COURSE DESCRIPTION

ASTU 3205 - Intermediate Drawing and Painting: Experimental Approaches - 3 hours (0;6).

Experimental approaches to drawing and painting through stretching, subverting, and challenging traditional boundaries. The course is designed to ask questions about what drawing and painting are, explore the conventions of the disciplines, and experiment with unfamiliar/unexpected materials, methods, theories, and presentations. The focus is on the critical exploration of alternative and contemporary means of creating images and enlarge understandings of the disciplines. Prerequisite(s) : ASTU 2201 and ASTU 2202.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

In this class, we will focus on both drawing and experimentation. The term experimental implies a link with the scientific method. For our purposes, “experimental approaches” suggests an explicit desire to extend the boundaries of drawing in terms of media, technique, definition, etc. In other words, we will ask the question, ‘What makes a drawing a drawing’? Assignments or modules will be considered as exercises or trials. This class will permit you to “try-out” new ideas and to allow for unexpected results. Using this class as a catalyst, you will be encouraged to expand the scope of your ideas and creative work. We will harness an empirical practice in which the artist “plays” with their materials and adopts chance procedures to produce distinctive works of art.

This course will be driven by conceptual/theoretical discourse relative to contemporary drawing and painting. I expect that you are engaged in a high level of production and a simultaneous analysis of those efforts. You will be supplied with critical essay(s) reviews and videos that address wide-ranging issues in contemporary art. Group and individual critique will augment our studio efforts, as we collectively explore relevant topics germane to your work.
COURSE STRUCTURE

‘Experimental Approaches’ will be delivered exclusively online as a fully remote course. The content for the course and interface will utilize a combination of Canvas and Zoom modalities. The length of this course spans fourteen weeks, including the final critique weeks. One additional week will be reserved for optional individual meetings.

COURSE OUTCOMES & OBJECTIVES

a. Understanding of basic principles of design and color, concepts, media and formats, and the ability to apply them. This includes functional knowledge of the traditions, conventions, and evolutions of the discipline as related to issues of representation, illusion, and meaning.

b. Ability to synthesize the use of drawing, two-dimensional design, and painting traditions.

c. Knowledge and skills in the use of basic tools, techniques, and processes sufficient to work from concept to finished product. Engage with and contribute to a diverse discourse pertaining to contemporary drawing and painting through reading and class discussion.

d. Exploration of the expressive possibilities of various media, and the diverse conceptual modes available to the artist.

e. Experiment with a wide-range of studio techniques and to expand the scope and personal direction of independent work.

CONTENT, EVALUATION & EXAMINATION

Group critique will form a large component of this course and will play a role in your evaluation. You are required to work in your home studio during scheduled “Studio Time” for presentation of assignments, instruction, personal critiques, and group discussions. Late work will be accepted for half credit, but only if it is submitted one class session late. Students will be evaluated on the timely completion of assignments and the resulting inventiveness and fluency of their work.

You will be graded for each critique (Individual, Large, and Small Group Critique) based on the merits of the presented work. I will evaluate visual form, content, concept, theme, personal growth, and relevance to the contemporary art world. I will also examine your ability to follow through with an assignment, as well as your ability to receive and respond to critical feedback.
SCHEDULE

Please see attached course schedule outline.

Please be sure to check email and Canvas on a regular basis for updates/changes or reminders. This will ensure that you are prepared for each class session. Changes to our class schedule are not frequent but they might occur. It is not always possible to anticipate the unique pace of each individual class.

CRITIQUE

Critiques are an essential part of your comprehensive development as an art student and community member. Critiques form a significant component of this course. A critique is a forum through which you express your thoughts, questions, and intentions regarding your own projects as well as the work of your peers. Critiques develop your ability to speak about visual art with clarity, in an informed manner. They often raise questions about a project not considered initially, lead to new ideas, and open up possibilities for further work. It is a requirement of this course that you participate fully in each of these group conversations, speaking candidly, honestly, and without unnecessary “prompting.” We will commit to maintaining a respectful and sensitive discussion regarding our peers work – it will not become a platform for personal attacks or unthoughtful response.

