COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE

As an online class, students are responsible for completing all quizzes, discussions, and assignments in a timely fashion. Assignments must be completed by the noted date. Students who are unable to complete an assignment in a given time period should contact the instructor as soon as possible.

CLASS MATERIALS

The modules are intended to enrich or supplement the assigned readings. They are NOT intended to summarize or substitute for the readings. The instructor will be glad to meet individually with students to discuss materials presented in the readings, to help the student determine his or her progress in the class, or other relevant purposes. Detailed requirements for assignments will be posted throughout the semester.

Materials including notes are copyrighted, and no one is authorized to sell, distribute, or make course material available for economic profit.

ASSIGNMENT & DUE DATES

Assignments not submitted before the due date will not be graded. Due dates are very well established. It is your responsibility to make sure everything is turned in prior to the cut-off date on Blackboard. You will not be able to submit assignments on Blackboard after the due date. I do not accept assignments via e-mail, unless otherwise specified. Do not assume that if you e-mailed me your work, that I am accepting it. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE TO SUBMIT MATERIALS BECAUSE TECHNOLOGY MAY NOT BE ON YOUR SIDE AT THAT MOMENT.

Blackboard Learn

Students should check Blackboard Learn daily. Copies of the syllabus and assignments will be posted on Blackboard.

Students may either submit papers in Microsoft Word or PDF. Papers that are submitted in a different format or that cannot be opened will not be graded.

If you wish to know your standing grade, you can review point totals on Blackboard.

MAKEUP ASSIGNMENTS/QUIZZES

You are responsible for taking all quizzes at the scheduled times. Missed assignments and quizzes will be given a “0” grade unless student has a university-approved excuse or documented illness/emergency.

APA FORMATTING

All assignments must follow APA formatting (refer to the APA Publications Manual).

CLASSROOM CONDUCT

Please make an effort to respect others in class discussions. Disagreements are allowed and expected, but the focus should be on ideas rather than on the individual who is expressing the ideas.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

Students must do their own work. Cheating on quizzes, assignments; plagiarizing; or any other form of scholastic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Detailed explanations of the UNT’s standards of academic integrity for students may be found in the UNT Policy Manual at <https://policy.unt.edu/policy-manual>. If it is determined that a student has cheated or plagiarized, this student will automatically fail that quiz, or assignment and will receive a zero. The student will also be reported to UNT’s Office of Academic Integrity.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATION POLICY

If you have a condition that requires accommodation in this course, please notify the instructor during the first week of class. Any necessary or appropriate accommodations will be made provided that timely notice is received, and that the arrangement is consistent with recommendations from Disability Services, when applicable. Students who require this type of assistance should contact the Office of Disability Access (ODA) at (940) 565-4323 to make appropriate arrangements. Information is also available at <http://disability.unt.edu/>. Accommodations will be made only after a disability is officially verified.

GRADE DETERMINATION/ COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Quizzes (75 points): There will be five (5) quizzes throughout the semester. Each quiz will be worth 15 points of your final grade. The quiz will consist of 15 multiple choice questions (each question worth 1 point). The quizzes will cover material from the online modules. All quizzes will be timed. You will be allowed 20 minutes to complete each quiz. Students who do not complete the quizzes during the time period will receive a zero.

Discussions (40 points): There will be four (4) discussion prompts. For each prompt, students will be asked to write a substantial or major post worth 8 points each in which there are significant contributions by answering the prompt, asking important questions, and making thoughtful points. A major post should be at least 400 words and students should show clear understanding of the topic. Please use citations and examples from our text to convey points. Students will also be required to respond to one student’s post. This response post is worth 2 points and may be in the form of questions, comments, observations, initial reactions, and so on. A minor post should be at least 100 words. All posts should be directly related to the topics and readings.

Reflection Papers (100 points): There will be two (2) papers throughout the semester. Each reflection paper will be worth 50 points of your final grade. Students will be asked to write a 2-page reflection on a topic from the choices provided. More details can be found on Blackboard. Please note that students will be penalized for poorly written work. Please PROOFREAD! You may also visit with a tutor in the Writing Lab (Sage Hall, Room 152 or call 940-565-2563 to schedule an appointment).

Research Project (150 points): Students will submit a 4-page report on the changes that are occurring in a developing country. Students will discuss some of the major factors of urbanism and the impacts of development in that country. Students can select any country of their choice. More instructions will be posted on Blackboard. Students will submit the electronic version of the paper on Blackboard.

Survey Completion (15 points): You will be required to complete a survey at the start of the semester. While student responses will not be graded, students will be required to complete the survey within the time frame. A completion grade will be given. Please disregard the grade assigned by Blackboard. Please note that no make-up survey will be given. The survey is worth 15 points. The survey must be completed by September 2, 2018 at 11:59PM.
