COURSE DESCRIPTION
Prerequisite(s): 3 of the following ASTU 3201, ASTU 3202, ASTU 3203, ASTU 3204, ASTU 3205, ASTU 3206. Must have passed drawing & painting entry review. Advanced studies in drawing and painting with an emphasis on in-depth individually generated projects. Students will focus on professional development and portfolio preparation. Students will work on developing technical skills, materials and processes appropriate to their concepts as well as aesthetic sensibilities including the use of historic and contemporary references in drawing and painting and other arts, criticism, expression of personal concepts in works.

COURSE CONTENT & SCHEDULE CHANGES
This course will consist of individual and group critiques, individual exploration, investigation, research and production of a portfolio, reading selected essays for discussion/ critiques and writing an artist statement along with other activities. Please make sure you have a UNT email and access to Canvas portal.

Students are expected to develop personal direction and artistic practice by ambitiously producing a body of 8 to 10 finished works. Students may work in a broad range of media with mentorship from instructor. Emphasis will be placed on painting and drawing processes, conceptual thinking, expression, communication in verbal, written and visual formats, aesthetics, meaning, format, composition and contemporary and historical practices. A Syllabus book will be created by each student to contain all individual ideas and critique notes from the semester. It is important to be engaged in the CVAD community, attend visiting artist lectures, UNT gallery exhibitions, and visit museums and galleries in the DFW metroplex. It is important to always be looking at art during this course.

Critiques are an essential mode of learning for all artists and are a significant component of this course. Attendance is mandatory for all critiques as well as participation, both bringing in artwork and being active in discussion without unnecessary prompting. Critiques allow you to share your own ideas and receive meaningful feedback from peers and instructors allowing new possibilities for idea development, creativity, problem solving and new production. Please be ready to install work efficiently and promptly during your critique time.
Senior Painting and Drawing Survey:
Review is required for all students in their final semester of studio courses. A sign-up sheet of times will be provided one week prior outside of Lindsey Bass’s, Painting and Drawing Tech, office on the 4th floor CVAD. The days are MT April 13-14/ 9:00 to 1:00p.m., in 4th floor crit spaces. An artist statement is required at the survey and due on April 6. Students will meet individually with Painting and Drawing Faculty for 20 minutes presenting a portfolio of five substantial works. One or two works will be selected for the BFA Senior Painting and Drawing Exhibition. This survey will consist of critique, conversation, feedback, time for questions and discussion regarding plans for post-graduation. Participation and Installation will be graded as part of the final critique for students in the BFA exhibition.

All graduating seniors must submit a portfolio of five digital images along with artist statement to the BFA Senior Portfolio Assignment in Canvas due April 30, 2020.

Instructor has the right to modify syllabus to fit the needs of the students and course.

COURSE OUTCOMES & OBJECTIVES

a. Understanding of basic principles of design and color, concepts, media and formats, and the ability to apply them to a specific aesthetic intent. This includes functional knowledge of the traditions, conventions, and evolutions of the discipline as related to issues of representation, illusion, and meaning. The development of solutions to aesthetic and design problems should continue throughout the degree program.

b. Ability to synthesize the use of drawing, two-dimensional design, and color. Understanding of the possibilities and limitations of the drawing and painting mediums. These abilities are developed by beginning with basic studies and continuing throughout the degree program toward the development of advanced capabilities.

c. Knowledge and skills in the use of basic tools, techniques, and processes sufficient to work from concept to finished product, including knowledge of paints and surfaces. This includes mastery of the traditional technical and conceptual approaches to drawing and painting.

d. Exploration of the expressive possibilities of various media, and the diverse conceptual modes available to the artist. This may deal with direct painting from nature or with alternative approaches to the making of traditional or innovative two- and, at times, three-dimensional images.

e. Functional knowledge of the history of drawing and painting.

f. Encouragement to develop a consistent, personal direction and style.

g. Opportunities to work independently

REQUIRED & OPTIONAL COURSE MATERIALS / TEXTBOOKS

Students are responsible for purchasing all of the necessary materials prior to the class period and have them prepared for work in class on scheduled work days. Materials for this course are directed by the student. Students must have materials ready to use for class time. Material needs will vary from student to student. Therefore, there is not a required supply list for this class. However, students are required to use materials of an appropriate level of quality. Please do not paint over old paintings. Please use stretchers that are 1.5 inch deep for final paintings. The quality of the materials must be appropriate for the work. A beginning idea will need many iterations and refinement. Plan on writing, drawing and collecting ideas in research notebook (Syllabus book) and enlarging several drawings and painting sketches on primed cardboard and paper first. Instructor will assist students in recommending appropriate materials.

REQUIRED READINGS
Electronic readings will be made throughout the semester. Critiques will be done in conjunction with the readings.