COURSE SUPPLIES & TECHNOLOGY

Due to the objectives and goals for this course, strict boundaries for required materials are not relevant. Although, I am available to advise, supplies for each assignment will be self-guided by the artist. This will be discussed during our introductory week.

EXAMPLES OF GRADING STANDARDS

A
Student work that is superior and goes above and beyond standard expectations. Superior work and rigorous effort is demonstrated through in-class & homework assignments, on time and up to faculty-defined standards, as well as full classroom participation. Grades in this category indicate excellence in the subject matter.

B
Student work that meets high expectations. Hard work and skill are demonstrated through assignments and classroom participation. Grades in this category indicate strong aptitudes for the subject matter.
C
Student work generally meets standard expectations, but other factors (such as hard work, sub-average participation, attendance, attainment of faculty-defined standards, and timely completion of work, etc.) may not be up to expectations.

D
Student work, attendance, participation does not meet minimum expectations. Student progress within the subject matter is at a sub-average level. Students that fall into this category are generally late to class regularly, and absent often, fail to turn in assignments, quizzes, and projects, and fail to display an understanding of the subject matter.

F
Failure to meet expectations. This can include, but is not limited to, quality of work, progress within the discipline, participation, attendance, etc.

Please note:
For all students seeking a major in the College of Visual Arts and Design, a grade of C or above must be earned in every art-based course required in the College of Visual Arts and Design–completed in residence or transferred to UNT—to be considered for credit toward a CVAD degree. A grade of D or below will not satisfy any art-based course requirements, electives or prerequisites.

PARTICIPATION

 Pertaining to Covid - See also: https://vpaa.unt.edu/return

Participation includes speaking during crits and in-class discussions, working during our in-class practice sessions, as well as, initiative, attitude, teachability, and cooperation with the class rules and goals.

You will be required to maintain a critique notebook for the course. I will be looking to see that you are prepared each session with your notebook and actively recording names of artists, references, and ideas. If you do not have this, it will reflect negatively on your daily points.

You are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. In order to assure that everyone has an opportunity to gain from time spent in class unless otherwise approved by the instructor, you are prohibited from using phones, eating or drinking in class, making offensive remarks, interrupting myself or peers, sleeping or engaging in any other form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result in, minimally, a request to leave class, which will be counted as an absence.
ATTENDANCE POLICY

 Attendance will be documented for each class session via Canvas. Please login at the beginning of the class period.

COVID-19 Impact on Attendance
While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to a related issue regarding COVID-19. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent so I may make a decision about accommodating your request to be excused from class.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 (https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Hotline at 844-366-5892 or COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure. While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.

Class Materials for Remote Instruction
The UNT fall schedule requires this course to have fully remote instruction beginning November 28\textsuperscript{th}. Additional remote instruction may be necessary if community health conditions change or you need to self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19. Students will need access to a [webcam and microphone – faculty member to include what other basic equipment is needed] to participate in fully remote portions of the class. Additional required classroom materials for remote learning include: [list specific software, supplies, equipment or system requirements needed for the course]. Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at https://online.unt.edu/learn.

• Regular and punctual attendance is mandatory.
• Three absences will be tolerated.
• More than three absences will require a note from a doctor or a note from the art office excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT policy 06.039 (Student Attendance and Authorized Absences) in order to be counted as excused.
• More than three absences will lower your final grade by one letter grade per additional absence (4 or more)
• Most lectures, demonstrations, and assignments will occur at the beginning of class periods and will not be repeated for those who come in late. If you are late to class, you will need to notify me at the end of the class period to replace an absence with a tardy. Three tardies will constitute an absence.
• A tardy is considered to be arrival 5 minutes after the beginning of class.

• Examinations, quizzes, and in-class assignments missed may only be made up with an official doctor’s excuse or note from the art office excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT policy 06.039 (Student Attendance and Authorized Absences).

• Critiques missed may not be made up and grades will reflect the student’s failure to participate in the critique discussions.

STATEMENT ON FACE COVERINGS

Due to the delivery model for this course, face coverings are only required if you are occupying the CVAD building and using one of the available D&P studios.

