Course Information

Purpose: This recitation is to support a learning environment and supplement your lecture course.

Grading

This recitation will be computed as 10% of your final grade in the lecture course.

Grading Criteria

- 2 points for active participation in each class session

Grading for Participation

‘Showing up’ does NOT constitute “Attendance”. Attendance requires active participation and will be measured in different ways depending on the goal each class. At a minimum, to receive credit for attendance you must arrive to class by the start time and work the entirety of the class period. Each class meeting will incur 2 points. You will lose points for being disruptive, being late or leaving before released. Please be aware that written assignments may be used to track attendance.

This course will meet 15 times over the semester, which is worth a total of 30 points. However, all students will be allotted two (2) points with no penalty. In other words, your final grade calculation will be out of 2 points.

Additional Course Policies

Class attendance is mandatory. Students are responsible for all information given in class, regardless of his/her attendance.

Classroom Expectations:

Students are expected to behave appropriately while in the classroom. Please refer to the Code of Student Conduct for more information, <https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct/academic-rights>. ADA Policy

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <https://studentaffairs.unt.edu/office-disability-access>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

No personal electronics may be used in the class except for a calculator. This includes but is not limited to headphones, laptops, tablets, smart watches, mobile phones, personal digital assistants, etc. Use your time effectively.
