

EENG 3810: Communication Systems

Syllabus

Instructor Contact

Name: Kamesh Namuduri

Office Location: DP B234

Phone Number: 940-369-8960

Office Hours: Mondays & Wednesdays 1 PM to 2 PM

Email: Kamesh.namuduri@unt.edu

TA Office Hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays 11 AM to 1 PM

TA's email: RamCharanAluri@my.unt.edu

Communication Expectations: For general questions and enquires related to the class, please use the discussion on canvas. This may benefit other students in the class. I will make myself available online, via zoom, during the office hours to answer questions related to the subject. During this time, students can join my personal meeting room on zoom (<https://unt.zoom.us/my/namuduri>). If these timings are not convenient, students are advised to send an email (see above) and to set up a time for a telephone or zoom conversation. You can also leave a voice mail on the office phone (see above) which will be responded as soon as possible.

Course Description

This course introduces the concepts of transmission of information via communication channels. Topics include signal and systems (Fourier analysis), amplitude and angle modulation for the transmission of continuous-time signals, analog-to-digital conversion and pulse code modulation, and the basic principles for the analysis and design of digital communication systems.

Course Structure

This course is offered remotely through zoom. This a full semester 3 Credit Hour course that runs through from August 24th to December 11th 2020.

Course Prerequisites or Other Restrictions

EENG 2620 Signals and Systems; EENG 3510 Electronics I; and MATH 1780 Probability Models or MATH 3680 Applied Statistics. Basic MATLAB skills (recommended).

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand the fundamentals of analog and digital communication systems
2. Learn techniques for amplitude modulation and demodulation of analog signals
3. Learn techniques for generating and demodulating narrow-band and wide-band frequency and phase modulated signals

4. Understand the issues pertaining to the transmission of digital signals over bandwidth-limited communication channels
5. Basic techniques for generating and demodulating pulse code modulated signals

Course Outline

Week	Topics	Reading
1	Introduction, Signals, and Signal Space	Ch. 1, Ch. 2
2	Signal Space	Ch. 2 and 3
3	Fourier analysis	Ch. 2 and 3
4	Midterm I
5	Fourier analysis	Ch. 3
6	Amplitude modulation	Ch. 4
7	Amplitude modulation	Ch. 4
8	Amplitude modulation	Ch. 4
9	Midterm II
	Break
10	FM and PM	Ch. 5
11	FM and PM	Ch. 5
12	FM and PM	Ch. 5
13	Sampling, PCM, Digital Communications	Ch. 6
14	Sampling, PCM, Digital Communications	Ch. 6
15	Additional Lectures
16	Final Exam

Teaching Philosophy

To get the most benefit from this class, students need to attend classes regularly and engage in the discussions and ask questions. If you miss a class for any reason, try to catch up with the class by going through the lecture notes. Check canvas at least once a day for any class announcements. Feel free to discuss the course related topics with classmates. Reach out to the TA or me when you need assistance. Make sure of internet to review related materials.

Technical Requirements & Skills

Minimum Technology Requirements

- Computer, Reliable internet access
- Speakers, Microphone

Computer Skills & Digital Literacy

- MATLAB

Rules of Engagement

- Students are encouraged to discuss class material with one another to understand concepts better. However, homework needs to be submitted individually. Direct or indirect copying of a solution (from friends, solution manuals, and Internet) will be considered as plagiarism and a violation of the University Honor Code. Minimum penalty for cheating is “F” grade in class.
- Homework assignments are to be turned in at the beginning of the class on the due date. Late submission (Homework and Project) will be accepted with 10% penalty for each day.
- The exams are open book and open notes. Make up exams may be given only under exceptional circumstances and with prior approval of the instructor.
- All students are responsible for announcements made in lecture, on canvas, or via the class email list.
- It is the responsibility of students with certified disabilities to provide the instructor with appropriate documentation from the Dean of Students Office (see <http://www.unt.edu/oda>).

