Assignments

Homework will be assigned weekly. All homework and exams must be completed neatly and legibly—especially if submitted in an electronic/online format. Assignments are due to your grader by the start of the class. If you do not understand how to complete an assignment, please see Dr. Graf (or any member of my team) before the assignment is due. If you know you will be absent, take a picture and email your completed homework to your grader before class begins and CC: Dr. Graf.

Please let me know the circumstances for your late Homework, and I will work with you.

Exceptions for Tests will only be made for unplanned excused absences (emergencies or COVID situations only) or other extreme circumstances at the discretion of the instructor. If you believe that your grader lost or misplaced your assignment, you must ask Dr. Graf to resubmit within two class periods of the due date; after that time-period expires, it will remain a zero in the gradebook.

Attendance

I expect you to attend every class. You can always check your absences on Canvas at any time throughout the duration of the class—the posted number of absences will not include excused absences. Remember, if you miss class for any reason, you are still responsible to not only know the material covered in the lecture that day, but you are also required to submit all assignments on time. Unexcused absences will include: sleeping in class, leaving class early, distracting other students in class, and not being prepared for class at the discretion of the instructor. Two tardy arrivals are equivalent to one unexcused absence. Absences and tardiness will affect the final course grade as follows:

0-2 absences: No questions asked.

3 absences: Final course grade lowered by 10% (Example: 85%B = 75%C)

4 absences: Final course grade lowered by 20% (Example: 85% B = 65%D)

5 absences: Final course grade lowered by 30% (Example: 85% B = 55%F)

6 or more absences: Final course grade = F

Excused absences include official University or College of Music activities, medical emergencies, all COVID-related procedures, absences with supporting documentation from a doctor's visit, religious observances, and absences accompanied by a note from the Dean of Student's office. Excused absences do not count against your attendance or lower your grade. E-mail the instructor as soon as possible (within 48 hours of missed class) with the reason and documentation for your absence. If you are ill, please provide a doctor's note, but please keep your medical condition private. If you expect to be absent for several days or weeks, you will have to obtain a note from the Dean of Students Office or the UNT COVID team. If you have a chronic medical condition that might affect your class attendance or performance, please see the Office of Disability Accommodations. If any student wishes to dispute an absence as "excused" instead of "unexcused" with the instructor (Dr. Graf, Benjamin.Graf@unt.edu), he/she must do so within 48 hours of the last class period he/she missed. After that 48-hour time period expires, the student will have to go through the Dean of Students Office (Maureen "Moe" McGuinness, Union 409) to obtain an excuse note in order to request absences to be changed from "unexcused" to "excused."

Attendance Syllabus Statement:

Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent, so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform the professor and instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Team at COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure.
