Teaching Philosophy (Excerpt): I feel that learning is an ongoing, evolving, and continuous process. Everything we take in is something that informs, introduces, reinforces, adapts, transforms, or questions – regardless if that stems from academic readings, passing conversations, things we witness, or even long walks we take. In this sense, I believe that we learn by doing. This means that learning draws connections, considers new perspectives, tries unfamiliar things, and forms artistic views with agency.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This contemporary modern dance technique class acknowledges a dance field of many different training methodologies. Emphasis will be placed on experiencing and questioning the roles of performer, choreographer, and improviser within a professional contemporary dance context. Students will deepen their study of contemporary dance technique through conceptual frameworks of somatic awareness principles as expressive tools, movement sequences choreographed by the instructor and students, and improvisation and partnering experiences. Students will be asked to discover, question, and challenge their artistic boundaries and their ideas about what dance technique can be.

We will explore contemporary modern technique as...

- The 6 basic principles of Movement Fundamentals
 - Alignment
 - Function
 - Range
 - Efficiency
 - Vocabulary
 - Intention
- The awareness of Modern Dance Principles as a soloist, partner, and ensemble:
 - Body
 - Space
 - Time
 - Energy
- The development of a community in which ideas, desires, difficulties, and class experiences are shared openly.

- The engagement of real time decision-making and movement creation.

Prerequisites for Doing Well in this Class

- Students may wish to acquire knee pads and long sleeves/pants for any floor work. Students should arrive to class in dance clothing that allows freedom of movement while supporting adequate safety and feedback.
- Students should approach each class with openness, fresh ideas, creativity, and willingness to share with a community.
- Students are requested to keep a class Journal, which should be accessible each class. There will be times you will be asked to take note of significant moments, sequences, imagery, feedback, questions, etc.
- A Journal will also help you to reference class experiences for other assignments.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Level V modern technique represents a high level of technical skill and creative process expertise in which students should be able to recognize, understand, and apply physical and technical-somatic knowledge while strengthening individual artistic integrity, agency, and personal responsibility.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Identify and perform dance movement concepts, fundamental movement patterns, proper mechanics, stylistic components and contemporary dance movement vocabulary in the context of one's own individual body on a pre-professional level, both in improvisation and in learned movement patterns.
- Develop an individual sense of movement potential through an exploration of Movement Fundamentals such as Alignment and Function, Range and Efficiency, and Vocabulary and Intention; as well as Modern Dance Principles such as Body, Space, Time, and Energy.
- Demonstrate partnering and improvisational skills by effectively negotiating, communicating and cueing spatial intentions through clarity of weight and dynamic body positioning.
- Contribute to a collegial classroom environment conducive to inner exploration and self-learning through the performance of active listening during class, as well as supportively observing peers in performance and providing constructive feedback when possible.
- Discover and refine a personal practice by reflecting on personal growth, achievements, desires, questions, and difficulties orally with the class and one-on-one with the instructor.

Each of the above student learning outcomes must be performed at an appropriate level as stated in each course assignment requirements, grading scale or rubric.

COURSE MATERIALS

There are no required textbooks. Selected videos/films may be shown in class or may be required for viewing from online video databases, which will be shared via Canvas.

Touch-Based Learning

In this class, touch-based partnering and touch-based feedback may be offered as strategies to support student learning and curriculum goals throughout the semester. Students always maintain the right to offer or withhold consent to be touched or to touch another, or to request modifications, for any reason. Students are not expected to report rationales for withholding consent.

In this class we follow these protocols regarding the use of touch:

- Consent to touch must be requested each time touch is to be offered by the teacher or between students and this consent must be sought from each student in the class.
 - Giving permission once is not consent to future touch.
- If consent is not given, the teacher should be prepared to communicate the information without touch through verbal language or other means.
- When touch is offered one should identify the location to be touched and the purpose for the touch.

If a student has concerns about the use of touch, the student is encouraged to notify the instructor verbally, through email, or with assistance from another instructor in order to share their concern. Instructors are committed to working with students to develop appropriate, individualized learning plans and strategies to support students in meeting course expectations, requirements, and learning outcomes.

*Touch-Based Learning policy adapted from Texas Woman's University Dance Practices syllabi.

ACTIVITIES, ASSIGNMENTS, & GRADING POLICY

Rubrics for each of the following activities will be supplied by the instructor.

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Daily In-Class Participation | 70% |
| 2. Periodic Assessments | 30% |

Assessment throughout the Course:

Evaluation is ongoing throughout the semester via verbal and written comments from the instructor, outside observers, and peers. Criteria for success in the performance of technique is based on technical expertise, the student's commitment to the activity as evidenced by energy investment, attention to performance quality, presence in practice, contributions to discussions, and application of suggestions from the instructor, peers and self.

Daily Grading and Evaluation:

A student may receive 10 points per day based on the following grading criteria:

“A” 9-10 pts (Daily)

The student demonstrates exemplary ability to integrate, analyze, initiate, consistently apply, and attend to technical abilities such as connectivity, movement pick-up, physical capacity, musicality, improvisation, artistry and agency during the class time.

"B" 8-9 pts (Daily)

The student demonstrates proficient ability to integrate, analyze, initiate, consistently apply, and attend to technical abilities such as connectivity, movement pick-up, physical capacity, musicality, improvisation, artistry and agency during the class time.