CLASS PARTICIPATION EXPECTATIONS
I expect you to have materials and work in each class. Time management is crucial in intermediate courses. Additional work is expected outside of class time to thoroughly complete projects. Classrooms are available on Fridays and on the weekends. You may work in another class with the instructor’s permission. I expect all students to attend instructor lecture presentations, participate in class discussions and be an active member in group critiques. Participation in critiques is included in each grade sheet. Missing more than one group critique class day will result in a project letter grade deduction. Missing the final critique will result in a course letter grade deduction along with project letter grade deduction. Tardiness or early departure from group critiques will not be tolerated and project letter grade will be deduced. You are expected to assist in maintaining a clean and healthy classroom environment that is conducive to learning. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result in, minimally, a request to leave class, which will be counted as an unexcused absence.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Regular and punctual attendance is mandatory.

- Three absences will be tolerated.
- More than three absences will require a note from a doctor or a note from the art office excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT policy 06.039 (Student Attendance and Authorized Absences) in order to be counted as excused.
- More than three absences will lower your final grade by one letter grade per additional absence (4 or more)
- Most lectures, demonstrations, and assignments will occur at the beginning of class periods and will not be repeated for those who come in late. If you are late to class, you will need to notify me at the end of the class period to replace an absence with a tardy. Three tardies will constitute an absence except on days when group critiques are scheduled. Tardies and early departures on critique days will constitute a letter grade deduction.
- A tardy is considered to be arrival 10 minutes after the beginning of class.
- Assignments that are turned in late will receive one letter grade lower per day for each day they are late.
• Examinations, quizzes, and in-class assignments missed may only be made up with an official doctor’s excuse or note from the art office excusing the absence for a reason covered under UNT policy 06.039 (Student Attendance and Authorized Absences).
• Critiques missed may not be made up and grades will reflect the student’s failure to participate in the critique discussions.

LATE WORK / MAKE-UP POLICY

Late work will receive a zero, unless the student provides proof of an acceptable mitigating circumstance: serious illness, death of a family member, or other circumstance if approved by the instructor. The late work can be submitted within one week but a zero will be averaged with the new grade.

On time artwork can be resubmitted within 2 weeks and two grades will be averaged.

Missing critiques is unacceptable and will result in a project letter grade deduction. Final critique will result in both project grade and course letter grade deduction.

GRADING

A = Excellent (100-90%)
B = Above Average (89-80%)
C = Average (79-70%)
D = Inferior (69-60%) [passing but not necessarily satisfying degree requirements]
F = Failure (59% or below)

A (excellent work): Requirements for the course have been more than fulfilled, and work has been developed beyond previous levels on both an aesthetic and a conceptual basis. Completed artwork shows excellent intellectual skills and ideas, technical skill and craft, and control of the medium. Critical and conceptual understanding is evident through visual and verbal class participation.

B (very good work): The art work, its presentation, and the student’s class participation, all show competence in skill development, craft, and control of the medium. Critique verbal participation is evident through the visual and verbal.

C (average work): Requirements for the course have been fulfilled and satisfactory quality of work in class assignments and in class participation. The student has been present on critique days and for individual appointments (mid-term and final).

D (poor work): Below average attempts in class work, attendance, and participation

F (failure): Lack of attempt in class and class participation

Unfinished work will not be graded and receive a zero. You can redo each work and the old grade will be averaged with the new grade. Redo work must be received within 2 weeks of due date.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

According to UNT Policy 18.1.16, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION & PROCEDURES

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to the course management system for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Please call 911 in the event of an emergency. Please enter UNT Police 940-535-3000 in your cell phone directory.

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

STUDENT EVALUATION ADMINISTRATION DATES

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13 and 14 [November 19-30, 2018] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the spot website at www.spot.unt.edu or email spot@unt.edu.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

An Incomplete Grade ("I") is a non-punitive grade given only during the last one-fourth of a term/semester and only if a student (1) is passing the course and (2) has a justifiable and documented reason, beyond the control of the student (such as serious illness or military service), for not completing the work on schedule.

In consultation with the instructor, complete a request for an Incomplete Grade. This form can be found on the department website and must be turned into the department chair prior to the last day of classes (not the exam date). Note: A grade of Incomplete is not automatically assigned to students.

SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARRASSMENT & ASSAULT

UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.

UNT's Dean of Students' website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0. UNT's Student Advocate she can be reached through e-mail at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students' office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.

HEALTH & SAFETY PROGRAM

Students are required to follow the Department of Studio Art Health and Safety guidelines and are required to complete training for each studio course. The goal of the Studio Art Health and Safety Program is to protect the health and welfare of all faculty, staff, and students and to cooperate with the University of North Texas' Office of Risk Management. Please visit the website for details and the departmental handbook: https://art.unt.edu/healthandsafety.

Health & Safety Area Specific Information: Painting

1. Hazards of Media (inherent)

Educate yourself about the painting materials you are using by visiting the links below.
The hazards of traditional painting materials arise from exposure to pigments, solvents, and additives, and are dependent on the toxicity of those elements. Exposure can cause a variety of health issues (for both you and those around you) ranging from minor skin irritation to death. The primary forms of exposure to these toxic materials are inhalation, contact, and accidental ingestion. See the "Best Practices" section for way to avoid/lessen exposure.

