JMSW COURSE/PROGRAM RELATED POLICIES

Attendance Policy

Attendance and professionalism are vital in social work education. You are expected to attend all classes, seminar meetings, faculty appointments and other obligations, and to come to class on time. Many courses use small group collaboration and roleplaying methods that require your presence and participation during class for optimal learning. Professors rely on your timely presence to effectively implement these experiential methods, and enhance the learning environment for everyone. It is the general policy of the Social Work program that students who miss the equivalent of more than two (2) sessions of a Social Work class (3 hour class) will be awarded a failing grade for that class. An absence is defined as missing all or part of a class period. If you must miss a class, please notify the professor in advance via e-mail that you will be absent. It is your responsibility to collect notes from a classmate and/or handouts/powerpoints from Canvas. Absences may be excused based on:

- 1) a major event/illness that is life disrupting and clearly outside of your control, or
- 2) an illness that renders you incapable of participating or that is infectious and thus risks causing harm to your fellow students and professor if you participate.

The professor reserves the right to deduct points from your final point total for multiple (more than one) absences, late arrival, and/or leaving early. You will not be able to advance in your field practicum or other parts of the JMSW Program until you retake the course due to minimum grade and GPA requirements.

Late Work and Assignments

In fairness to students who do complete assignments on time, those who turn papers in late will have significant points deducted unless a legitimate reason for the tardiness has been discussed with the instructor prior to the due date. Ten points x total number of days late will be subtracted from possible points unless arrangements are made with the professor in advance of the due date. If you missed handing in an assignment, it is the professor's choice about whether to give you a make-up option. If a make-up option is provided, the professor retains the right to set the content of the make-up work, the points that may be earned, and the timeline for completing the work. Unless a student makes arrangements with the professor in advance, a zero will be given for work not submitted on time.

Academic Integrity

Honesty in completing assignments is essential to the mission of the both TWU and UNT and to the development of the personal integrity of students. In submitting assignments for a grade, students affirm that they have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance. Cheating, plagiarism, fabrication or other kinds of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and will result in appropriate sanctions that may include failing an assignment, failing the class, or being suspended or expelled. Suspected cases in this course may be reported to the appropriate office.

TWU's Policies on Academic Integrity

Specific details and descriptions of TWU's Policies on Academic Dishonesty Procedures and students' right to appeal are available at <https://servicecenter.twu.edu/TDClient/KB/ArticleDet?ID=24426>

UNT's Policies on Academic Integrity

Specific details and description of UNT's Policy on Student Standards of Academic Integrity (18.1.16) and students' right to appeal are available at <https://policy.unt.edu/policydesc/student-standards-academic-integrity-18-1-16>.

Student Conduct

Any student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and will not be tolerated in any instructional setting at TWU or UNT. This includes traditional face-to-face classes, online or blended classes, labs, discussion groups or boards, field trips, and verbal and/or written (including email or Canvas) communication with the instructor and/or other students. Examples of unacceptable behavior include, but are not limited to: disrespectful treatment of other students (verbal or written), disrupting lecture, use of inappropriate or profane language or gestures in class or other instructional settings.

Disability Accommodation

In accordance with university policies and state and federal regulations, TWU & UNT are committed to full academic access for all qualified students, including those with disabilities. To this end, all academic units are willing to make reasonable and appropriate adjustments to the classroom environment and the teaching, testing, or learning methodologies in order to facilitate equality of educational access for persons with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the TWU Disability Services for Students (DSS) if their home base is TWU or the Office of Disability Access (ODA) if their home base is UNT to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, DSS or ODA will provide the student with an accommodation letter to be hand delivered to the instructor to begin a private discussion regarding the student's specific needs in the course.

TWU Disability Support Services

As a TWU student, if you anticipate the need for reasonable accommodations to meet the requirements of this course, you must register with the office of Disability Support Services (CFO 106, 940-898-3835, dss@twu.edu) in order to obtain the required official notification of your accommodation needs.

UNT Office of Disability Access

As a UNT student, if you anticipate the need for reasonable accommodations to meet the requirements of this course, you must register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) in Sage Hall, suite 167, or their website at <http://disability.unt.edu>. You may also contact the ODA office by phone at 940.565.4323. Specific information on UNT's policies related to disability accommodations is available at <http://policy.unt.edu/policy/18-1-14>.

Campus Carry & Concealed Handguns

In accordance with state law and TWU and UNT policies, students who are licensed may carry a concealed handgun on campus premises except in locations and at any function, event, and program prohibited by law or by this policy. Students may learn more about TWU's concealed handgun policy at <https://servicecenter.twu.edu/TDClient/KB/ArticleDet?ID=34877> and UNT's concealed handgun policy at <https://campuscarry.unt.edu>.

Sexual Discrimination, Harassment, & Assault

TWU & UNT are committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. Both TWU & UNT have staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

JMSW Classroom Policies

Media/Cell Phone Policy: Cell phones should be turned off prior to class and put away. This includes text messaging. If you have an emergency situation which arises, discuss this with your instructor, to see if an exception may be granted. Students may not leave class to make or receive calls. Use of laptops during class is at the discretion of the instructor.

Written Assignments: All assignments and written work submitted in the program may be included by JMSW faculty as part of a review to determine if sufficient progress is being made by the student to continue in the program.

Intellectual Property: All course materials and course content are the intellectual property of the instructor and/or your classmates. As a result, recording audio or video of the class, as well as the duplication of or forwarding of e-mail and Canvas postings is prohibited without written permission. This means, for example, that you may not post materials from the class, audio of lectures, or video of the class to personal web pages, Facebook, YouTube or any other electronic medium without the written consent of the instructor, and if appropriate, all relevant class members. Students may, however, request permission from the instructor to record course lectures for personal academic use.

