Instructor Communication: My primary method of communication will be through Canvas (Announcements, Messages) and UNT email, so please have your Canvas notifications set to receive updates/alerts immediately or daily and check your UNT email frequently. Students can contact me with questions or concerns via email or Canvas message. I will generally be able to respond within a few hours of receiving an email or message, but I may take up to 24 hours to respond. I will not be answering emails/messages between the hours of 11:00 pm and 7:30 am CT. There are times when things are out of our control, so if you don't receive a response from me and it's been more than 24 hours, please send me a gentle reminder to answer your email/message.

Student Communication: please see the “Rules of Engagement” section below on how to communicate in an online classroom and review the following webpage for additional Online Communication Tips (<https://digitalstrategy.unt.edu/clear/online-communication-tips.html>).

Course Description

This course will continue to expand a framework for understanding and interpreting tonal music. We will complete our study of diatonic harmonies and begin to explore chromatic harmonies (e.g., secondary dominants). In addition to these harmonic topics, we will explore sequences, diatonic modulations, dominant extensions, phrase structures, and 32-bar song form (AABA).

Course Structure

This is a 15-week asynchronous online course (students learn course content on their own time rather than via online live lecture meeting at specified times with the instructor). The course will be delivered in modules that are usually one week in length. There will be synchronous web conference meetings on Zoom for office hours and review sessions. These will be scheduled and announced in advance. Please check the Announcements area on Canvas frequently to stay informed.

Course Prerequisites or Other Restrictions

Prerequisites: MUTH 1400 (Theory I) and MUTH1410 (Aural Skills I) both with a grade of C or higher

Corequisite: MUTH1510 (Aural Skills II)

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify all diatonic chords, certain types of chromatic chords, common harmonic sequence types, and diatonic modulations employed in common-practice Western art music through score analysis.
2. Illustrate diatonic and chromatic chord spelling and resolutions, harmonic sequence types, and diatonic modulations through 4-voice (SATB) part writing.
3. Analyze, compare and contrast, and interpret multiple musical examples of musical phrase structures and small-scale forms from vocal and instrumental repertoires.
4. Compose sequences, musical phrase endings, and phrase types using music notation software. These composition exercises will require students to demonstrate their command of harmony and its interaction with melody, cadences, and phrase structures.
5. Communicate the technical vocabulary relating to harmony, phrase types and musical forms clearly and accurately.

Materials

No Required Books: you do not have to purchase a textbook or workbook for this course; I create the lessons and assignments in Canvas.

Computer Skills & Digital Literacy

In order to be successful in this online class, students need the following technical skills:

- Navigating and using Canvas (learning management system)
- Sending and receiving emails with attachments
- Downloading and installing software
- Creating and submitting Word documents and PDFs
- Posting to discussion boards
- Scanning and uploading homework assignments (convert picture to PDF with a scanner or mobile app)

Rules of Engagement (Netiquette)

Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors online. Please follow the General Guidelines on the Online Communication Tips page (<https://digitalstrategy.unt.edu/clear/online-communication-tips.html>).

Success in an Online Course

Success in online education requires certain skills, particularly time management skills. You need to take ownership of your learning in this online class, which includes taking the initiative to seek help or assistance from the instructor when you need it. I won't know you are struggling or have questions if you don't communicate with me. You will need to be actively engaging with this summer course during the week and over the weekend. Although this course is asynchronous, it is not strictly a complete-when-you-want course—there will be assessments due most days and course content is released on a week-to-week basis. You will need to schedule time to read/learn the course content and also complete the assignments by the stated deadlines. I recommend that if you are struggling with any course topic, navigation, or access issue, that you contact me and seek help earlier, rather than later. I recommend reading some tips on succeeding in an online course at "How to Succeed as an Online Student" (<https://digitalstrategy.unt.edu/clear/teaching-resources/online-succeed.html>).

