EDRE 4860: Teaching the Tools and Practices of Writing Across the Curriculum

"If literacy [and language] education isn't for liberation, then what is it for?"

-Dr. Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz

Instructor: Elizabeth Moore, M.Ed.	Pronouns: she/her/hers
Please call me: Ms. Moore
Meeting Place/Time: FRLD 400	Student Hours: Mondays 11-1pm and by virtual
Wed 9:30am-12:20pm	appointment
Contact info: elizabeth.moore@unt.edu	Office Location: Matthews Hall 205- D (Denton)
(preferably Canvas)
(M-F; 9-5pm)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to provide preservice teachers with instruction and practice in the teaching of writing related to purpose, audience, and content. Emphasis is given to process writing and the teaching of writing in all content areas, including the use of technology and multiple modes, in order to introduce or give students practice with the writing conventions of a discipline and to help them gain familiarity and fluency with specific genres and formats typical of a given discipline.

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION AND ADMINISTRATION: PREPARING TOMORROW'S EDUCATORS AND SCHOLARS

The Department of Teacher Education and Administration seeks to improve educational practice through the generation of knowledge and to prepare education professionals who serve all students in an effective, inclusive and equitable manner. Its focus is on the preparation of highly competent educators, researchers and administrators who employ current theory and research as they fill these important roles.

Mission

The Department of Teacher Education and Administration integrates theory, research, and practice to generate knowledge and to develop educational leaders who advance the potential of all learners.

Vision

We aspire to be internationally recognized for developing visionary educators who provide leadership, promote social justice, and effectively educate all learners.

Commitments

We are activists in providing strategies for teaching that are aligned with the core commitments of our UNT Teacher Preparation Program to transform teaching.

COURSE PREREQUISITES:

EDRE 3350; Admission to Teacher Education program.

Concurrent enrollment in EDRE 4860; EDEE 4350; EDSP 4350; EDCI 4010. Some of the assignments in these courses will overlap. We try to think of the curriculum (artificially divided into courses) as integrated. This is a challenge for both the course instructors and for students but in the best interest of learning. In your "teacher life" you will face similar challenges to integrate across curriculum areas that have been artificially divided.

COURSE GOALS & INTENTIONS

In this course, preservice teachers will:

- Develop an expanded understanding of writing and composing;
- Practice teaching writing using audience, purpose, and content to inform teaching;
- Engage in asset-based, appreciative assessment to plan for instruction;
- Consider the demands of composing in all content areas, genres, and modes, including technology and multimodalities;
- Develop an understanding of the interconnectedness of writing and reading.
- Develop an understanding of the content of the "science of reading".

Students will further explore:

- Learning within a community of practice;
- Expansive vs restricted views of what counts as writing;
- Cultural and linguistic variation with humanizing pedagogies;
- Models for assessment of composing;
- Teaching as relational and responsive;
- Inquiry and reflection as essential to writing; and
- Reading and writing as reciprocal processes.

COURSE STANCE & VISION

You will be challenged in this course to consider reading and literacy from a different perspective than you might have previously experienced in your own schooling. Literacy is a social practice. It is a rapidly changing social practice that is evolving in form and function. Literacy encompasses a set of tools used to access, represent, and make sense of the world around us. Literacy can be used to open minds or to close them. Access to literacy practices may be expansive or restricted. Limiting access to literacy has been used to marginalize groups – in particular based on race, ethnicity, linguistic diversity, and poverty. We see the effects of this marginalization in the discrepancies in achievement among minoritized youth. The institution of schooling can, without critical reflection, perpetuate these differences. Our work is to uncover these oppressive forces and improve literacy for all. In line with the commitments of the UNT teacher preparation program, we are striving not to fit in but to improve.

CONCURRENT EXPERIENCES & COURSEWORK

You are taking this course in Block B of your Professional Development Sequence (PDS). We will work to coordinate all of these experiences to support your growth in teaching.

