Course description
The purpose of this course is to develop skills for phonetic transcription in American English. The course will include information on the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA), basic articulatory phonetic principles, segmental and suprasegmental features, and dialectal variations.

Course objectives:
At the conclusion of this course, it is anticipated students will be able to demonstrate knowledge in the following:

2. Transcription of sounds and single words.
3. Regional dialects and other variations of speech.

Required Textbook:

- An outline for each chapter will be posted on Canvas. Students are expected to bring a copy of the outline for each chapter to class.
- Students are expected to complete the reading assignment prior to coming to class.

Recommended Workbook:

YOU WILL NEED YOUR TEXTBOOK!
Grading
Your grade is determined by the total number of points you have earned during the semester divided by the total number of possible points. Course grades will be based on the cumulative points from:

- A = 387-430 points (90.0-100%)
- B = 344-386 points (80.0-89.9%)
- C = 301-343 points (70.0-79.9%)
- D = 258-300 points (60.0-69.9%)
- F = below 257 points (< 59.9%)

- There will be NO rounding.
- There will be NO extra points.
- There will be NO extra credit opportunities.
- Your grade-to-date will be posted on Canvas.
- Your assignments and exams will be graded within two weeks after the due date or the day of the exam. If you see that your grade is not posted on Canvas, the assignment or exam has not been graded.

Homework (10 points each, 50 points total) – Due dates will be announced in class.
There will be five homework assignments. Satisfactory performance on each homework assignment will be worth up to 10 points. Points may be deducted if the assignment was not completed or not done accurately. The due date for each homework assignment will be announced in class and Canvas.

Exams (210 points total)
- Dates will be announced in class.

- Exam I – 100 points
- Exam II – 110 points

Final exam (120 points) – The final exam will be cumulative.

Phonetic transcription project (50 points total) – Due dates will be announced in class.

- Phonetic transcription (20 points)
  - Students are required to obtain an audio speech sample from a person who has a different language/dialectal background from their own.
  - Students will phonetically transcribe at least 50 words from the obtained sample, and also phonetically transcribe their own speech corresponding to the words that their interviewees said.

- Analysis (30 points)
  - Students will analyze their phonetic transcriptions, and compare their own speech and the interviewee’s speech. The summary of analysis should NOT be more than 2 pages.
Attendance policy
Regular attendance in class and active listening/participating in classroom discussion is necessary for optimal learning. Students are expected to come to class consistently.

Material presented in class will not be made up on an individual basis. If a student misses class, it is his/her personal responsibility to obtain the material missed.

Electronic communication devices: All cell phones and other electronic communication devices are not to be used during class time and should remain “out-of-sight” during class time. Please demonstrate your respect by not texting, checking messages, etc. during class time.

Class recordings are the intellectual property of the university or instructor and are reserved for use only by students in this class and only for educational purposes. Students may not post or otherwise share the recordings outside the class, or outside the Canvas Learning Management System, in any form. Failing to follow this restriction is a violation of the UNT Code of Student Conduct and could lead to disciplinary action.

Academic integrity
Academic Integrity is defined in the UNT Policy on Student Standards for Academic Integrity. Any suspected case of Academic Dishonesty will be handled in accordance with the University Policy and procedures. Possible academic penalties range from a verbal or written admonishment to a grade of “F” in the course. Further sanctions may apply to incidents involving major violations. You will find the policy and procedures at http:// facultysuccess.unt.edu/academic-integrity

Disability Accommodations
The Department of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology cooperates with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to make reasonable accommodation for qualified students with disabilities (of American with Disabilities Act and Section 504, Rehabilitation Act). All students who have a specific disability that qualifies them for academic accommodations are encouraged to register with ODA. If you need any accommodations for a disability, please submit your written request to the instructor and provide certification from ODA on or before the 12th day of class. The University of North Texas is on record as being committed to both the spirit and letter of federal equal opportunity legislation; reference Public Law 92-112 – The Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended. With the passage of new federal legislation entitled Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), pursuant to section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, there is renewed focus on providing this population with the same opportunities enjoyed by all citizens.

Drop Information
Please go to the Registrar’s office for information regarding dropping a class.

Additional notes – Please read carefully and often.

- Students are expected to attend class meetings regularly and to abide by the attendance policy established for the course. It is important that you communicate with the professor and the instructional team prior to being absent, so you, the professor, and the instructional team can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals. Please inform the professor and instructional team if you are unable to attend class meetings because you are ill, in mindfulness of the health and safety of everyone in our community.

- If you are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 please seek medical attention from the Student Health and Wellness Center (940-565-2333 or askSHWC@unt.edu) or your health care provider PRIOR to coming to campus. UNT also requires you to contact the UNT COVID Team at COVID@unt.edu for guidance on actions to take due to symptoms, pending or positive test results, or potential exposure.

- UNT encourages everyone to wear a face covering when indoors, regardless of vaccination status, to protect yourself and others from COVID infection, as recommended by current CDC guidelines. Face covering guidelines could change based on community health conditions.

- Check Canvas consistently for messages from the instructor, announcements, and current grades.

- Late assignments (homework or project) will NOT be accepted.

- If a student takes an exam on a later date than the scheduled date, 10% of the points earned will be deducted (e.g., if you get 100 points, 10 points will be deducted).

- Requests to reschedule an exam are considered only when there is a family or medical emergency with documentation (e.g., not for personal conveniences).

- Material presented in class will not be made up on an individual basis. If a student misses class, it is their personal responsibility to obtain the material missed.

- If a student has a legitimate excuse for missing a due date for an assignment or an exam, they can submit documentation, such as a doctor’s note, to the instructor. Consideration may be given at the end of the semester at the instructor’s discretion.

- All students are expected to exhibit consistent professional conduct. Points may be deducted from their grades if a student exhibits unprofessional conduct in class.
Tentative general plans

Specific dates (assignment due dates, exam dates) will be announced in class and on Canvas.
