- Selected scores, recordings, articles, chapters and reviews provided

LISTENING ASSIGNMENTS / HOMEWORK:

You will be required to listen to and study an extensive list of pieces covering a wide range of contemporary repertoire and complete readings as assigned by the instructor. You are required to write journal entries based on the assigned pieces and readings on Canvas (Discussion board) for each class period and be prepared to discuss these assignments during the class period. You may not use of A.I. to complete these entries. You must use specific examples (i.e. measure numbers, instruments, techniques).

COMPOSITION PROJECTS:

Students will complete 2 composition projects throughout the semester. Please bring a PDF score as well as a recording or MIDI mockup of your project to share with your colleagues. All work is due on the date indicated in the course schedule. Turning in homework late will lower the grade you earn on assignments and projects.

FINAL COMPOSITION PROJECT AND READING/PRESENTATION:

Students will compose a 5–7 minute composition for any instrumentation determined in consultation with their private lesson instructor. The composition should fulfill at least one of the undergraduate composition portfolio requirements (see the Composition Handbook).

The composition will be read and recorded in the MEIT at the end of the semester. Students are responsible for securing musicians for the recording session, creating and distributing professional-quality scores and parts, developing a rehearsal schedule, and booking rehearsal spaces.

Students will also prepare and present a short presentation about their composition during the final weeks of the semester. The presentation should be no more than 5 minutes and may take the form of a brief elevator pitch, program note, and/or PowerPoint presentation.