You will be working in a classroom two full days per week. We will work to make connections between this practicum experience and this course in literacy. You will, no doubt, see things in your classroom placement that reflect the content of this course. You will, no doubt, see things in your classroom that are different from what we discuss in our course. Refrain from judging (your classroom and your teacher as well as your course instructor). Refrain from a "like" or "don't like" stance. Focus on learning, understanding, and forming your vision for teaching literacy in the present and future. Focus on the ways that you can contribute to improvement of practice. This is the stance that will serve you well in your future as a teacher.

At the same time as you are enrolled in this course focused on "reading as a tool" you will be taking a course focused on "writing as a tool". In a perfect world, these two would be one course as we strongly believe that dividing literacy is not helpful to learners or teachers. We have worked hard in the design of these two courses to fit together philosophically and pedagogically. You may even have the same course instructor for the two courses. You will find that the lines between the two courses often get blurred. That's a good thing. Mostly, we have worked to divide the assignments in ways that balance your load. Expect some repetition of core ideas. Question and contradictions you hear.

In addition, you will be enrolled in courses in Mathematics methods, classrooms and learning communities, and an introduction to special education. You will see "literacy" in all of these courses – this is the understanding that literacy as a tool. Explore and look for connections.

Finally, all of you completed a course in "Early Literacy". You can expect that many of the concepts in this course will be extended in the literacy courses this semester.

FIELD EXPERIENCE HOURS

This course contains a required field experience at an off-site location for two full days each week. Some of your assignments will be coordinated with this practicum setting in mind. A criminal background check is required to participate in these activities.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS AND/OR MATERIALS

Bomer, K. and Arens, C. (2020). *Writing Workshop Essentials: Time, Choice, Response.*Portsmouth, NH: Heinemann.

https://www.amazon.com/dp/0325099723?psc=1&smid=ATVPDKIKX0DER&ref =chk t yp_imgToDp

Articles:

Additional readings will be drawn from the professional literature on writing and literacy. The readings will be posted on Canvas.

Materials:

*Writer's Notebook

*Writing utensils (pen, pencil, laptop or tablet)

Other course materials such as journal articles, book chapters, podcasts, and curriculum materials are available on our course Canvas site. The readings will be posted in Canvas or through a Course Guide.

STUDENT EVALUATION

Assignment	Points	Final Grade Percentage
Reading Responses	20 points	10%
Writing Minilesson	20 points	20%
Writing Portfolio and Reflections	20 points	20%
Convention Clubs and TEKS Teams	20 points	20%
Literature and Writing Unit Inquiry	20 points	20%
Attendance & Engagement	10 points	10%

COURSE GRADING SCALE

А	100-90
В	89-80
С	79-70
D	69-60

F	Below 60
---	----------

MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS

Brief descriptions of major assignments are described below with corresponding due dates. Please refer back to this throughout the semester. A more detailed assignment sheet and rubric will be provided a few weeks before each assignment is due. Please note that my preference is double-spaced, one-inch margins, and 12-point for all assignments. It makes it easier to read and provide feedback.

Writing Minilesson, Conference Recording, Analysis and Written Reflection of Both

Students will create a writing minilesson and deliver to classmates. Students provide samples of teaching/student materials, corresponding TEKS and Accommodations, and write a short reflection of the lesson. Students will also record a writing conference with a child and write a brief response to the recording in class. As you analyze the writing conference, note the discourse patterns ---- who does the most talking; does the child "lead" with a question or need; and what support does the teacher give the student?

Writing Portfolio and Reflections

Students will produce multiple "entries" in writing notebooks; multiple short drafts of writing pieces, using a variety of genres; and two writing projects (to include notebook entries, drafts with revisions, final draft, and Reflection) to serve as mentor texts in their grade placement for their Writing Lesson and the joint Reading/Writing Unit. Writing samples will consider audience, purpose, and content, as well as technology use and multiple modes. When preparing these pieces, it might be helpful to think of students as the audience.

