Instructor Contact

Name: Dr. Jhinuk Chowdhury
Pronouns: he/him/his
Office Location: I do not have the authorization to meet with you in person because of COVID-19 related concerns. (Please see virtual office hours via Zoom, below.)
Phone Number: 940.565.2135
Office Hours: Via Zoom, 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM, Wednesdays (and by appointment)
Email: jhinuk.chowdhury@unt.edu

Communication Expectations:

I will primarily communicate with students by posting Announcements in Canvas. Please ensure that you have set up Canvas to automatically email you (at your most frequently used email address) whenever I post an announcement.

It would be best if you seek answers to most general questions through the General Q&A Forum in the Discussions section of Canvas. If you have a general question about the course or assignments, please post it there. Either I will answer it, or one of your classmates will. This way, we can all benefit from the questions asked, and the answers will be available in a place that the whole class can see. You may also want to find someone in class with whom you can be a "buddy" — this will give you at least one other person you can email with questions.

If you have a private question, please contact me via Canvas Inbox, and I will endeavor to respond within 48 hours on weekdays (usually sooner). Canvas Inbox is a far better way of contacting me than direct email.

If you need to email me directly, please begin the subject line with [MKTG 4620] — including the square brackets. Doing that will bring the message into a specially designated folder in my Inbox and not get lost in the "deluge." Here is an example of a subject line of an email message:

"[MKTG 4620] – Can I set up a time to chat with you over Zoom, please?"

CLEAR has a webpage for students that provides Online Communication Tips (<https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips>) that you might find useful.

Welcome to UNT!

As members of the UNT community, we have all made a commitment to be part of an institution that respects and values the identities of the students and employees with whom we interact. UNT does not tolerate identity-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. UNT's full Non-Discrimination Policy can be found in the UNT Policies section of the syllabus.

Course Description

From the course catalog: Explores the evolution of the Internet and the Internet's ensuing role in marketing — introduction to web design, web authoring, and web-based marketing applications.

Course Structure

This class is online and synchronous.

We will meet online, via Zoom, on TUE, THU 9:30 AM – 10:50 AM. [These are the officially designated times for this class.]

(We will likely shift to an asynchronous format a little after half-way through the semester. But, let me announce that to you in due course.)

Submissions of assignments, exams, and projects will have fixed windows of time. These will be spaced approximately evenly throughout the semester and announced on the course calendar.

I will open sequentially numbered modules, one at a time.

Course Prerequisites or Other Restrictions

MKTG 3650.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Explain, in broad terms, how the Internet works.
2. Elucidate the differences between the many terms used in the discipline.
3. Develop simple, multipage websites that incorporate HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
4. Acquire the necessary services available commercially, required for the setting up of a commercially viable website.
5. Install and administer a Content Management System that is potentially extensible for e-commerce transactions.
6. Interact with individual or corporate clients and set up a website for general marketing functions.

Materials

This course does not require you to buy or rent a traditional paper-based textbook. There are many public domain resources (free of charge) that this course incorporates in its contents.

After the first two weeks of class, you will require:

1. At least one domain name registration. You might need two, depending on your choices for the semester project. Domain names are available for anywhere between $3 and $20 annually, depending on many factors. For this class, you will need no more than four months of usage. However, the minimum registration period is typically one year.

2. A commercial web hosting service (on an Apache server, with PHP and MySQL capabilities) for about four months. Web hosting services cost in the neighborhood of $5 – 20 per month, depending on the length of the contract (and many other factors)

I will explain all of these matters clearly in due course. You are not required to know how to go about acquiring these at this time. I have made this information available to you to give you an idea of the costs involved with the resources required for this course.

Teaching Philosophy

My teaching philosophy involves providing students with resources that help to inspire them and motivate them to continue to learn on their own in the future. Students who are motivated and inspired to learn will come to school with a positive mindset. I work hard to promote student self-motivation by giving them agency to explore areas of interest within the curriculum.

Rules of Engagement

Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:

- While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
- Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
- Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
- Speak from personal experiences. Use "I" statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups or other individual's experiences.
- Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people's ideas, instead of attacking individuals.
- Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as "YELLING!"
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.
- Avoid using "text-talk" unless explicitly permitted by your instructor.
- Proofread and fact-check your sources.
- Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.

See these Engagement Guidelines (<https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips>) for more information.

