Course Description

This course is a study of the components of human relations and interpersonal communication factors in business, education, trade and industrial education and training programs.

In this course you will apply effective interpersonal relations practice with technical knowledge and good work habits to achieve success in any activity or project involving interactions with people. Interpersonal skills enable people to connect with others, a key element in success.

Interpersonal skills are often referred to as soft skills. Technical skills are often referred to as hard skills. Soft skills and hard skills are necessary for organizations to produce results.

Course Goals and Objectives

1. Identify individual factors that influence human relations in business, education, and industry.
2. Identify team and group factors that influence human relations in business, education, and industry.
3. Identify actions to improve human relations in business, education, and industry.

Learning Outcomes

After completing this course, the learner should be able to:

1. Establish a framework for human relations by describing a model for interpersonal skill improvement and effective goal setting. (CO1, CO3)
2. Identify individual differences by examining personality, mental ability, emotional intelligence, and values. (CO1)
4. Develop teamwork skills by explaining the differences between traditional and virtual teams and effective tactics for team roles. (CO2)
5. Utilize group problem solving and decision making skills by implementing problem solving processes such as brainstorming, nominal group technique, and groupware. (CO2)
6. Identify the importance of cross-cultural relations and diversity by recognizing how diversity and cultural umbrellas influence cross-cultural barriers and relations. (C02)
7. Resolve conflicts with others by applying the five styles for handling conflict and negotiating. (C02)
8. Develop tools to become an effective leader by identifying and applying key leadership traits and skills. (C03)
9. Determine ways to motivate others by examining responses to positive reinforcement, expectancy theory, and self-motivation. (C02, C03)
10. Identify positive political skills in the workplace by examining the impact of social intelligence and business etiquette. (C01, C03)
11. Determine how to increase customer service skills by exploring the three components of customer experience. (C03)
12. Apply ethical behavior in the workplace by identifying situations that cause ethical dilemmas and the systematic method for making ethical decisions. (C03)
13. Determine ways to increase personal productivity by identifying symptoms of stress, implications of procrastination and time wasters, and work habits and skills that impact productivity. (C03)

Resource Materials

The required text for this course is:

ISBN-10: 0133506827

Grading Scale

A = 90-100%
B = 80-89%
C = 70-79%
D = 60-69%
F = 59% and below

Notice: It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that assignments are completed on or prior to the due date. Discussions/Chats utilize the Discussion Tool on the Tool Bar. Assignments to be turned in will be attached to the respective assignment in the Assignment Tool. Not having the book does not justify an extension or late submission of an assignment. It is the student's responsibility to get the required texts.

Late Policy

Late work (after the due date and time) will RECEIVE ZERO POINTS WITHOUT AN APPROPRIATE MEDICAL EXCUSE. There will be NO EXCEPTIONS. Students are encouraged to submit assignments early. There are a lot of assignments in the class. Work hard and plan to work on the course daily, so you won't fall behind.
Writing Skills

Students will compose grammatically correct sentences, write well-developed paragraphs, and express ideas in a well-organized, coherent matter, so no outlines. This is a writing intensive course, and students should prepare accordingly. Every assignment (Word document) must include the student’s name, course and section, date, module number and assignment title.

Submissions must have complete sentences, correct punctuation and capitalization. Avoid using abbreviations and acronyms.

Discussions

You should submit an original discussion item and respond to the posting of two of your classmates in this course. There should be a total of at least three discussion entries. DO NOT SUBMIT DISCUSSION ASSIGNMENTS UNTIL ALL THREE OF THESE COMPONENTS ARE COMPLETED. THE INSTRUCTOR WILL NOT CONTINUE TO GRADE INCOMPLETE DISCUSSION SUBMISSIONS. Do NOT put attachments in discussion tool. Do NOT submit assignments to discussion. Instructor will not grade assignments put in discussion area. Discussion area is not the space to ask the instructor questions. Send the instructor an email in Canvas with questions. Discussion postings will be reviewed by the instructor a week or more after the module is complete. Students are encouraged to develop communication networks with other class members via electronic communication like discussions, chats, SKYPE, or email. Postings that contain ONLY responses such as “I agree,” “You are right on track,” “I could not agree more,” “I disagree,” etc. will not receive any credit. Your postings must actually add value to the discussion by elaborating on relevant points,
Policy on Incompletes

An “incomplete” will be awarded only in cases where 75% of the coursework has been completed AND the grade is warranted by written documentation (e.g., medical, military). Inability to complete coursework in a timely manner does NOT constitute an acceptable reason for requesting or receiving an incomplete. The Graduate Catalog describes and explains grading policies. A grade of Incomplete (I) will be given only for a justifiable reason and only if the student is passing the course. The student is responsible for meeting with the instructor to request an incomplete and discussing requirements and a specific date for completing the course. If an incomplete is not removed within the time frame agreed to by instructor and student, the instructor may assign a grade of F.

Information for LTEC Web-based Courses

Knowledge of personal computing is a prerequisite for course registration and completion. Students taking the course should be proficient in the Microsoft Office Suite (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and Access).

The acquisition of these skills is the responsibility of the student and can be obtained through prior coursework and/or personal experience. A student who is not proficient in these programs should not register for this course. Canvas is fully supported for both Windows and Apple computers. This includes the programs noted above. Purchase and installation of the programs in a current and compatible version is the responsibility of the student.