Getting Help

Technical Assistance

Part of working in the online environment involves dealing with the inconveniences and frustration that can arise when technology breaks down or does not perform as expected. Here at UNT we have a Student Help Desk that you can contact for help with Canvas or other technology issues.

UIT Help Desk: UIT Student Help Desk site (<http://www.unt.edu/helpdesk/index.htm>)

Email: helpdesk@unt.edu

Phone: 940-565-2324

In Person: Sage Hall, Room 130

Walk-In Availability: 8am-9pm

Telephone Availability:

- Sunday: noon-midnight
- Monday-Thursday: 8am-midnight
- Friday: 8am-8pm
- Saturday: 9am-5pm

Laptop Checkout: 8am-7pm

Course Evaluation

Student Perceptions of Teaching (SPOT) is the student evaluation system for UNT and allows students the ability to confidentially provide constructive feedback to their instructor and department to improve the quality of student experiences in the course.

Course Policies

Assignment Policy

Assignments need to be submitted online (on Canvas) in a single file. Word or PDF formats will be allowed. Due dates are within one week after the announcement of the homework. Turnitin may be used to check the assignment.

The University is committed to providing a reliable online course system to all users. However, in the event of any unexpected server outage or any unusual technical difficulty which prevents students from completing a time sensitive assessment activity, the instructor will extend the time windows and provide an appropriate accommodation based on the situation. Students should immediately report any problems to the instructor and contact the UNT Student Help Desk: helpdesk@unt.edu or 940.565.2324 and obtain a ticket number. The instructor and the UNT Student Help Desk will work with the student to resolve any issues at the earliest possible time.

Examination Policy

Exams will be open book and open notes. You need to be logged into the zoom session, be connected, and be available via chat. You need to make prior arrangements if you cannot take the exam at the specified time. Contact the Student Helpdesk if there is a technical problem during the exam.

- Instructor Responsibilities and Feedback
It is my responsibilities to the class include helping students grow and learn; providing clear instructions for projects and assessments, answering questions about assignments, identifying additional resources as necessary, providing grading rubrics, reviewing and updating course content;
- Emails will be responded within 24 hours. Discussion board posts will be responded within 2 days. Assignment feedback and grades will be provided within 7 business days after the exam.

Late Work

Late submissions of assignments will be accepted with 20% penalty per day.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is required and carries 10% of the final grade.

Class Participation

Class participation is strongly encouraged. If cannot ask questions in the classroom, please follow up offline immediately after the class.

Syllabus Change Policy

Any changes to the syllabus will be discussed in the class and majority opinion will be considered to modify due dates, etc.

UNT Policies

Academic Integrity Policy

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences. According to UNT Policy 06.003, Student Academic Integrity, academic dishonesty occurs when students engage in behaviors including, but not limited to cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, forgery, plagiarism, and sabotage. A finding of academic dishonesty may result in a range of academic penalties or sanctions ranging from admonition to expulsion from the University. [Insert specific sanction or academic penalty for specific academic integrity violation.]

ADA Policy

UNT makes reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide a student with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding one's specific course needs. Students may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the ODA website (<https://disability.unt.edu/>).

Emergency Notification & Procedures

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). In the event of a university closure, please refer to Blackboard for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Retention of Student Records

Student records pertaining to this course are maintained in a secure location by the instructor of record. All records such as exams, answer sheets (with keys), and written papers submitted during the duration of the course are kept for at least one calendar year after course completion. Course work completed via the Blackboard online system, including grading information and comments, is also stored in a safe electronic environment for one year. Students have the right to view their individual record; however, information about student's records will not be divulged to other individuals without proper written consent. Students are encouraged to review the Public Information Policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) laws and the University's policy. See UNT Policy 10.10, Records Management and Retention for additional information.

Acceptable Student Behavior

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including University and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. Visit UNT's Code of Student Conduct (<https://deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct>) to learn more.

Access to Information - Eagle Connect

Students' access point for business and academic services at UNT is located at: my.unt.edu. All official communication from the University will be delivered to a student's Eagle Connect account. For more information, please visit the website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward e-mail Eagle Connect (<https://it.unt.edu/eagleconnect>).

