Class Structure

MUAG 1225.501 (Boyer)

- Double Reeds – August 17 - October 9 (Instrument exchange on October 7)
- Clarinet – October 12 – December 11 (instrument return before December 12)

MUAG 1225.502 (Boyer)

- Clarinet – August 17 – October 9 (instrument exchange on October 7)
- Double Reeds – October 12 – December 11 (instrument return before December 11)

Course Expectations

- Preparation to succeed, demonstrate, understand, participate, and contribute to class culture.
- Participate in discussion, instructional sessions, demonstration, and performance.
- Deadlines - Take quizzes and exams on the days they are offered and submit assignments on due dates.
- Professionalism – practice using the language, terminology, behavior, and communication of the professional you are preparing to become. This includes writing in complete sentences, using the subject line in an email, starting with a salutation, writing the body of the email in a clear and concise manner using proper grammar, and a proper closing.
- All expectations deemed fit by the Music Education Department, the College of Music, The University of North Texas, and the State of Texas required to grant a degree in music education.
- The materials for this class are chosen and administered with the ultimate success of the students in mind.
- Part of the requirements for this class is to have all listed supplies, including, but not limited to, the Musical Mastery Teachers Edition textbook, the appropriate instrument, mouthpiece & reed, a small locker mirror, and note-taking supplies. Failure to have the required supplies will impact the success of the student and will result in forfeiture of credit for assignments and participation related to said supplies.

Course Topics

- All elements required to teach a young musician.
- How to help a student select an instrument.
- Musical elements that must happen simultaneously.
 - Breathing (proper use of air)
 - Rhythmic Counting
 - Musical Alphabet
 - Basic Music Theory
- Embouchure for each instrument.
- Tone production for each instrument.
- Parts of the instrument, instrument assembly, instrument maintenance and care.
- Transpositions, ranges, and the function of the instrument in an ensemble.
- Specific technical concerns for each woodwind instrument.
- Aural and visual detection of problems and methods of correction.
- Brands & models of instruments, reeds, mouthpieces, and other equipment used in a band class.

Participation

- Materials – having the required materials and equipment that you need for each class.
- Preparation – having read/practiced/written what you need for each class.
- In-Class Performance – teaching and playing for the entire allotted time on these days.
In-Class Discussion – actively taking part in class discussion, playing sessions, and instructional sessions during every class.
- All interactions in class will be civil, respectful, and supportive of an inclusive learning environment for all students and teachers.
- Cell phones should be stored out of sight unless in use for the class.

In-Class Performance

- Each student will demonstrate and teach instrument assembly and maintenance.
- Each student will be expected to model a characteristic sound on every woodwind instrument.

Daily Work/Homework

- May include, but will not be limited to, questions on assigned reading, lesson plans, and basic pedagogical understanding.
- Fingering practice ‘quizzes’ can be found on quizizz.com; codes will be given out in class.
- Class participation playing the assigned instruments, discussions, etc.
- Self-guided practice between classes is essential to success in this course.

Assessment- Quizzes

- Quizzes and tests will be taken via Canvas, Quizizz and/or Google Forms
- Fingering quizzes on each woodwind instrument
- Knowledge of woodwind pedagogy, including, but not limited to teaching embouchure, instrument assembly, articulation technique, instrument parts, and reading for each instrument.
- Weekly playing quizzes for each instrument
 - Tone demonstration
 - Required scales
 - Required repertoire/exercises - Selections to be taken from anything that you play in class from any textbook, handout, or method book; so, reading, home study, and practice are very important.
- Reading and embouchure quizzes will be given through Canvas, Quizizz.com; codes will be given out in class. Deadlines to complete these quizzes will be firm, so plan accordingly.
- Quizzes will always follow lecture, demonstration, and student lead teaching done in class. Quizzes will include fingerings from Musical Mastery, proper terminology, parts of the instruments, instrument assembly, embouchure formation, & common problems and solutions. Quiz makeups are given only in the event of a university or Dean of Students approved absence.

Major Assignments

- Project – Assemble and maintain a virtual notebook on your chosen device. This is for your reference and use once you are student teaching/teaching in the classroom.
 - On your electronic device, make a folder for instrumental methods.
 - Make sub- folders for woodwinds, brass, and strings (vocal if you want).
 - Make sub-sub-folders for each woodwind instrument, each brass instrument, and each string instrument.
 - Move handouts over from Canvas into the appropriate folder on your device for this class. You will only be responsible for handouts and materials for this class, but having all your information in one place will help when you need to access it during student teaching and beyond.
- Teaching – Students will be required to create a lesson plan and teach the class at least once during the semester.
 - The lesson plan template is provided.
 - Make 3 copies of the completed lesson plan; one for the student and two for the instructors.
 - A teaching guide and script will be provided to help you organize your lesson.

Timely Return of Student Work, Projects and Final Exams

Students are required to turn in assignments on the day they are due according to the syllabus and timeline. Student work will be graded and returned in a timely manner.

Exams

- Mid-term – the mid-term exam will cover all information up to the date of the exam. Questions will be selected from homework assignments, instrument quizzes, in class lectures, and information from the required textbooks. The format will be multiple choice and essay questions. The mid-term exam date will be on the course schedule posted to Canvas.
- Final – The final exam will be comprehensive covering all information through the end of the course. Questions will be selected from homework assignments, the instrument quizzes, in class lectures, and the required textbooks. The format will be multiple choice, essay questions, & fingerings for all instruments.

Course Grading

Explanation of Grading System

- Participation: 35%
- Assignments: 25%
- Quizzes: 25%
- Exams: 15%

Grading Policy

- A = 90 – 100
- B = 80 – 89
- C = 70 – 79
- D = 60 – 69
- F = 59 or below

Attendance Policy

- As per MUED policy, students may not miss more than 3 classes in a given semester.
- Two (2) tardies will be the equivalent of 1 absence. Students will be considered tardy if they are more than 5 minutes late.
- University excused absences: It is the responsibility of the student to obtain the appropriate documentation and present it to the instructor.
- At the instructor's discretion, allowance may be made for serious illness, a professional audition, or an interview.
- No matter what the reason for an absence, students are responsible for making up any work done in class and getting information regarding missed classes from a classmate.
- You will get one day per excused absence to make up any quizzes or tests missed. Students are responsible to initiate any makeup work.
- Excused Absences - An absence may be excused for the following reasons:
 - Religious holy day, including travel for that purpose;
 - Active military service, including travel for that purpose;
 - Participation in an official university function;
 - Illness or other extenuating circumstances;
 - Pregnancy and parenting under Title IX; and
 - When the University is officially closed.
- While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.
- Students should not schedule their end-of-semester jury against a regularly scheduled class.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

Graduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Music scholarships require a 3.5 cumulative GPA. Students cannot exceed maximum timeframes established based on the published length of the graduate program. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended you schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college, an advisor in UNT-International or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course.