Course Requirements

You are expected to complete all course assessments independently (see Academic Integrity statement on p. 8 for more details). Please ask for clarification if you are unsure about the instructions or direction of any assessment before its due. Class assessments will be weighted according to the following breakdown:

Assessments	Percentage of Final Grade
Homework Assignments	25%
Quizzes	22%
Midterm Exam	15%
Final Exam	15%
Short Composition Project	13%
Discussion/Participation Activities	10%

Homework Assignments: assignments will feature part-writing, harmonic analysis, form analysis, etc. Students will complete the assignments by hand, scan the assignment using a cell phone/scanner, and upload a PDF of the assignment into Canvas. Alternatively, students can annotate their answers on the PDF using a tablet and stylus. Assignments are due on the dates specified for each assignment. Your assignments must be completed neatly, and scans must be legible. Your lowest 2 homework assignment scores will be dropped at the end of the semester.

Quizzes: some quizzes will be formatted as reading and comprehension (based on the lesson content), while other quizzes will focus on acquiring new musical skills (e.g., spelling chords). Most quizzes can be attempted an unlimited amount of times until the quiz closes. Your highest attempted score will be the one that is recorded in the grade book. Your lowest 3 quiz scores will be dropped at the end of the semester.

Exams: there will be an exam at the end of each unit (a midterm and final exam) that you can complete online (available from 8:00 am–11:59 pm CT). Part of the exam may include a short worksheet with part-writing questions (complete by hand or using a tablet and stylus). More details will be provided about the exam formats the week of the exams. Given the nature of the course, the final exam will be cumulative, but the main emphasis will be on the topics covered since the midterm.

Composition Project: students will compose different phrase types using music notation software. Further details about the composition will be provided before the project is due.

Discussion/Participation Activities: to foster engagement and to help with content understanding, students will have various types of participation activities or discussions to answer throughout the course.

Grading

Letter grades will be assigned according to the percentages below. A grade of C (70%) or higher is needed to pass this course and move on to Theory III.

A = 90–100% B = 80–89% C = 70–79% D = 60–69% F = 0–59%

Late Policies for Course Assessments: Each student can use three “late passes” in order to turn in three separate homework assignments late without penalty (up to a max. of 3 days or 72 hours after the Canvas deadline). Please email me before the late period is over to request one of your late passes for the assignment. Once you’ve used up your late passes, any additional homework assignments submitted late will be subject to a grade deduction. The points deducted from a late assignment submission will be the equivalent of a 5% deduction per day it is late, with a maximum deduction of 15% (e.g., after 11:59 pm Sunday through 11:59 pm Monday = 5% deduction etc.).

Quizzes, activities, and discussions are due by the date posted. These will typically be open for an additional 48 hours after the due date (it will display as a late submission in Canvas, but there won’t be a grade deduction). Any late policies for the composition project will be specified in more detail in the instructions/rubrics for this assessment.

Exams will be due by 11:59 pm CT the day it is scheduled. Only students who have a documented excused absence will be allowed to take an exam at an alternate time.

N.B. I will not be accepting late or missing homework assignments, re-opening missing quizzes, etc. after the last day of class.

Extra Credit: although there may be bonus questions on assignments or quizzes, there are no extra credit opportunities in this course so it’s important to complete and submit assignments as they are assigned.

Other

Scheduling End-of-Semester Juries

Course Policies

Assessment Policy

Each assessment type will be available for students to complete for a specified amount of time and will include instructions on how to complete the assignment, what the acceptable file types for submission are (e.g., .pdf), and an official due date (usually set for 11:59 pm). All assessments will be submitted online through Canvas. If any changes need to be made (e.g., extensions), I will notify students via a Canvas Announcement. Due dates can be found in each assessment as well as in the course schedule (go to the Syllabus tab in Canvas), your Canvas calendar, and in your To-Do list on the course homepage.

Technology Policy

Students taking an internet class are responsible for having a working computer and internet access. If your home Wi-Fi is not working, try to find alternative internet access if possible (e.g., library, coffee shop). Please contact me ASAP if your access to a computer or Wi-Fi is suddenly unavailable and I'll work with you to find a solution.

Students should immediately report any problems with Canvas videos or documents not working or opening to me (sending a screenshot of these kinds of issues will be helpful). The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Examination Policy

Exams will be completed online and will be available for students to complete on a specified date from 8:00 am – 11:59 pm CT. Students who have a documented excused absence will be allowed to complete the exam at an alternate time. If a student loses internet connection during an exam, the student needs to contact me ASAP so that I can make necessary accommodations for an extension/re-attempt at the exam. I also recommend contacting the Student Helpdesk and document the remedy ticket number before contacting me.