"C" 6-7 pts (Daily)

“F” 0 (Daily) Student is absent.

Attendance Grading Policy for Department of Dance studio classes:

This class is concerned with the intellectual and physical development of the body. Evaluations are based on development from class to class, week to week, and the course of the semester. There may be multiple formats for achieving the accountability standards for this course, including instructor-led practice, self-practice, articles read, viewings, video demonstrations of principles, with self, peer, and instructor feedback. Therefore, it is imperative to be present and working through class material during all class meetings.

More than 2 absences from class will result in dropping a letter grade. Beyond 4 absences, you will be asked to drop the course, in accordance with the UNT Attendance Policy. There are no excused absences beyond UNT's Student Attendance and Authorized Absences Policy. Students are responsible for requesting an excused absence in writing, providing satisfactory evidence to substantiate the request (including COVID illness/quarantine). A reasonable deadline will be agreed upon between faculty of record and student. A student needing assistance verifying absences due to illness or extenuating circumstances for all courses should contact the Dean of Students office. The Dean of Students office will verify the student's documentation and advocate on the student's behalf, as appropriate, to instructors.

If you are sick, are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, or have come in contact with someone who tested positive for COVID-19, please reach out to the instructor right away so you and the instructor can create a plan of action to support your education and absence(s). UNT recommends you follow CDC guidelines for any COVID 19 related illness. Proof of a positive test will be required.

In the event of an absence, students are responsible for notifying the instructor, prior to the absence if possible, as well as the material or content covered, in addition to completing the journal requirements including video and/or written responses.

Lateness and Early Departures: Students should not arrive late to class or ask to leave early. Typically, (2) tardies and/or early departures will equal one absence. Students arriving 5 minutes late to class will be deducted 3 points from their daily (10) participation points. After 10 minutes onward, 5 points will be deducted. In order to ensure all students are properly warmed up and prevent injuries, students arriving 10 minutes late for class may not be allowed to take class.

Opportunities for Make-Up Work

If a student is unable to fully participate in class due to injury or illness, the instructor should be informed ASAP via email and when they arrive at class. The student must articulate how they will modify the content to protect from further injury and inform recovery. If the student elects to observe, they must take notes, describing and articulating what the student learned from observing the class and why (it's not enough to just describe what happened in class).

In the event of an injury or serious illness that prevents a student from engaging in any activity for more than two weeks, the student should drop the course rather than risk receiving a failing grade. However, students may continue enrollment in a class by fulfilling minimal participation requirements agreed upon with the teacher until recovery from the injury or illness allows for return to full participation.

Minimal or adapted participation may be in the form of substituting floor work for standing work, working the upper body while sitting in a chair, adapting choreography assignments to accommodate physical limitations, refraining from jumping, or working with a reduced range of motion. In addition, an extended Pilates program may be the appropriate course of action during injury recovery. The goal is to maintain physical conditioning and fitness during recovery so that the return to full activity will not compromise health and wellness.

A period of minimal or adapted activity due to injury or illness should not exceed a total of four (4) weeks during any long semester.

LATE-WORK will only be accepted if the student communicates with the instructor, requests an extension, and follows the instructor's guidelines. The instructor is not required to accept late work. Late work may receive diminishing percentage points each day. No late work will receive credit after 7 days past due date.

DISABILITIES STATEMENT-MOVEMENT:

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323. If you need or think you might need academic accommodations please let me know today after class.

The content of this class requires each student to:

1. Participate physically and mentally in a safe manner.
2. Exhibit mastery of specific steps and movement patterns through both visual and verbal cues.
3. Process visual and verbal cues spontaneously.
4. Exhibit ability to carry their own body weight as well as the weight of others. STUDENT

OBLIGATIONS TO ACADEMIC/PRODUCTION WORK:

DT students are expected to budget and organize their time and efforts in order to meet both their academic and production commitments satisfactorily and on time. The faculty and staff recognize that the academic and production assignments within the Department, as well as outside employment, athletics, and other obligations, sometimes impose conflicting pressures on DT students. One of the principal responsibilities of each student is to carefully identify and monitor the commitments that comprise his/her production work and outside obligations do not constitute an excused absence from DT classes or from the completion of any required class assignments.

Principles of Engagement

PoE refers to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:

- While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
- Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
- Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
- Speak from personal experiences. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to - speak on behalf of groups or other individual's experiences.

- Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people's ideas, instead of attacking individuals.
- Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as "YELLING!"
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.
- Avoid using "text-talk" unless explicitly permitted by your instructor.
- Proofread and fact-check your sources.
- Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.

Materials for Remote Learning Instruction

The UNT fall schedule requires this course to have in-person instruction. Course delivery through alternative methods, such as Zoom, is only permitted in cases of quarantine/isolation/illness of instructor, with chair and dean approval or when informed by the university due to changing public health conditions. Additional remote instruction may be necessary if community health conditions change. In the event, students will need access to a [webcam, microphone, or recording device such as phone, camera or computer, and reliable internet connection] to participate in fully remote portions of the class. Additional required classroom materials for remote learning include: [7x7 ft. space to move]. Learn more about how to be successful in a remote learning environment
