Grading for attendance: "Showing up" does NOT constitute "Attendance". Attendance requires active participation and will be measured in different ways depending on the goal each class. At a minimum, to receive credit for attendance you must arrive to the Recitation by the start time and work the entirety of the class period. Doing what is expected of you as explained in Recitation will typically be sufficient to receive 100% on that day's attendance. Examples of things that can cause your attendance grade to lower (but not limited to) are being disruptive, using your phone (texting, surfing the web, etc.), being late or leaving before class ends.

Identification: make sure you bring identification to your UGMT class every time. Students without identification will be marked absent. You need a photo ID and your student ID number, your UNT student ID has both.

Quizzes: Weekly quizzes will be given. The content on the quizzes will be covered in the UGMT labs.

Attendance Policy: Class attendance is mandatory. Students are responsible for all information given in class, regardless of his/her attendance.

Classroom Expectations: Students are expected to behave appropriately while in the classroom. Please refer to the Code of Student Conduct for more information, <https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct/academic-rights> . Note that cell phone use is considered a distraction in the classroom and will not be tolerated.

Notes:

- 1) This syllabus is subject to change as the instructor deems necessary. Any/all changes will be announced during regular class time. It is the responsibility of the student to attend each scheduled class to be informed of these changes.
- 2) You are responsible for meeting all university deadlines, such as: registration, fee payment, drop deadlines, etc. Refer to the printed Schedule of Classes and/or University Catalog for policies and dates.

Disability Accommodations: The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Note about other methods for meeting TSI requirements: There are other ways to meet the TSI requirements other than this course. If you meet these requirements during the semester, this does not change your course requirements. That is, even if you take the TSI exam and pass it, if you are still enrolled in this class, then you will get a grade for this class.

COVID-19 Impact on Attendance

While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to attend class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to a related issue regarding COVID-19. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent so I may make a decision about accommodating your request to be excused from class.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Hotline at 844-366-5892 or COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure. While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health, and those of others in the community, is more important.

Additional remote instruction may be necessary if community health conditions change or you need to self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19. Students will need access to a [webcam and microphone – faculty member to include what other basic equipment is needed] to participate in fully remote portions of the class. Additional required classroom materials for remote learning include: [list specific software, supplies, equipment or system requirements needed for the course. Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at <https://online.unt.edu/learn>.

Face coverings are required in all UNT facilities. Students are expected to wear face coverings during this class. If you are unable to wear a face covering due to a disability, please contact the Office of Disability Access to request an accommodation. UNT face covering requirements are subject to change due to community health guidelines. Any changes will be communicated via the instructor.