Student Evaluation Administration Dates

Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course. The student evaluation of instruction is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. The survey will be made available during weeks 13, 14 and 15 [insert administration dates] of the long semesters to provide students with an opportunity to evaluate how this course is taught. Students will receive an email from "UNT SPOT Course Evaluations via IASystem Notification" (no-reply@iasystem.org) with the survey link. Students should look for the email in their UNT email inbox. Simply click on the link and complete the survey. Once students complete the survey they will receive a confirmation email that the survey has been submitted. For additional information, please visit the SPOT website (<http://spot.unt.edu/>) or email spot@unt.edu.

Sexual Assault Prevention

UNT is committed to providing a safe learning environment free of all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Federal laws (Title IX and the Violence Against Women Act) and UNT policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex, and therefore prohibit sexual misconduct. If you or someone you know is experiencing sexual harassment, relationship violence, stalking, and/or sexual assault, there are campus resources available to provide support and assistance. UNT's Survivor Advocates can assist a student who has been impacted by violence by filing protective orders, completing crime victim's compensation applications, contacting professors for absences related to an assault, working with housing to facilitate a room change where appropriate, and connecting students to other resources available both on and off campus. The Survivor Advocates can be reached at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students Office at 940-565- 2648. Additionally, alleged sexual misconduct can be non-confidentially reported to the Title IX Coordinator at oeo@unt.edu or at (940) 565 2759.

Important Notice for F-1 Students taking Distance Education Courses

Federal Regulation

To read detailed Immigration and Customs Enforcement regulations for F-1 students taking online courses, please go to the Electronic Code of Federal Regulations website (<http://www.ecfr.gov/>). The specific portion concerning distance education courses is located at Title 8 CFR 214.2 Paragraph (f)(6)(i)(G).

The paragraph reads:

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted toward the full course of study requirement if the class is taken on-line or through distance education and does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward a student's full course of study requirement.

University of North Texas Compliance

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in an on-campus experiential component for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student's responsibility to do the following:

(1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.

(2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Student and Scholar Services Office. ISSS has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, s/he should contact the UNT International Student and Scholar Services Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email internationaladvising@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

Student Verification

UNT takes measures to protect the integrity of educational credentials awarded to students enrolled in distance education courses by verifying student identity, protecting student privacy, and notifying students of any special meeting times/locations or additional charges associated with student identity verification in distance education courses.

See UNT Policy 07-002 Student Identity Verification, Privacy, and Notification and Distance Education Courses (<https://policy.unt.edu/policy/07-002>).

Use of Student Work

A student owns the copyright for all work (e.g. software, photographs, reports, presentations, and email postings) he or she creates within a class and the University is not entitled to use any student work without the student's permission unless all of the following criteria are met:

- The work is used only once.
- The work is not used in its entirety.
- Use of the work does not affect any potential profits from the work.
- The student is not identified.
- The work is identified as student work.

If the use of the work does not meet all of the above criteria, then the University office or department using the work must obtain the student's written permission.

Download the UNT System Permission, Waiver and Release Form

Transmission and Recording of Student Images in Electronically-Delivered Courses

1. No permission is needed from a student for his or her image or voice to be transmitted live via videoconference or streaming media, but all students should be informed when courses are to be conducted using either method of delivery.
2. In the event an instructor records student presentations, he or she must obtain permission from the student using a signed release in order to use the recording for future classes in accordance with the Use of Student-Created Work guidelines above.
3. Instructors who video-record their class lectures with the intention of re-using some or all of recordings for future class offerings must notify students on the course syllabus if students' images may appear on video. Instructors are also advised to provide accommodation for students who do not wish to appear in class recordings.

Example: This course employs lecture capture technology to record class sessions. Students may occasionally appear on video. The lecture recordings will be available to you for study purposes and may also be reused in future course offerings.

No notification is needed if only audio and slide capture is used or if the video only records the instructor's image. However, the instructor is encouraged to let students know the recordings will be available to them for study purposes.
