Welcome to UNT!

As members of the UNT community, we have all made a commitment to be part of an institution that respects and values the identities of the students and employees with whom we interact. UNT does not tolerate identity-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. UNT’s full Non-Discrimination Policy can be found in the UNT Policies section of the syllabus.

Course Description and Objectives

This course is designed to provide a general understanding of the cultural, historical, political, and artistic practices of Latin America from the Prehispanic period to the present. Readings include a variety of texts such as colonial chronicles, essays, short stories, and video clips. Through class discussions, written assignments, and oral presentations, students will improve their communicative skills in Spanish.

Course Structure

- Blended learning (combination of in-person and remote learning): We will have in-person classes usually once a week (51% or more) and some classes will also be conducted remotely in CANVAS (49% or less).
- Canvas: There will be 15 modules in Canvas, and each module represents each week.

- Class lecture: All the class lectures for remote learning days will be uploaded in CANVAS (Zoom pre-recording). Lectures given during face-to-face classes are not normally recorded and uploaded in Canvas unless it is deemed necessary. This is an intensive, upper-level Spanish course. Do not expect to pass this course if you cannot do the textbook reading regularly, consistently come to face-to-face classes prepared, and watch all class remote lectures timely and thoroughly.
- Class materials not for the public: You can watch and listen to my audio or video lectures as many times as you want, but these materials are prepared for this class ONLY, which means that you are NOT allowed to share the audio or video lectures with anyone else NOR reproduce them in any forms. The UNT reminds all the students of the prohibition of the theft of IP (intellectual property) and FERPA violation from courses being taught online. In order to protect faculty's intellectual property, the following should be observed by all the students: "Class recordings are reserved for use only by students in this class for educational purposes. The recordings should not be shared outside the class in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action."
- Protecting privacy: You are not allowed to make video or audio recordings (e.g., taking a picture, screen capture, and other methods of recordings) of other people online and/or in-person. In other words, you are not allowed to record any portion of the video/audio and in-person lectures / assignments shared by the professor and/or other classmates and share these recordings with others. Taking a picture of classmates and/or the instructor in face-to-face classes is not allowed without permission.

Course Prerequisites or Other Restrictions

Course Technology & Skills

This course requires students to have the following technology, skills, and system in order to carry out the required assignments of the class: computer, reliable internet access, speakers, microphone, plug-ins, Microsoft Office Suite, downloading and uploading files, using Canvas, using Zoom, using a webcam, using LockDown Browser system (instructions and link to download the one-time application is available in Canvas in Module "Course Introduction and Syllabus").

- NOTE: Canvas works better using Chrome or Firefox Browsers.
- Without LockDown Browser with a webcam, you will not be able to take the exams.
- You will need to update Adobe Flash Player and Java in your computer.

It is the student responsibility to have a computer that is compatible with LockDown Browser and that is equipped with a webcam. You can also take the exams in the Language Lab (in Language Building computer labs, first floor) where you don't need to download the application to your computer.

Rules of Engagement

Rules of engagement refer to the way students are expected to interact with each other and with their instructors. Here are some general guidelines:

- While the freedom to express yourself is a fundamental human right, any communication that utilizes cruel and derogatory language on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law will not be tolerated.
- Treat your instructor and classmates with respect in any communication online or face-to-face, even when their opinion differs from your own.
- Ask for and use the correct name and pronouns for your instructor and classmates.
- Speak from personal experiences. Use “I” statements to share thoughts and feelings. Try not to speak on behalf of groups or other individual’s experiences.
- Use your critical thinking skills to challenge other people’s ideas, instead of attacking individuals.
- Avoid using all caps while communicating digitally. This may be interpreted as “YELLING!”
- Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm in emails or discussion posts as tone can be difficult to interpret digitally.
- Avoid using “text-talk” unless explicitly permitted by your instructor.
- Proofread and fact-check your sources.
- Keep in mind that online posts can be permanent, so think first before you type.

See these Engagement Guidelines (https://clear.unt.edu/online-communication-tips) for more information.

Course components

Daily Homework (15%):

You will upload the assigned homework on the day indicated in the syllabus. On Tuesdays, HW assignment should be done and uploaded BEFORE coming to face-to-face class, that is, 9:29 am. On Thursdays, HW assignment should be uploaded by 11:59 pm. The link to upload the homework will be available online until 9:29 AM every Tuesday and 11:59 PM every Thursday. After these hours, you won't be able to submit your HW, so don't wait until the last minute! Late homework will not be accepted.