Statement 2: Face coverings are required in all UNT facilities. Students are expected to wear face coverings during this class. If you are unable to wear a face covering due to a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Access to request an accommodation. UNT face covering requirements are subject to change due to community health guidelines. Any changes will be communicated via the instructor.

LATE WORK

Assignments that are turned in late will receive one letter grade lower per day for each day they are late. You are permitted to re-submit projects for a possible adjusted grade, if appropriate. I would much rather see you submit the same project multiple times, continually striving to create the strongest work.

CELL PHONES

Please refrain from use of cell phones during scheduled Zoom meetings and please silence phones if using your microphone. Be sure to find a quiet place in your home during scheduled Zoom meetings to avoid any unwanted background noises or distractions.

CLEAN STUDIO POLICY

If you choose to utilize the available studio space at the CVAD building please refer to all up to date Covid guidelines. Additional information provided.

Always clean up after yourself before leaving the studio after a working session. This is a common courtesy to your peers and myself. No one should have to clean up after anyone else, and it maintains a safe environment when you simply clean up after yourself and reorganize or shut down/turn off anything you’ve used while in the studio. Failure to do so will also impact your participation grade. Also, please take any necessary safety precautions when using tools or materials in the classroom both for your own sake and the safety of your classmates.
Safety Rules: Never dispose of paint in the sink. Any paint or paint soaked rags should be disposed of in the fire-proof red kick-cans. Never dispose of any solvents in the sink. Dispose of used solvents in the containers provided.

Please no food or drinks (without a sealable lid) in the studio during class-time or during our scheduled break time.

UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses.

See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses.

STUDENT RECORDS

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR F-1 STUDENTS TAKING DISTANCE EDUCATION COURSES

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (http://www.ecfr.gov/). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6) (i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student’s responsibility to do the following:

(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.
Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

OFFICE HOURS

Please email me to schedule an appointment. All office visits will be conducted via Zoom MW 11am-1pm, or during an alternate agreed upon time M-F. Please see Canvas for Personal Meeting ID and password.

EMAIL

My email: brian.campbell@unt.edu

I will answer emails in the order in which I receive them within three business days (M-F). I will respond to urgent or time-sensitive e-mails first. I will not be available to reply to emails during weekends. I am happy to answer emails from those who regularly attend class. However, I will not answer emails from those who were absent and would like information on what was missed. Also, check your MYUNT email (the official form of communication for this class) often for updates on assignments, readings, trips, meetings, etc. If an email is sent to you it is assumed that you have received it and you are responsible for any specified course requirements therein.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

According to UNT Policy 18.1.16, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.
ADA ACCOMODATION

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

UNT RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:

• While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.

• Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.

• Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
• Speak from personal experiences. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups or other individual’s experiences.

• Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people’s ideas, instead of attacking individuals.

• Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as “YELLING!”

• Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.

• Avoid using “text-talk” unless explicitly permitted by your instructor.

• Proofread and fact-check your sources.

• Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.

See these Engagement Guidelines (https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips) for more information.

STUDENT EVALUATION ADMINISTRATION DATES

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13 and 14 [insert administration dates] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the spot website at www.spot.unt.edu or email spot@unt.edu.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

An Incomplete Grade ("I") is a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a term/semester and only if a student (1) is passing the course and (2) has a justifiable and documented reason, beyond the control of the student (such as serious illness or military service), for not completing the work on schedule. In consultation with the instructor, complete a request for an Incomplete Grade. This form can be found on the department website and must be turned into the department chair prior to the last day of classes (not the exam date). Note: A grade of Incomplete is not automatically assigned to students.
EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION & PROCEDURES

UNT Emergency Guide: https://emergency.unt.edu/about-us

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to the course management system for contingency plans for covering course materials.

PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT & RETALIATION (POLICY 16.004)

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT & ASSAULT

UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

UNT’s Dean of Students’ website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0. UNT’s Student Advocate she can be reached through e-mail at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students’ office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Students are required to follow the Department of Studio Art Health and Safety guidelines and are required to complete training for each studio course. The goal of the Studio Art Health and Safety Program is to protect the health and welfare of all faculty, staff, and students and to cooperate with the University of North Texas’ Office of Risk Management.