Course Requirements

Your overall semester grade will include evaluations of your performance in the following three areas:

- Exams (delivered through Canvas/Respondus LockDown browser) — 60% of the overall grade
- Assignments (short quizzes, essays, and discussions) — 10% of the overall grade

- Projects (one individual and one group project; details to be announced separately) — 30% of the overall grade

The final course grade will be determined using the following formula:

$$\text{OVERALL} = [(\text{AVERAGE of EXAMS}) * 0.60] + [(\text{AVERAGE of ASSIGNMENTS}) * 0.10] + [\text{PROJECT SCORE} * 0.30]$$

Grading

The LETTER GRADE assignment, based on the OVERALL score, will be as per the following scheme:

90% and above A

80% - 89.99% B

70% - 79.99% C

60% - 69.99% D

Less than 60% F

There will be no rounding up of scaled points; the grades will be determined precisely by the ranges shown above.

If you withdraw from the class, it is your responsibility to remove your name from the class rolls. If you withdraw and do NOT remove your name from the class rolls, you will receive a failing grade (F) for this course at the end of the semester.

Course Evaluation

Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is the student evaluation system for UNT and allows students the ability to confidentially provide constructive feedback to their instructor and department to improve the quality of student experiences in the course.

Course Policies

Attendance Policy

An attendance policy is required for every UNT syllabi. Visit the University of North Texas' Attendance Policy (<http://policy.unt.edu/policy/15-2->) to learn more.

For the Zoom sessions, I will record attendance. If you arrive more than 10 minutes after the scheduled start time, I will not register your presence for that session. In this course, I will expect you to follow the course proceedings as published in the modules. Outside of the Zoom meetings, your continued participation in discussions, quizzes, and exams will constitute attendance.

COVID-19 Impact on Attendance

While attendance is expected as outlined above, it is important for all of us to be mindful of the health and safety of everyone in our community, especially given concerns about COVID-19. Please contact me if you are unable to continue participation in class because you are ill, or unable to attend class due to a related issue regarding COVID-19. It is important that you communicate with me prior to being absent so that I may decide about accommodating your request to be excused from class.

If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 (<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html>) please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Hotline at 844-366-5892 or COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure. While attendance is an important part of succeeding in this class, your own health and those of others in the community, is more important.

Class Materials for Remote Instruction

Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at <https://online.unt.edu/learn>.

Class Participation

I encourage you to participate enthusiastically in the Discussion Forum of Canvas. The peers you meet in class — whether physically or remotely — are a subset of students with similar ideas and interests. There is much to be learned from each other's perspectives. You should not waste that opportunity.

Late Work

UNT instructors have the prerogative to accept or not to accept late work. See the Assignment section for details on the policy for late submission for assignments and the section labeled Exams for related information.

Examination Policy

Exams constitute 60% of the semester grade.

Exams will cover recorded class lectures, lessons, handouts, readings, class exercises, videos, discussions, and guest lectures (if there are any) that we cover in the course till the day of the exam.

I will deliver the exams via Canvas and LockDown browser and LockDown Monitor. You will need to take the exam on your (personal) laptop or desktop computer.

To take the test, you must download the LockDown Browser (Student Edition) browser ahead of time. On your personal computer, you can install the LockDown browser by visiting this web page. (<https://clear.unt.edu/supported-technologies/respondus-lockdown-browser>). Scroll down to the section with the header, "Download LockDown Browser (Student Edition)."

If you do not own a computer, the University may be able to provide you with a laptop; please see the information here:

A limited number of Windows and Mac laptops are available for checkout \(Links to an external site.\) (<https://library.unt.edu/services/laptop-checkout/>) in Willis Library between 10 AM to 4 PM for UNT faculty, staff, and students with a UNT ID.

Laptops will be available for checkout for the remainder of the semester on a first-come, first-served basis. If you need a laptop, please email Willis Library at Lib.Support@unt.edu.

Missed Exams: You will be allowed to make up a missed exam only if you have a documented university-excused absence \(Links to an external site.\) (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-039>). If you know in advance that you will miss an exam, you MUST contact your instructor before the scheduled exam.

Make-up exams may not contain the same questions as the regular exam; they may have a completely different format. I will schedule a make-up exam within three days of the original exam date. No more than one alternative timeslot will be offered (depending on what is convenient for the instructor and the teaching assistant). If the student does not take the exam within this alternative time slot, I will not provide any additional make-up exam. The implication of a missed test is a score of zero for that exam.

