Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes

Develop, improve, and demonstrate ensemble playing skills.

Identify, understand, and create differences in intonation, tone, and articulation.

Integrate individual part into ensemble.

Develop and refine rhythmic precision within a small ensemble setting.

Perform a prepared concert.

Materials

You will need to bring your horn in good working condition, a pencil, and your folder of music to each rehearsal. Original parts will not be taken outside of rehearsal; you are responsible for your own music. Bring your mute when your part calls for it.

Rehearsals

Please arrive ready to play ahead of time. Once you have been given music, please work on difficult passages on your own outside of rehearsal or ask for assistance.

Repertoire

Depending on registration, repertoire could include pieces that range from four or more parts. Part assignments will be determined by faculty. Pieces may be assigned with one or more player per part. Rehearsals will consist of warm up exercises, tone/ensemble exercises, sight-reading, and rehearsal of performance repertoire.

Attendance

Unexcused absences will result in lowering of your final grade by ½ letter grade. Please communicate ahead of time by email to Dr. Mickens (large group) or Dr. McBain (small group) if you require an excused absence.

The only excused absences are following, defined by UNT:

1. religious holy day, including travel for that purpose;

2. active military service, including travel for that purpose;
3. participation in an official university function;
4. illness or other extenuating circumstances;
5. pregnancy and parenting under Title IX; and
6. when the University is officially closed by the President.

Performance

Wednesday, November 12 at 5:00pm, Voertman Hall

4:30pm call time in Hall to set up and sound check

Expectations for Preparation

Once you have received your music, you are expected to prepare your parts before rehearsal.

Grading

Grading will be based on attendance and punctuality (50%), preparation and rehearsal skills (50%). Each area is vital for a well-functioning small ensemble.