Reading Responses, Small Group and Whole Class Discussions

Students will read one textbook and multiple articles, watch videos (and/or Podcasts) across the semester that will form the basis of all classroom discussions and instruction. Students will respond in a variety of ways—writing, sketchnoting, multimodal and digitally within class.

Conventions Clubs and TEKS Teams

Students will form clubs or teams and choose either a writing Convention (e.g. parts of speech, grammar, punctuation) or a Writing TEK (from the TEA website) to research and teach to the class in an engaging way (a game, video, drama, mentor text demonstration).

Literature and Writing Unit Inquiry

This assignment will be shared with the Tools for Teaching Reading (EDRE 4850) course, and students will receive a point score for the reading portion and a point score for the writing portion. Students will develop a Literature and Writing Inquiry Unit to be taught during their student teaching. The assignment will build on work students completed during their Reading and Writing courses, and possibly also Science or Social Studies methods courses, and will include 1 or more goals and objectives related to the UNT Teacher Education Program Core Commitments (see page 4). Students will develop lessons in the Reading/Writing unit that incorporate a multimodal approach to include text, media, art, music, performance.

Participation (Professionalism and Engagement)

Teachers are required to exhibit a high degree of professionalism with their students, colleagues, administrators, parents, and members of the community. Student teaching is a time for you to begin practicing professional characteristics such as, reliability, integrity, flexibility, punctuality, and openness as you work with your mentors and classmates. This translates to attending this "Teaching the Tools and Practices of Writing" class, arriving to class on time, being prepared by fulfilling all written assignments and responses from course readings, and engaging actively during in-class experiences.

NOTE: This syllabus is for informational purposes regarding the anticipated course content and schedule of this course. It addresses the most recent information available on the date of its issuance; it is as accurate and complete as possible. I reserve the right to make any changes I deem necessary and/or appropriate.

COURSE OUTLINE/CALENDAR

*This course syllabus/schedule is intended to be a guide and may be modified at any time at the instructor's discretion to enhance the learning experiences of students.

Week/ Dates	Topics	Readings/Activities Due (before class)	Assignments Due
	Introduction to Justice	-Oriented Literacy Instruction & Theoretical Con	cepts
Week 1 August 24
Week 2 August 31
Week 3 September 7

	T
Week 4 September 14
	Critical Approaches to Language, Identity, & Culture in Literacy Instruction
Week 5 September 21
Week 6 September 28
Week 7 October 5
Week 8 October 12
Week 9 October 19
Week 10 October 26
Week 11 November 2
Week 12 November 9
Week 13 November 16
Week 14 November 23
Week 15 November 30
Week 16 December 7

UNT TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM COMMITMENTS

While teaching has always been a relational and intellectual endeavor, we acknowledge that teaching is also both an ethical and a political act. We recognize that many of the practices and traditions in schools today perpetuate long-seated historical and social oppressions. These social inequities are structural and socially constructed along dimensions of intersecting identities, including, but not limited to, race, color, ethnicity, national origin and identity, dis/ability, gender identity and expression, sex, sexual orientation, religion, immigration status, language, social class, age, and genetic orientation.

It is through our radical imaginations that we can create spaces for critical inquiry and engagement in schools at multiple levels: intellectual, ethical, physical, social, emotional, ecological, and aesthetic. We envision classrooms to be inclusive places that serve as complex and just ecosystems that allow for multiple identities, modes of expression, and ways of engagement to thrive together. We do this because we are committed to dismantling oppression. Teachers play an important role in this movement. Our teacher education program supports the development of core values related to:

- · Identity. Preparing teachers who have agency and critically reflect on their lived experiences and identities as a way of informing their professional knowledge and humanizing pedagogies.
- · Inquiry. Preparing teachers who value and inquire into the complex identities, as well as intellectual and transformational capacities, of children and youth.
- Activism. Preparing teachers who create curriculum that responds to children's and youth's inquiries and identities, as well as the sociopolitical and socioeconomic conditions of the world outside of schools—in neighborhoods, communities, and society-at-large.
- Community. Preparing teachers who recognize and honor the unique sociocultural experiences and communities of children and youth with whom they work.