Participation / Preparation / Punctuality (10%):

Active participation is essential to your success in this class. The participation portion of your grade will be based on your in-class participation and attendance.

- In-class participation: Attendance is mandatory but simple attendance, although essential to your success in this class, does not guarantee a good in-class participation grade. You are expected to complete all homework assignments and readings before coming to class. Your participation grade is based on (among others):

- 1) the level of active and significant contribution to the class discussions

Online Discussion (7%):

A topic for class discussion will be posted on every Wednesday and will be available by the end of every Thursday at 11:59 pm. You can also access each forum by clicking on the DISCUSSIONS button in the course navigation links in CANVAS. In order to get full credit for each discussion, you will need to 1) post at least one thoughtful, well-written response to the weekly discussion topic with a minimum of 100 words and 2) make your comments at least once on your classmates' responses with a minimum of 80 words in Spanish. You are expected to participate in the online discussion actively and your discussion grade will be posted weekly on Canvas based on the following criteria:

Quizzes (8%):

Biweekly comprehension quiz will be given and will consist of 10-15 simple questions (true/false and/or fill in the blank type questions) about what you have learned in the lessons of the previous weeks. Biweekly quizzes must be taken online by 11:59 PM. The duration of each quiz is limited to 10 minutes and you are required to use LockDown Browser to take the quizzes.

Three Exams (45%):

There will be three exams. Study guides and instructions on how to take the exam using LockDown Browser with a webcam are available in Canvas. All exams will be conducted remotely. The format and details about the exams will be announced later. No make-up.

Final Paper (15%):

- Each student will write a final paper in Spanish about a selected topic relating to Latin American culture and history. Please keep in mind the following: You may choose any topic related to the class, but it must be approved by the professor before you start your research.
- The paper format:
  - Length between 850 and 1000 words: Number of words must be printed at the end of the paper.
  - Double space with 1 inch margin of each side of paper
  - MLA or Chicago Manual of Style: Bibliography that provides at least three sources for your research.

Course Evaluation

Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is the student evaluation system for UNT and allows students the ability to confidentially provide constructive feedback to their instructor and department to improve the quality of student experiences in the course. [SPOT evaluations date TBA]

Course Policies

Face Coverings

You are highly recommended to wear a face covering in class regardless of vaccination status.

Attendance Policy

Regular and punctual class attendance is required of all students. Regular and punctual class attendance is required of all students. You are allowed TWO free absence for face-to-face class days, regardless of the reasons. You are encouraged to save this absence for unavoidable circumstances. At the end of the semester, 5% will be subtracted from your final course grade for every absence above two (2).

Excused absence:

An excused absence applies to illness with a doctor's legal documentation, a death in the immediate family with an obituary notice, or a school-sponsored event with proper documentation. If you have missed classes due to illness, you must notify me and provide verifiable medical documentation by e-mail or in person within a week for your absence to be considered excused.

Class Materials for Fully Remote Instruction

Fully remote instruction may be necessary if community health conditions change or you need to self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19. Students will need access to a webcam and microphone to participate in fully remote portions of the class. Additional required classroom materials for remote learning include: computer, reliable internet access, speakers, plug-ins, Microsoft Office Suite, downloading and uploading files, using Zoom, and using LockDown Browser system. Information on how to be successful in a remote learning environment can be found at <https://online.unt.edu/learn>.

Late Work

Late assignment is not accepted; NO MAKE-UP of any kind (e.g., Quizzes and Homework). If you have a valid official documentation (e.g., doctor's note with a signature) that has been provided to the professor within a week, your grade (a zero) will be simply changed to 'excused' in case of quizzes and HW. Your missed exam grade (a zero), however, will not be replaced by 'excused' even with a valid official documentation: a zero may be replaced by a make-up exam grade if you are given an opportunity to take it 1) with a valid official documentation presented to the professor 2) within a week at latest.

Examination Policy

- All exams are closed book, closed notes, closed resources. Exams must be taken alone and no communication with other individuals is allowed. The usage of electronic translators is completely prohibited. As a UNT student, academic integrity and honesty are expected of you. Infringements on this policy will result in a grade of zero (0).
- You are NOT allowed to discuss the questions and answers with your classmates; you are NOT allowed to consult with or contact other students in any way during and after these quizzes. (See the section of Academy Integrity).

Assignment Policy

Due dates for each assignment are indicated in the class schedule of the syllabus. It is students' responsibility to check the assignment due dates in the syllabus to submit assignments online in Canvas. Canvas calendar may not be complete for the entire semester, so don't always rely on the automatic due date reminder generated by Canvas. Any change of due dates and assignment instructions (if needed) will be provided/announced in Canvas. For any written assignments submitted in Canvas (if applicable), Turnitin may be applied to check any possible plagiarism.

