Course Description

Summer 2022 topic: Re-Assembling Motherhood(s): on Radical Care and Collective Art as Feminist Practices

A plurality of feminisms and attention to the intersections of race, class, and sexuality with gender and sex will shape thematic investigations of practices including institutional critique, craft, performance, and collaboration, among others.

Course Blog

You are required to maintain a course blog via Canvas. This is the location where you will post all of your completed assignments.

Course Structure

The structure of this course will reflect the hybridized practices of much feminist art, in combining text-, writing- and studio-based research projects that employ various feminist tactics. No prior studio-based art practice required.
2.1 EVALUATION

Grading Scale

A 100 - 90
An "A" in this class represents outstanding work, where the work and the process exceed the expectation and requirements of the course.

B 89 - 80
A "B" is earned through meeting these expectations in a strong and sustained way.

C 79 - 70
A "C" is given to those who meet these expectations with no particular flare.

D 69 - 60
A "D" is the result of missed assignments or attendance problems.

F below 60
A "F" is the result of two missed assignments or a critique session. Please note that the amount of effort does not equal the quality of effort.

Social media 20
Participation 20

Participation
The coursework for this class is a combination of individual and group work. You are expected to be actively engaged and to carve out areas of responsibility & leadership; without students' initiative, the class work will remain assignments and not rise to the higher level of learning that is possible.

Late Policy
All presentations must be made on the date they are due; no late work will be accepted. If a project is late your project grade will drop by 1 letter grade and continue to drop each passing class day. Contact me as soon as possible if you need an extension based on documented illness/ family trauma.
Supplies

You will need access to any necessary supplies or materials needed to complete your studio projects.

Texts will be provided digitally.

Course Objectives

- Engage in critical discourse on the concepts, themes and strategies key to the production of feminist art.
- Demonstrate a working knowledge of influential artists and texts in the field.
- Analyze and apply studio-based practices to generate projects that respond to or participate in a feminist dialogue.
- Synthesize course content within your personal academic research/artistic interests.

Attendance

The nature of studio working and learning is experimental and active, so being in class prepared and on time is essential and expected. You may miss one class period without affecting your grade. If you are late to, or leave early from class by 10 minutes or more this will count as 1/2 absence. Your final grade will drop a grade level after two absences. You are responsible for all course content.

Email

You are expected to read all emails from the class instructor. Messages will be sent through your my.unt email address & via Canvas. Please check your email and Canvas at least once every 48 hours! I will answer emails within two business days (M-F) in the order they are received.
4.1 // ASSIGNMENTS

Discussions (20%)

Throughout the semester we will be reading and discussing various feminist texts. It is your responsibility to download, read, highlight, and prepare for these discussions in advance.

Individual (20%)

In response to onsite visits at the Nasher Sculpture Center and the CVAD Art Galleries, you will create an individual artwork and present your work in group critique. Open to all forms/ mediums. Please select from the following prompts:

1. Judy Chicago (in Birth Garments), Deana Lawson (in Mama Goma, Gemena, DR Congo), and Mary Kelly (in Post-Partum Document, 1973-79) examine the body’s ability to channel personal and social histories, addressing themes of birth, familial legacy, and domesticity through clothing. Inspired by these works, and as an act of queering the body, design a futuristic wearable for pr.

Along with your work, please submit a 150 word statement, 5 developmental sketches, and documentation of your final artwork to Canvas.

2. Inspired by the synthesizer, the documentary “Sisters with transistors,” and the feminist activism we’ve looked at so far - create an interactive installation or performance using the Playtronica. (can be group or individual) Playtronica can be checked out from Zak and demoed during class time. Along with your work, please submit a 150 word statement, 5 developmental sketches, and documentation (including a recording) of your final artwork to Canvas.

Group (20%)

This is a visual research assignment that contributes to the Quer Birth Project initiative. My RA, Evan Blackwell will also be available to support your work.

As a group of 3 or 4, compile a single pdf that contains 50-100 images around a topic that relates to pregnancy and birth. Your images will not all be representations of birth, but they should reference, relate to, or be in conversation with concepts of pregnancy, birth, and family building. You should include a range of images - artworks, historical imagery/ events, medical imagery, pop culture, stills from films, news, etc. Your images should represent examples from decades starting in the late 1960s/ early 1970s - into the future (speculative).

Group Topics:

- birth tools and technologies - starting with the first IVF baby (1978)
- birth and pop culture (1970s - speculative future)
- birth and othering
- birth and history (1970s - speculative future)
- birth and ecofeminism (the earth, the land, and the environment)

You will need to do critical research to compile these images. You should begin your research with a meeting with me followed by a trip to the library. Based on these encounters, your group will come up with a list of free associations to start with. As you become more familiar with your subject, you’ll be able to add to your ongoing list and find interesting images to contribute. Keep a log of resources - book titles, films, social media accounts, google searches, etc. Once you’ve gathered all of your images, compile them into a single word document and export as a pdf. Select 5 of your images to analyze and prepare a 20 minute present to the class.

Social media (20%)

Find 3 articles, essays, or reviews that relate to contemporary conversations around pregnancy and birth. Look at the @thequeerbirthproject page for examples. Translate your texts into engaging short instagram posts (with handles and hashtags). You will present your posts to the class in our final week.

Discussion Texts

For this course you will maintain a blog on Canvas. This is where you will post responses, works in progress, and discussion notes for class. In general, these will be 250 - 500 words each and include embedded images/ external links. Please type your posts in a software like Word before posting to Canvas to check for spelling and grammar issues. Here is a list of all of the blog posts you have this semester (in chronological order):

1. Intro post: who are you? What is your art practice? Include a photo of you + your work
2. Reading response/ notes: bell hooks “Feminism is for Everyone” (pg 1 -12)
3. Reading response/ notes: Nochlin Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists?
4. CVAD response: select an artwork from your gallery visit and respond to the prompt “This artwork is (is isn't) feminist because..."
5. Mini-project #1: post statement + documentation images/ materials
6. Reading response/ notes: Chan Why Are There No Great Women Net Artists?
7. Nasher response: create and post a digital poster (that can be printed) inspired by the Guerilla Girls Mixtape, also consider the works of ridykulous and Fierce Pussy

COURSE CONTENT STATEMENT

Content in the arts can sometimes include works, situations, actions, and language that can be personally challenging or offensive to some students on the grounds, for example, of sexual explicitness, violence, or blasphemy. As the College of Visual Arts and Design is devoted to the principle of freedom of expression, artistic and otherwise, and it is not the college’s practice to censor these works or ideas on any of these grounds. Students who might feel unduly distressed or made uncomfortable by such expressions should withdraw at the start of the term and seek another course.