We commit to teaching and teacher preparation that takes a transformative stance toward school change. We believe—acting in solidarity with teachers, children, youth, school leaders, and communities—we can radically reimagine and reconstruct schools and, thus, our society.

Teacher Preparation at The University of North Texas Core Commitments

Commitments	As Teachers	Children and Youth	In our Practice	Radically Imagine

Identity	/e are individuals with e value and nurture the cultural histories, love, grace, humor, pedagogies that are ces where teachers are wledges, talents, and compassion, creativity, et-based, equitable, raged and given space terests that we use as atience, joy, and peace appreciative of who e different in what they urces in our teaching. g people bring into our are and who we are with young people and teaching spaces.
Inquiry	are intellectuals with a/e value young people's ractice curriculum as imagine a curriculum in eep understanding of knowledge, creativity, inquiry and research hools that is shaped by academic content, curiosity, aesthetics, e children and youth al goals and influenced iculum development, ination, and embodied sitioned as capable, by events unfolding in leading leading as essential, ledgeable and social the world around us. educative and liberating agents for change.
Advocacy & Activism	e are activists working lue and embody caringactice activism in the imagine metaphors for all its forms – personal, riculum by engaging ols as nurturing spaces people, teachers, and, cultural, linguistic, and an and youth in work for the whole individual ommunities rooted in logical – as essential to at contributes to the rather than as efficient and other forms of wing a positive learning reation of more just, ories or businesses that discrimination. and living environment ore caring, and more composition peaceful world.
Communities	We are members of a value inclusive learning We practice humility. We imagine schools as ultiple communities—nunities that connect usugh our vulnerability; ining intersecting ways onnected in ways that ithin and outside of our hope in the face of of being, knowing, and make our successes classrooms. sity; and resilience in languaging. intertwined.

COURSE POLICIES

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY/ USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Academic integrity is essential to maintaining an environment that fosters excellence in teaching, research, and other educational and scholarly activities. Therefore, any acts of plagiarism, use of AI technology to complete course work, or the use of any other materials/methods/means not one's own, is prohibited. These types of offenses will be judged by the instructor, who will determine the best course of action to rectify these issues.

ASSIGNMENT EXPECTATIONS

Transmit only WORD documents to Canvas (no PDFs). Please do not email assignments. All assignments should:

- 1. present evidence of material read, evidence that the assignment is addressed in a well-organized and coherent manner, and include evidence of reflective thought, clarity of expression, criticality, creativity, and initiative.
- 2. include APA citations. You must give credit for other people's work. NO EXCEPTIONS!
- 3. be submitted in an organized and polished fashion.

ATTENDANCE EXPECTATIONS

Class attendance and punctuality is a requirement for this course. Along those lines, we are all human and we are living in unprecedented times. We have lives that stretch far beyond the four walls of any institution. If you need to miss class for any emergency, please contact me first. I treasure the relationships with my students, so if you miss class and I have not been previously warned, I will genuinely be concerned about you (please take this into consideration). If you must miss class, it is expected that you will review any course material that you missed, as well as review the uploaded recordings (if applicable), course materials, and read the assigned literature for the class session.

Any unexcused absences and tardies will affect your participation grade. Each student may miss 2 classes without penalty (excused or unexcused). If you miss more than 2 classes, 5 percentage points will be deducted from your final grade for each additional class missed (unexcused absences). On the 4th unexcused absence, you will be referred to the ARR committee. If you have more than 5 unexcused absences, you will not get credit for the course. According to University policy 06.039, absences due to religious observances, active military duty, UNT-sponsored events, illness or extenuating circumstances, pregnancy and parenting, and official university closure will be excused. All other absences will be considered at the discretion of the instructor.

CANVAS

We will be using Canvas to maintain our class website throughout the course and all assignments should be uploaded there. Course materials (i.e. PowerPoint slides, syllabus, videos, readings, etc.) and announcements will be available on Canvas. You are expected to check Canvas frequently regarding announcements.