Assignment Policy

Assignments (which may include Quizzes, Short Essays, and Discussion items) is worth 10% of the semester grade:

There will be multiple assignments. Please endeavor to submit it well before the deadline.

Please note:

- Under no circumstances will an assignment be considered for a grade if you do not submit it through Canvas (or whatever medium I designate in the detailed description of the assignment). Attempted submissions via an email message, an attachment to an email message, or hard copy will not be entertained at all.
- You may be able to submit some (but not all) assignments after the original deadline. However, for submissions after the expiration of the deadline (where it is allowed), Canvas will automatically deduct 10% of the grade for each day by which you are late. This policy is immutable. Please note that all assignments will close at 11:59 PM, December 2, 2020. There will be no opportunities for late submission after that deadline.
- Please be advised that written (essay-format) submissions of all kinds are liable to be scanned by (or submitted via) TurnItIn or other plagiarism detection utilities.

Projects are worth 30% of the semester grade.

There will be two projects in the semester. There are several technical details that you will need to know and understand about them. Information about the projects will be published separately in Canvas. I will inform you, via Canvas announcements, when I post them.

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system for all users. However, in the event of an unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time-sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback

My responsibilities as an instructor include the following:

- helping you grow and learn
- providing clear instructions for projects and assessments
- answering questions about assigned materials

- identifying additional resources as necessary
- providing grading rubrics
- reviewing and updating course content

Syllabus Change Policy

While it is my strong desire to adhere to the syllabus, it may be necessary to make changes to both the contents and timelines published in it, because of exigent circumstances. In such cases, I reserve the right to make any change that I deem fit. If there are is a change at any time, I will communicate it to you via an announcement on Canvas.

UNT Policies

Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University.

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time; however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information, see the ODA website \(https://disability.unt.edu/\).

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention, for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom, and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Students' access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward email Eagle Connect (<https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect>).

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14, and 15 [insert administration dates] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey, they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (<http://spot.unt.edu/>) or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off-campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (<http://www.ecfr.gov/>). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken online or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An online or distance education course is a course that is offered principally using television, audio, or computer transmission, including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no online or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

- (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
- (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place, and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Student Verification

UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses.

See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002>).

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g., software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
- The work is not used in its entirety.
- Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
- The student is not identified.
- The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student's written permission.

Download the UNT System Permission, Waiver and Release Form

Transmission and Recording of Student Images in Electronically Delivered Courses

1. No permission is needed from a student for his or her image or voice to be transmitted live via videoconference or streaming media, but all students should be informed when courses are to be conducted using either method of delivery.
2. In the event an instructor records student presentations, he or she must obtain permission from the student using a signed release in order to use the recording for future classes in accordance with the Use of Student-Created Work guidelines above.
3. Instructors who video-record their class lectures with the intention of reusing some or all of the recordings for future class offerings must notify students on the course syllabus if students' images may appear on the video. Instructors are also advised to provide accommodation for students who do not wish to appear in class recordings.

Example: This course employs lecture capture technology to record class sessions. Students may occasionally appear in the video. The lecture recordings will be available to you for study purposes and may also be reused in future course offerings.

No notification is needed if only audio and slide capture is used or if the video only records the instructor's image. However, the instructor is encouraged to let students know the recordings will be available to them for study purposes.

Class Recordings & Student Likenesses

Synchronous (live) sessions in this course may be recorded for students enrolled in this class section to refer to throughout the semester. Class recordings are the intellectual property of the University or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share the recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

UNT eulDs cannot be changed at this time. The collaborating offices are working on a process to make this option accessible to UNT community members.*

Pronouns

Pronouns (she/her, they/them, he/him, etc.) are a public way for people to address you, much like your name, and can be shared with a name when making an introduction, both virtually and in-person. Just as we ask and don't assume someone's name, we should also ask and not assume someone's pronouns.

You can add your pronouns to your Canvas account so that they follow your name when posting to discussion boards, submitting assignments, etc.

Below is a list of additional resources regarding pronouns and their usage:

- What are pronouns and why are they important?
- How do I use pronouns?
- How do I share my pronouns?
- How do I ask for another person's pronouns?
