- I believe we come as unique individuals into a classroom- each with contributions to make.
- I believe we are a community here to help each other learn the material but more importantly cultivate curiosity, create new connections and create habits and successful strategies for use throughout our lives.
- I see myself as a coach who challenges you to grow.
- I see you as teammates working together to be a creative community accountable to each other.
- I see each of you as individuals wanting to be the best version of yourselves and looking to UNT as part of that journey.
- The creative life is the most important gift we give to the world and it is my privilege to help you become the future of the arts.

Attendance Policy

- This is a non-traditional class. We will be using our class time to do subject deep dives & discussions (Mondays) work on your projects (Wednesdays). You will be watching the lectures in the various modules via Canvas in a "flipped classroom" approach. (Videos released on Thursday the prior week).
- Class time will be devoted to deep dive material and working on that week's project. So please come prepared with your supplies, a way to get on the internet and having watched that week's lectures..
- Come to class and be on time.
- Be kind to your fellow classmates. We will be giving constructive critiques and will help each other on their progress in their journey.
- Everyone will be given TWO "life happens" absences.
- Excused absences will follow UNT policy.
- Unexcused absences will cost 50 points each. (For a max of 200 points)

Late Work

- If you haven't made prior arrangements, any work received within the 24 hours after the deadline will be eligible for 50% credit. After 24 hours the work will not be accepted. (There is a lot of opportunity for points in this class- so don't beat yourself up- just move on.)

“Artificial Intelligence”

- AI is a pixelated JPEG of the internet. It is also marketed as the great savior... I like to use another work- colonizer. You are here to build your strength and creativity- don't let AI have that- don't let AI rob you.

The Grading Breakdown

The 1000 point scale

- 1000-900- A
- 899-800-B
- 799-700- C
- 699-600- D

Video Lectures & Quizzes

Most weeks we will cover two subjects that will be broken down in individual modules with its own video lecture, supporting materials you can look at as well as the quiz and project. (Some weeks there is just one large subject covered.) We will do this three weeks on and one week off... (But the off weeks will be when one of your Research Projects will be due so you're not totally off the hook.)

Weekly Projects

They are designed to challenge you to do something that will hone your research skills as well as your ability to be creative and to take your research to the next level for use in a creative challenge. IF THERE ARE TWO SUBJECTS THAT WEEK YOU CAN CHOOSE WHICH PROJECT TO DO. YOU SHOULD NOT DO BOTH. They are designed to be completed during class time on Wednesdays.

UNT Dance & Theatre Department Policies: Instructors can drop students on the first day of class for being absent without prior arrangement.

Dance/ Theatre students are expected to budget and organize their time and efforts in order to meet both their academic and production commitments satisfactorily and on time. The faculty and staff recognize that the academic and production assignment within the Department as well as outside employment and other obligations sometimes impose conflicting pressures on Dance/ Theatre students. One of the principal responsibilities of each student is to carefully identify and monitor the commitments that compromise of their departmental assignments and outside obligations. It is also important to keep in mind that production work and outside obligations do not constitute an excused absence from any class or from the completion of any required class assignment.

UNT Policies: Academic Integrity

Students caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a "0" for that particular assignment or exam [or specify alternative sanction, such as course failure].

Additionally, the incident will be reported to the Dean of Students, who may impose further penalty. According to the UNT catalog, the term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: a. use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university; d. dual submission of a paper or project, or resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructor(s); or e. any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to: a. the knowing or negligent use by paraphrase or direct quotation of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment; and b. the knowing or negligent unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at <http://deanofstudents.unt.edu>.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Your access point for business and academic services at UNT occurs at <http://www.my.unt.edu>. All official communication from the university will be delivered to your Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward your e-mail: <http://eagleconnect.unt.edu/>

ADA Statement

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://disability.unt.edu>. You may also contact them by phone at (940) 565-4323.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all active faculty staff, and students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at <http://www.my.unt.edu>. Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include: 1) know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas in the buildings where your classes are held, 2) determine how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and 3) identify where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly. In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Blackboard online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. You have a right to view your individual record; however, information about your records will not be divulged to other individuals without the proper written consent. You are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the university's policy in accordance with those mandates at the following link: <http://essc.unt.edu/registrar/ferpa.html>

Student Evaluation of Teaching (SPOT)

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The Student Evaluation of Teaching (SPOT) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available at the end of the semester to provide you with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught.

Succeed at UNT