ENGAGEMENT

This course will be largely based on critical discussions and practical applications to help us grow as future literacy teachers, with some conversations to facilitate and scaffold our foundational knowledge and learning. Therefore, active participation (including your reading, writing, and inquiry) largely determines our journey together through this course. We are a unit and your participation is and will always be an integral part of this class. Come to class each session prepared to discuss the assigned readings and course materials. Please share your connections, understandings, wonderings, questions, disagreements, and/or agreements. By not attending class and/or actively engaging each time (participation doesn't always look the same—we will discuss this) will negatively impact your final grade.

INSTRUCTOR COMMUNICATION

Emails to me regarding course assignments and other class business should be sent at least 48 hours prior to the due date or date of meeting. You may expect a response to email correspondence within 24 hours during weekdays. Please note that this time frame will be extended during the weekend. Your instructor will not respond to emails/other methods of communication between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 9:00 a.m. Please plan accordingly!

KID-FRIENDLY ENVIRONMENT

Balancing school and life as a parent or caregiver is quite the challenge! It is my personal stance that individuals can have dual roles as parents and students if they choose to. Therefore, our classroom space will always be welcoming and inviting of children and family members of all ages!

ZOOM LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Due to the inevitable changing nature of our society, there may be times where we have to hold virtual sessions in place of our face-to-face class (emergencies, other things that may impact our class time). In thinking about limited time we have together on a weekly basis, the following are highly recommended for an engaging Zoom session:

- Please use the name you would like to be called and share pronouns if you are comfortable. Eq. Dr. Frieson (she/her/hers)
- Please keep your microphone on mute when not engaging with the class.
- Use the chat function to ask questions, make comments, or engage with your classmates!
- Sharing video can help our relationship building as I would love to see your face! However sometimes sharing video slows down internet connections and/or is disruptive to the environment around you (ie. little sister might be doing homework or you may be cooking dinner for your family in the background). It is your personal decision to use the camera function or not. Regardless, please know that you can always count on me to share my camera unless there are connectivity issues so that you can build familiarity and community with me!

STANDARDS:

Educator Standards Addressed in this Course

The UNT Educator Preparation Program curriculum includes alignment to standards identified by the Texas State Board of Educator Certification (SBEC) for beginning educators. These standards are addressed throughout your preparation and assessed through the TExES Certification exams required for your teaching certificate. Additionally, the Commissioner of TEA has adopted these rules pertaining to Texas teaching standards:

Texas Teaching Standards:

Standards required for all Texas beginning teachers fall into the following 6 broad categories:

Standard 1--Instructional Planning and Delivery. Standard 1Ai,ii,iv; 1Bi,ii (Lesson design)

Standard 2--Knowledge of Students and Student Learning.

Standard 3--Content Knowledge and Expertise.

Standard 4--Learning Environment.

Standard 5--Data-Driven Practice.

Standard 6--Professional Practices and Responsibilities.

To locate the Science of Teaching Reading competencies addressed in this course, follow this link:

https://www.tx.nesinc.com/content/docs/TX293 SciOfTeachingReading PrepManual.pdf

STR Competencies

Competency 1 – B, C, E, J, K, L, O, Q Competency 5 – C, H, J Competency 6 – A, B, C, E, F, G, H, I Competency 7 – A, B, C, D, E, F

EDUCATOR STANDARDS FOR EC-6 CORE SUBJECTS:

A full description of the standards and competencies can be accessed using this link: https://tea.texas.gov/texas-educators/preparation-and-continuing-education/approved-educator-standards

English, Language Arts and Reading EC-6 Standards (specific to this course):

- Standard VIII 8.1k-8.9k, 8.1s-8.12s (Development of Written Communication)
- Standard IX 9.1k-9.3k, 9.1s-9.4s (Writing Conventions)
 - Standard X 10, 10 A, C, D, G, J, K, L, N Assessment and Instruction)
- Standard XI 11.1k-11.4k, 11.1s-11.6s (Research and Inquiry Skills)
 - · Standard XII Competency 9, 9 C, D, E, F, G, H, I Viewing and Representing

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY STANDARDS (ELPS)

This course incorporates the ELPS in lesson planning and instructional delivery in order to improve language acquisition and content area knowledge of students who are English learners. The ELPs will be implemented by teacher candidates during instruction of the subject area for students who are English learners. The ELPs can be accessed via the Texas Education Agency using the following link: http://ritter.tea.state.tx.us/rules/tac/chapter074/ch074a.html#74.4.

