know who to contact for a course-related issue?

Understanding the academic organizational structure is important when resolving class-related or advising issues. When you need problems resolved, please follow the steps outlined below:

Do you require special accommodations?

The University of North Texas and the College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism make reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Are you aware of safety regulations?

Students are urged to use proper safety procedures and guidelines. In lab sessions, students are expected and required to identify and use property safety guidelines in all activities requiring lifting, climbing, walking on slippery surfaces, using equipment and tools, handling chemical solutions and hot and cold products. Students should be aware that the University of North Texas is not liable for injuries incurred while students are participating in class activities. All students are encouraged to secure adequate insurance coverage in the event of accidental injury. Students who do not have insurance coverage should consider obtaining Student Health Insurance for this insurance program. Brochures for this insurance are available in the UNT Health and Wellness Center on campus. Students who are injured during class activities may seek medical attention at the UNT Health and Wellness Center at rates that are reduced compared to other medical facilities. If you have an insurance plan other than Student Health Insurance at UNT, please be sure that your plan covers treatment at this facility. If you choose not to go to the UNT Health and Wellness Center, you may be transported to an emergency room at a local hospital. You are responsible for expenses incurred there.

Do you know the penalties of academic dishonesty?

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or exams; dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor, the acquisition of tests or other material belonging to a faculty member, dual submission of a paper or project, resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructors, or any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. Plagiarism includes the paraphrase or direct quotation of published or unpublished works without full and clear acknowledgment of the author/source. Academic dishonesty will bring about disciplinary action which may include expulsion from the university. This is explained in the UNT Student Handbook.

Do you meet ALL expectations for being enrolled in a course?

- CMHT students are expected to meet all prerequisites for the courses in which they are registered.
- Students are expected to be respectful of other students, guests, and faculty. Behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT.
- Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and may be referred to the Dean of Students for possible violation of the Code of Student Conduct.
- UNT's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.deanofstudents.unt.edu.

The College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism requires that students respect and maintain all university property. Students are accountable through disciplinary action for any intentional damages they cause in classrooms. (e.g., writing on tables). Disruptive behavior is not tolerated (e.g., arriving late, leaving early, sleeping, talking on the phone, texting or game playing, making inappropriate comments, ringing cellular phones/beepers, dressing inappropriately).

Feedback and Communications

Image Release

The College actively posts images and descriptions of class and student accomplishments. If you do not want your image posted on the CMHT website and/or social media sites, (1) you should avoid being in group photographs or in photographs taken by your teachers or the IT staff and (2) send an email to TKinley@unt.edu and request that your name and image not be shared. Dr. Kinley will share this information with the IT staff and the faculty who post to social media. Faculty and staff are asked to honor your wishes without question.

What is SPOT?

The Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey at the end of the semester gives students the opportunity to comment on the course. Student feedback is important and is essential as we strive for excellence.

Do you know the date/time of the final exam in this course?

Final exams or other appropriate end of semester evaluations are administered at the designated times during the final week of each long semester and during the specified day of each summer term. Please check the calendar early in the semester to avoid any schedule conflicts.

Do you know what you may be missing?

Your access point for ALL business and academic services at UNT occurs within the <https://my.unt.edu> site, and EagleConnect is the official method of communication for UNT. If you do not regularly check EagleConnect or forward it to your favorite e-mail account, please do so to learn about job and internship opportunities, CMHT events, scholarships, and other important information. The website that explains EagleConnect and how to forward your email is: <https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect>.

Do you know what to do in an emergency or UNT closure?

- UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in an event of emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all active faculty staff, and students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at <https://my.unt.edu>.
- Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include: 1) ensuring you know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas, determining how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and identifying where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly.
- In the event of a university closure, your instructor will communicate with you through Canvas regarding assignments, exams, field trips, and other items that may be impacted by the closure.

Sexual Assault Prevention

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students

Office at 940-565- 2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Additional Information

Are You An F-1 Visa Holder?

- To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component must be approved in advance by the instructor and can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in multiple on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.
- If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:
  - (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
  - (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Advising Office. The UNT International Advising Office has a form available that you may use for this purpose.
- Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, students should contact the UNT International Advising Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email international@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.