Extra credits. There will be some extra credit opportunities during the semester that can be completed and submitted online. (Details TBA)

Server unavailability. The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk:

helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback

- Instructor responsibilities include: teaching class materials; providing instructions for assignments and assessments, answering questions about assignments, reviewing and updating course content, etc.
- Questions sent to me via an email will be normally responded within 24 hours on weekdays (usually sooner) during work hours (8 am-5 pm). Please do not expect a response over the weekend. Assignment feedback (if applicable) and grades are expected to be available within a week (or sooner).

Syllabus Change Policy

Changes to the syllabus, course information, and due dates will be announced in class and also in Canvas Announcement. The changes/revision will be indicated in Canvas and also in the revised syllabus if applicable.

Cell Phone, Laptop, and Other Devices Use Policy

Cell phones and other electronic/telecommunication devices should be turned off and put away completely (i.e., invisible) during class (NO exception!). Texting/emailing/using internet is not allowed during class. If it continues after the first warning, sanctions will be levied, and your in-class participation grade will be drastically affected. (e.g., A → B, B → C, C → D, etc.)

Student Issues with Instructors: Department of Spanish

When a student has class-related issues with her/his instructor (e.g. appeal a grade, disagreement about attendance record, interpretation of a class assignment, assigned grades, etc.), she/he should follow these steps to reach a resolution:

1. The student may talk with the respective instructor to resolve the issue first, or may talk directly to the department chair, Dr. Samuel Manickam, about the issue (make an appointment with Dr. Manickam by contacting Ms. Nancy Bouchard, Nancy.Bouchard@unt.edu).
2. If the issue is not resolved to the student's satisfaction, then she/he should email a written description of the issue to Dr. Manickam (manickam@unt.edu). Dr. Manickam will also solicit a written statement from the respective instructor
3. Dr. Manickam may meet individually with the student and instructor to resolve the issue
4. If the student is not satisfied with the resolution, she/he should contact the Executive Dean of the College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences to discuss this issue

UNT Policies

Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University. All assignments should be your own work only. This means no help at all from humans or technology (i.e. translation program). Cheating, plagiarism, and other examples of academic misconduct will be pursued and sanctions will be levied. More specifically, you cannot copy others' work or sentences from textbooks, web, etc. You CANNOT have another student, a tutor or friend/family CORRECT or TRANSLATE your work. Your work should reflect the level of proficiency that you are in. Any attempt to hand in work not done by yourself will receive a zero (0) and may be reported to the Dean of Students.

Addendum to Academic Integrity for the remote/online learning in this class:

Students who violate University rules on academic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary actions, including the possibility of failure in the course. A violation of the course policy may include (but is not limited to) the following:

- Providing your UNT EUID to any other person
- Collaborating or sharing information with another person regarding the material on any assessment or assignment, before, during and/or after any assessment or assignment
- Recording any quiz, assessment or assignment material in any format
- The public (such that it can be viewed by more than one person) posting of any form of a test bank or group of questions from any assignment

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website \(https://disability.unt.edu/\).

Prohibition of Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation (Policy 16.004)

The University of North Texas (UNT) prohibits discrimination and harassment because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law in its application and admission processes; educational programs and activities; employment policies, procedures, and processes; and university facilities. The University takes active measures to prevent such conduct and investigates and takes remedial action when appropriate.

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Canvas online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Students' access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail Eagle Connect (<https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect>).

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 [dates TBA] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (<http://spot.unt.edu/>) or email spot@unt.edu.

Survivor Advocacy

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct. Federal laws and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex as well as sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-5652648.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses: Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (<http://www.ecfr.gov/>). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course. If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

- (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
- (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Student Verification

UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses.

See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002>).

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
- The work is not used in its entirety.
- Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
- The student is not identified.
- The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student's written permission.

Class Recordings

Synchronous (live) sessions in this course (if any) may be recorded for students enrolled in this class section to refer to throughout the semester. Class recordings are the intellectual property of the university or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share the recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

Pronouns (she/her, they/them, he/him, etc.) are a public way for people to address you, much like your name, and can be shared with a name when making an introduction, both virtually and in-person. Just as we ask and don't assume someone's name, we should also ask and not assume someone's pronouns.

You can add your pronouns to your Canvas account so that they follow your name when posting to discussion boards, submitting assignments, etc.