TEXAS COLLEGE AND CAREER READINESS STANDARDS

The Texas College and Career Readiness Standards can be accessed at the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Web site using the following link:

http://www.thecb.state.tx.us/index.cfm?objectid=EADF962E-0E3E-DA80-BAAD2496062F3CD8

TECHNOLOGY APPLICATIONS

Technology Applications (All Beginning Teachers, PDF) The first seven standards of the Technology Applications EC-12 Standards are expected of all beginning teachers and are incorporated in to the Texas Examination of Educator Standards (TExES) Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities (PPR) test.

- Standard I 1.1k-1.3k, 1.10k-1.18k, 1.1s-1.6s, 1.10s-1.18s
- Standard II 2.1k-2.3k, 2.1s, 2.3s-2.8s
- Standard III 3.2k, 3.3k, 3.1s, 3.4s-3.8s, 3.10s, 3.13s, 3.15s
- Standard IV 4.1k-4.3k, 4.1s, 4.2s, 4.4s-4.7s, 4.11s, 4.12s]

UNT CAMPUS-WIDE POLICIES

STANDARDS

The content and activities you will engage with in this course reflect the State of Texas standards for teacher preparation. Following this link () you will see the specific standards addressed in this course. Some of the standards addressed in this course are new. Some are extensions of standards engaged with in previous courses. All of these standards will be assessed on the Texas certification exams.

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

ADA Accommodation Statement. UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website at disability.unt.edu. (UNT Policy 16.001)

Course Safety Procedures (for Laboratory Courses). Students enrolled in [insert class name] are required to use proper safety procedures and guidelines as outlined in UNT Policy 06.038 Safety in Instructional Activities. While working in laboratory sessions, students are expected and required to identify and use proper safety guidelines in all activities requiring lifting, climbing, walking on slippery surfaces, using equipment and tools, handling chemical solutions and hot and cold products. Students should be aware that the UNT is not liable for injuries incurred while students are participating in class activities. All students are encouraged to secure adequate insurance coverage in the event of accidental injury. Students who do not have insurance coverage should consider obtaining Student Health Insurance. Brochures for student insurance are available in the UNT Student Health and Wellness Center. Students who are injured during class activities may seek medical attention at the Student Health and Wellness Center at rates that are reduced compared to other medical facilities. If students have an insurance plan other than Student Health Insurance at UNT, they should be sure that the plan covers treatment at this facility. If students choose not to go to the UNT Student Health and Wellness Center, they may be transported to an emergency room at a local hospital. Students are responsible for expenses incurred there.

Emergency Notification & Procedures. UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course.

Student Evaluation Administration Dates. Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey, they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website at www.spot.unt.edu or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention. UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct. Federal laws and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex as well as sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648.

Acceptable Student Behavior. Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

DEPARTMENT SYLLABUS STATEMENTS

Foliotek ePortfolio (where applicable). Foliotek is a software data management system (DMS) used in the assessment of your knowledge, skills, and dispositions relevant to program standards and objectives. You will be required to use your Foliotek account for the duration of your enrollment in the College of Education in order to upload required applications, course assignments, and other electronic evidences/evaluations as required. This course may require assignment(s) to be uploaded and graded in Foliotek. The College of Education will track your progress in your program through this data to verify that you have successfully met the competencies required in your program of study. All students must register in the program portfolio that aligns with their degree plan. Registration codes and tutorials can be found on this site: https://coe.unt.edu/educator-preparation-office/foliotek