Solvents (e.g. Turpentine, Mineral Spirits, Odorless Mineral Spirits, Gamsol, Turpenoid)

Solvents range from moderately to severely toxic. The primary forms of exposure are inhalation, absorption through the skin, and accidental ingestion. The use of solvents () poses a serious hazard. All solvents may cause skin allergies, narcosis (dizziness, nausea, fatigue, loss of coordination, coma), respiratory irritation, kidney damage, respiratory allergies, and brain damage. Ingestion can be fatal. Gamsol or turpenoid, which have had the aromatic hydrocarbons removed, are less hazardous. Solvents are also highly flammable. Even without a spark or fire, solvent/oil-soaked rags can spontaneously combust. Follow the CVAD Waste Management Chart when disposing of these materials.

Pigments

Many pigments are toxic and are known carcinogens, including those based on lead, cadmium, mercury, chromates, manganese, and cobalt. The main risk is from accidental ingestion of the pigments due to eating while working, nail-biting, pointing your brush with your lips, and similar means of hand-to-mouth contact. Working with dry pigments or sanding dry paint layers can allow the pigments to be inhaled.

2. Best Practices

- Wear gloves, wash hands regularly, and avoid any skin exposure to materials.
- Try to brush items rather than spraying if possible.
- Never use aerosol media in the classroom. Use the spray booths provided.
- Avoid inhaling pigment powder.
- Turpentine and mineral spirits are prohibited in the studio. Gamsol is provided by the area.
- Keep your solvent container covered while painting.
- Solvent washes are strongly discouraged.
- Reuse Gamsol by allowing sediment to settle in jar.
- Brush washing primarily takes place at your station with a jar, brush caddy, Gamsol, and paper towel. This assures as little paint as possible will go down the sink.
• DO NOT THROW PAINT OR SOLVENTS OR DIRTY WATER FROM ACRYLIC PAINT IN SINK!!! PUT WET AND DRY PAINT IN RED CONTAINER and all liquids in large labeled container. Make sure lids are all closed.
• Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinet closed at all times.

• File an incident report (forms may be found in the CVAD H&S Handbook and in the main office) within 48 hours of the event.
• Follow all CVAD Health and Safety handbook guidelines (the handbook should be reviewed by your instructor and can be found here: https://art.unt.edu/healthandsafety).
• Follow the CVAD Waste Management Chart in the classroom and other health & safety guidelines posted.
• Respect the workspace and your fellow classmates.
• Leave the space cleaner than you found it.
  o Clean up and organize your surroundings.
  o Throw away any trash (whether it's yours or not).
  o Wipe down your easel, tabouret, and floor.
  o Wipe down sinks at the end of class.
• Respect other’s work. Do not use or move other students’ work/materials.
• No food, drink, or alcohol allowed in the studio
• Practice best practices for material handling. If you have questions about a material, ask your instructor for guidance.
• Do not spray any aerosols in any CVAD classroom/studio/doorway or exterior wall/floor. Use the spray booths provided.
• Familiarize yourself with the eyewash station
• Razor blades, X-Acto blades and any other small sharp refuse goes in the sharps container at SAA station.
• Do not remove/borrow furniture from rooms without permission from faculty or D&P coordinator.
• Do not prop classroom doors. Doors must remain closed for the building hvac and ventilation work properly.
• Do not create “daisy chains” with multiple electric cords.
• Absolutely no paint, solvents, or hazardous materials down sinks.
• Store all flammables in the flammable cabinet. Keep flammable cabinet closed at all times.
• First aid kits are found in each studio. Notify your instructor or area technician if supplies are low.
• Report any safety issues immediately to your instructor or area technician.
• All courses must engage in an end of the semester clean up.
• Theft will not be tolerated.
• Follow the CVAD CONTAINER POLICY (see below)

There are 3 types of labels used in CVAD. All containers must have a label identifying the contents at all times.

UNIVERSAL LABELS (while chemical is in use):
All secondary/satellite containers for hazardous materials (or what might be perceived as hazardous - i.e. watered-down gesso, graphite solutions, satellite containers of solvents, powders, spray paints, fixatives, oils, solvents) must be marked with content, your name and the date opened. All unmarked containers will be disposed of with no notice. Labels can be found in the studios. All containers must be marked with your name, contents and date opened.

UNIVERSAL WASTE LABELS (when material is designated as waste):
All containers solely containing a universal waste must have a universal waste label identifying the contents as "Universal Waste - (type of universal waste)" that are designated as waste for proper disposal. The label must also include the date the first item of universal waste entered the container.

HAZARDOUS WASTE LABELS
All hazardous waste containers must have a label identifying the contents as hazardous.
Labels should include all constituents in the waste mixture as well as an approximate percentage of the total for that item. All constituents should equal 100%