Grading in the JMSW Program: Decisions regarding the methods of grading are made by the individual instructors for each course. These grading methods are made available in the course syllabus each semester. It is the student's responsibility to understand the grading method used by the instructor and to familiarize him/herself with this method at the beginning of the semester. Each student should read each course syllabus at the beginning of the semester and seek clarification if any portion of the syllabus is not clear. Instructors differ in the weight assigned to different class assignments, whether late assignments will be accepted or receive a lower grade, etc.

If a grade of "C" is earned in a practice course or field practicum or seminar, the course must be retaken. If a grade of "D" or "F" is earned in any JMSW course, a review of student performance will be undertaken in order to determine if the student should continue in the program or be terminated.

Professional Demeanor: In addition to learning the knowledge, theories, values, and ethics of the social work profession and demonstrating effective social work practice skills, social work students are also expected to demonstrate an appropriate level of professional demeanor. Social work students will be assessed and/or evaluated along several dimensions of professional demeanor. Some examples of these include, but are not limited to: attendance in class and field; punctuality; timeliness in submitting required work in class and/or field; proper notification and/or documentation provided if class or field will be missed; ability to accept supervision and/or critical feedback; demonstrated respect for and appropriate interaction with professors, instructors, and supervisors; appropriate interactions with other students; ability to be a team player and cooperate with others; appropriate behavior in the classroom, meetings and/or field; writing ability; neatness in material presented; willingness to participate in remedial work (e.g. working with the writing lab); ethical behavior (including academic honesty); assertiveness; attitude; attire proper; handling of adversity; personal hygiene; taking responsibility for your own behavior; motivation; emotional maturity; originality; etc.

Sources of information concerning professional demeanor include, but are not limited to: formal and informal interactions with professors, other students, and, in the field - field instructors, co-workers, and clients; written work; telephone conversations; emails; information provided on forms; behavior in classes; behavior in meetings; body language; tone of voice; oral presentations; and so on. Students should assume that every aspect of their academic performance and professional presentation of self is being evaluated, as is the case for all job applicants, graduate school applicants, and employees in the real world.

The professors and instructors of the JMSW Program have decades of social work practice experience, supervisory experience, employee and / or student evaluative experience, and social work education experience with which to inform our assessments and/or evaluations. Students' professional behavior will be assessed using this experience along with feedback from the student and, in the field, the agency. A main purpose of evaluating students' professional behavior is to help them be better professional social workers that are employable and who can remain employed. Students may be denied admission to the Social Work Program or terminated from the program for failing to demonstrate appropriate professional demeanor.

Detailed Description of Major Assignments

- A. Learning Contract All students will complete an UPDATED comprehensive Learning Contract with the assistance of their Field Instructor. The Learning Contract is due the 3rd week of classes and must be reviewed and signed by both the student and the Field Instructor before submission. The Contract should be submitted on Canvas by January 28, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. Students should also be prepared to turn in a hard copy in class on the same day. (Competencies 1-9)

- B. Logs. Students will write six reflective logs throughout the semester using a template provided on Canvas. They will identify which specialist competencies pertain to the activities completed that week. (Competencies 1-9)

- C. Oral Case Presentation Assignment. Students will complete one oral case presentation that is a total of 10 minutes long (PLUS 5 minutes reserved for questions from colleagues) based on a client or client system from your practicum experience. You will develop a 2-3 page, de-identified overview of the client and include the purpose of the interaction and important issues and concerns illustrated by the case. Start by giving a brief description of your agency, who it typically serves and the services generally offered. Provide identifying demographic data that helps us “see” your client such as age, gender, race/ethnicity, marital status, and other relevant demographic/personal data while maintaining confidentiality. Students will help peers understand the client’s presenting problems and why they sought services from your agency. Were they voluntary clients or mandated? Are they a first time or returning client? Also include in your presentation the bio-psycho-social-spiritual history of your client. Students will discuss the treatment relationships you have with the client, what interventions you used and social work values/standards relevant to the case. Address how research may further inform your understanding of the client’s circumstances. Include references and cite sources for your presentation in APA format. See the Oral Presentation outline instructions included on Canvas for more details. You must adhere to the 15-minute guideline. Due TBD. (Competencies 1, 4, 6-9).
- D. Critical Reflection Assignment. In this assignment, the student will identify a case scenario they have experienced in practice. The student will analyze this brief scenario and apply at least one reflective model (Schon, Fook, Gibbs, Kolb), of how they dealt with the case. Students should be prepared to present information about their Critical Reflection Assignment in class. Additional information on this assignment may be found on Canvas (Competency 1).
- E. Practice Self-Analysis/Continuing Education Plan. Students will reflect upon all aspects of their practice in field and write a plan of what they will continue to work on post-graduation. Students will draw information from their logs, final field evaluation and other sources such as feedback from coworkers and peers. Your paper should be 3 to 4 pages long and be written in APA format. Use subheadings. Additional information on this assignment may be found on Canvas (Competency 9)
- Describe whether you met or did not meet the goals/objectives in your agency learning contract from the results of your evaluation.
 - Describe the social work practice skills you developed.
 - Describe areas where you might need improvement in relation to social work practice skills, ethics, or professionalism.
 - Explain your ongoing plan to address those areas needing improvement (to include continuing education plans).
- F. Final Field Evaluation. Students will be involved in their final field evaluation. Be sure you set aside time to discuss your evaluation with your field instructor.