GenAI Software Policy

Prohibited Use Policy: the use of GenAI (Generative Artificial Intelligence) is prohibited in this class. These types of software may NOT be used when typing responses on a discussion board or submitting any other type of assignment, quiz, exam, or project. Any attempt to represent GenAI output as your own work will result in 1) a warning, and/or 2) an assignment resubmission, and/or 3) a 0 on the assignment (determined on a case-by-case basis).

Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback

My responsibilities in the course are to:

- Help students learn and grow
- Provide clear instructions and grading rubrics
- Answering questions about course content and assignments
- Identify additional resources as necessary
- Review and update course content

Instructor Feedback: Students will generally receive immediate feedback on quizzes upon submission (unless there are questions that need to be graded manually). Homework assignments, discussion board posts, and exams will typically be graded within a few days of the due date. Other projects may take more time, depending on the scope of the project and the number of students in the class.

Late Work & Late Passes

Homework assignments are typically due by 11:59 pm CT and will remain accessible/available 72 hours after the due date. If you submit your assignment after the due date and before the 72-hour “available until” date, Canvas will mark your submission as late. Late homework submissions will receive a daily penalty of 5%, up to a maximum of 15%, unless you request to use one of your late passes. There are no late penalties applied when you use one of your late passes. Please see “Late Policies” under the Grading section (p. 5) for more details.

Attendance Policy

According to UNT’s policy, a student’s absence may be excused for the following reasons: religious holy day observances (including travel for that purpose), active military service (including travel for that purpose), participation in official university function (including College of Music functions), medical emergencies and illnesses, pregnancy and parenting under Title IX, official University closure by UNT’s President, and other extenuating circumstances on a case-by-case basis (e.g., death of immediate family member).

Since we do not meet synchronously at a regular time each week, accommodations for documented excused absences will be made if your absence conflicts with the submission of an assessment whereby the length of your excused absence has prevented you from accessing or completing the necessary work (e.g., you haven't been able to access Canvas materials and assessments for a few days because of death in the family). Please contact me ASAP with the reason and satisfactory documentation/evidence for the absence.

Class Participation

Gaining fluency in music takes consistent practice so I expect you to be watching the lesson videos and/or reading lesson materials, completing any assigned readings and practice questions, and participating in any other discussions or activities I assign that you would normally encounter during a face-to-face class.

Syllabus Change Policy

This syllabus, the course information, and any due dates are subject to change with advance notice. Please check Canvas for the most up-to-date information.

UNT Policies

Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc.

Financial Aid and Satisfactory Academic Progress

Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total hours registered. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.

Students holding music scholarships must maintain a minimum 2.5 overall cumulative GPA and 3.0 cumulative GPA in music courses.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may have the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. It is recommended that you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (<http://www.ecfr.gov/>). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose. Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Student Verification

UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses. See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002>).

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
- The work is not used in its entirety.
- Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
- The student is not identified.
- The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student's written permission.

Download the UNT System Permission, Waiver and Release Form

Transmission and Recording of Student Images in Electronically-Delivered Courses

1. No permission is needed from a student for his or her image or voice to be transmitted live via videoconference or streaming media, but all students should be informed when courses are to be conducted using either method of delivery.
2. In the event an instructor records student presentations, he or she must obtain permission from the student using a signed release in order to use the recording for future classes in accordance with the Use of Student-Created Work guidelines above.
3. Instructors who video-record their class lectures with the intention of re-using some or all of recordings for future class offerings must notify students on the course syllabus if students' images may appear on video. Instructors are also advised to provide accommodation for students who do not wish to appear in class recordings.

Example: This course employs lecture capture technology to record class sessions. Students may occasionally appear on video. The lecture recordings will be available to you for study purposes and may also be reused in future course offerings.

No notification is needed if only audio and slide capture is used or if the video only records the instructor's image. However, the instructor is encouraged to let students know the recordings will be available to them for study purposes.