Communication Parameters

Always use Canvas messages to contact the instructor. Instructors will attempt to respond to your email within three working days. Working days do not include weekends or holidays. You should not expect the communication parameters in a web-based class to significantly differ from the parameters in traditional campus-based classes. Please make sure you develop communication networks with other class members via electronic communication tools such as Canvas messages, email, discussion boards, or other. You should consider the communication parameters with regard to assignment due dates. Please be aware that the instructor will not be able to respond to "last minute" requests for assignment clarification, and you may encounter unforeseen problems if you wait too long to complete assignments. This makes it critical for you to manage your time well and work ahead to avoid stressful last minute situations.
Medical Emergencies

If you have a medical emergency that will prevent you from completing the assignment or course as scheduled, you MUST notify your instructor at the time of your medical problem. Requests for an INC or to drop the course must come at the time of the medical emergency and must be supported by a letter from your physician, specifically stating that your medical situation will NOT permit you to work at your computer in order to submit your assignments as scheduled.

Requests for an INC or to DROP this course based on a medical emergency WILL NOT be granted after the medical emergency (e.g. at the end of the course). All requests must meet standard university policy.

Doctors’ notes must be received during week 1 or 2 of the medical emergency. Those submitted at the end or once the medical emergency is over will not be accepted.

Attendance and Participation

The instructor reserves the right to request that the Registrar drop a student from the course (W or WF) due to unsatisfactory progress. All students are expected to fully participate in all class activities. Full participation includes all web-based activities.

University Policy of Absence for Religious Holidays

In accordance with state law, students absent due to the observance of a religious holiday may take examinations or complete assignments scheduled for the day missed within a reasonable time after the absence, if the student has notified the instructor of each class of the date of the absence within the first 15 days of the semester. Notification must be in writing, either personally delivered with receipt of the notification acknowledged and dated by the instructor, or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

Only holidays or holy days observed by a religion whose place of worship is exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20 of the Tax Code may be included. A student who is excused under this provision may not be penalized for the absence, but the instructor may appropriately respond if the student fails to satisfactorily complete the assignment or examination.

Professionalism

At all times, you are expected to conduct yourself in a professional manner. This includes being prepared for all class assignments and being flexible to unforeseen changes in the course schedule and assignments.
Honesty and Integrity

The UNT Code of Student Conduct and Discipline provides penalties for misconduct by students, including academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty includes cheating and plagiarism. The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to, (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; and (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or academic material belonging to a faculty or staff member of the university.

The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use of the published or unpublished work of another person, by paraphrase or direct quotation, without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. If a student engages in academic dishonesty related to this class, the student will receive a failing grade on the test or assignment and a failing grade in the course. In addition, the case will be referred to the Dean of Students for appropriate disciplinary action.

University Policy of Disability Accommodations

In accordance with Section 504 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the University of North Texas endeavors to make reasonable adjustments in its policies, practices, services and facilities to ensure equal opportunity for qualified persons with disabilities to participate in all educational programs and activities.

Whenever a special accommodation or auxiliary aid is necessary in order to ensure access to and full participation by students with disabilities in University programs or services, the department or agency responsible for the program or service to which the individual requires access will work with the Office of Disability Accommodation and appropriate federal and state agencies to ensure that reasonable accommodations are made.

The student requiring special accommodation or auxiliary aids must make application for such assistance through the Office of Disability Accommodation. Proof of disability from a competent authority will be required, as well as information regarding specific limitations for which accommodation is requested.

The University assumes no responsibility for personal assistance necessary for independent living nor for specialized medical care. Students requiring personal attendants or mobility assistants must employ such persons at their own expense before completion of registration. Students requiring specialized medical care above and beyond that ordinarily offered through the Student Health Center should be prepared to bear the expense of this care through a general hospital or a private physician/clinic of their choice.

Changes may be made as long as it does not compromise the quality of education. Cooperation of faculty, staff, and students is needed to help with physical access and to meet academic requirements. For example, giving extra time on tests or assignments, substituting courses, or adapting classroom presentations (like allowing tape recorders, note takers, or asking a professor to face the class when speaking to allow students to lip read) may be done.

Questions or concerns about discrimination on the basis of disability or about equal educational opportunities for persons with disabilities should be directed to Equal Opportunity Office, Room 175, Hurley Administration Building, 940.565.2759. Information concerning specific accommodations to provide equal opportunities is available through the Office of Disability Accommodation, University of North Texas 1167 Union Circle, Sage Hall, Suite 167 (940) 565-4323 or 800-RelayTX.

ADA Statement

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodations for students with disabilities. Students seeking an accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide the student with an accommodation letter that s/he must deliver to faculty to begin a private discussion of course specific needs. You may request accommodations at any time, but ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester, and they must meet with each faculty member prior to the implementation of an accommodation in each class. Please contact the UNT Office of Disability for additional information: https://disability.unt.edu or 940.565.4323.

Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services Regulations for F1 Visa Holders

To read INS regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to this website http://www.immigration.gov/graphics/services/visas.htm and select the link to "8 CFR 214.2(f)" in the table next to "F-1." Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G)

A Final Rule with clarifications on the restriction can be found in a pdf file located at http://www.immigration.gov/graphics/lawsregs/fr121102.pdf

Within this document, refer to Section IX on page 9 with the subject header "Online and Distance Education Courses."

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course. If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Advising Office. The UNT International Advising Office has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Advising Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email international@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.
