Objectives

Well designed Data Visualization would improve comprehension, memory, inference, and decision making. This course introduces techniques, algorithms and tools for creating effective data visualizations based on principles and techniques from graphic design, visual art, perceptual psychology and cognitive science. Emphasis is placed on the identification of patterns, trends, and differences among data sets.
The objectives of this course:

1. Students will be able to master the fundamentals of communication and alignment around concepts required for effective data visualization.

2. Students will be able to select and use techniques, algorithms and tools for creating visualization of real-world data.

3. Students will be able to use software tools to create static and interactive visualization for data from a variety of disciplines.

4. Students will be able to use data visualization to support decision-making and critical thinking.

Topics

The following is the tentative schedule with the covered topics. Actual schedule may be adjusted according to progress:

1. The Purpose of Visualization
2. Data and Image Models
3. Visualization Design
4. Exploratory Data Analysis

13. Animation (optional)

Teaching Philosophy

This course will be taught online with traditional lectures through Zoom platform, but on-class discussions via Zoom are strongly encouraged. Although software tools such as Tableau and Microsoft Excel will be needed to complete the assignments, no tutorial will be given on how to use the tools or programming in Python or R.

This course employs lecture capture technology to record class sessions. Students may occasionally appear on video. The lecture recordings will be available to you for study purposes and may also be reused in future course offerings.

Technical Assistance

UIT Help Desk: http://www.unt.edu/helpdesk/index.htm. The University of North Texas provides student technical support in the use of Zoom and Canvas and supported resources. The student help desk may be reached at:
Minimal Technical Skills and Resources Needed

Each student needs an Internet connected computer that can run Zoom software. The computer should include a video camera, a microphone and a speaker for attending the online lectures and participating online discussions. Students are strongly encouraged to test their system for running Zoom and Canvas software at least one day before the first lecture.

Communication

Students can email their questions to the instructor and the teacher assistant (TA). They are also encouraged to talk to the instructor and TA during the office hours. Emails are normally respond within 24 hours, and all assignments, quizzes, projects, and papers should be graded within 10 days after the submission deadline.

Grading Policy

Grading will be based on assignments to be assigned as the course proceeds.

Grades will be computed as follows:

- 4 Project Assignments: 50%
- 3 Reading Assignments (5 papers each): 30%
- 5 Quizzes: 20%

Grading Scale: A: 90-100; B: 80-89; C: 70-79; D: 60-69; F: 59 or below.

All assignments, projects, quizzes and term paper requirements are post in Canvas, and students are required to upload their work into Canvas. Late submission of quizzes won’t be graded, but late submission of other work will be graded with reduced points. The final grade is calculated based on grade points of assignments, project, quizzes, and term paper. NO final exam is given this time.

Incompletes

A grade of incomplete (I) will be given only for a justifiable reason (such as a serious illness or military service) and only if you are passing the course. It is your responsibility to contact the instructor to request an incomplete and discuss requirements for completing the course. If you do not remove the incomplete within the timeframe agreed upon with the instructor or within one calendar year, you will receive a grade of an F. Please refer to http://essc.unt.edu/registrar/academic-record-incomplete.html for more information.
Withdrawal

A grade of withdraw (W) or withdraw-failing (WF) will be given depending on your participation and grades to date. If you simply disappear and do not file a formal UNT withdrawal form, you may receive a grade of an F.

ADA Statement

The University of North Texas makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking reasonable accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with a reasonable accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of reasonable accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://www.unt.edu/oda. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

Class Policy

• Attendance Policy: You are expected to attend class via Zoom. You are responsible for announcements and assignments given in class. If you miss a class, it is up to you to obtain notes and any other information that was provided in the class. Those who do not attend class or review the recorded lectures in a timely manner can count on doing poorly in this course.

• Academic Integrity Policy: Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University. [Insert specific sanction or academic penalty for specific academic integrity violation.]

• ADA Policy: UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one’s specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website at disability.unt.edu.

• Emergency Notification & Procedures: UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course materials.

• APA Style: When doing the assignment, it is important to provide details of all the sources of information that you have used to prepare your work. All written assignments should follow APA (American Psychological Association) style to ensure that all sources are cited completely, correctly, and with consistency. The purpose of APA style is to (a). give credit to the author whose ideas or research you have used, (b). provide the exact location for sources of information used in the text of your paper, and (c). enable your reader to verify information you have provided or to explore your topic in greater depth. Consult the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th edition.

- Acceptable Student Behavior: Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university’s expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct.

- Access to Information - Eagle Connect: Students access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail: eagleconnect.unt.edu/

- Student Evaluation Administration Dates: Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 [insert administration dates] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website at http://spot.unt.edu/ or email: spot@unt.edu.

- Sexual Assault Prevention: UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victims compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565-2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student’s physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student’s course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student’s full course of study requirement.

- University of North Texas Compliance: To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the students responsibility to do the following:

1. Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
2. Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email: internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

- Student Verification: UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses. See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses at https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002.

- Use of Student Work: A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g., software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the students permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

  - The work is used only once.
  - The work is not used in its entirety.
  - Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
  - The student is not identified.
  - The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the students written permission.
