3 hours. Publication or linear design and its application. Must be concurrently enrolled in ADES 3510. Prerequisite(s): ADES 2520 and ADES 2530. Students must have been selected to continue in the Communication Design program in the mid-point portfolio review.

Students will create verbal/visual narratives by integrating disparate components into sequential page layouts. Students begin to resolve the hierarchical, informational and expressive relationships existing between text and image in order to enhance communication.

1. Develop and demonstrate proficiency in research and concepting skills
2. Develop and demonstrate proficiency in multipage layout and design skills
3. Develop and demonstrate proficiency organizing large volumes of content
4. Develop and demonstrate proficiency developing hierarchical typographic and graphic systems
5. Develop and demonstrate illustrative and photographic proficiency
6. Develop and demonstrate proficiency using design software

This class is structured around assigned studio problems. Students and instructor will divide their time between lectures and critiques. Students will be required to complete work outside of class for the duration of the semester. Students should plan to spend 2 to 3 hours working outside of class for every hour spent working in class.

Publication Design Workbook, by Timothy Samara

Maximum number of points a student can earn for design and concept is a total of 100%.

EMERGENCIES
In case of emergency (alarm will sound), please follow the building evacuation plans posted on each floor of your building and proceed to the nearest parking lot. In case of a tornado (campus sirens will sound) or other weather related threat, please go to the nearest hallway or room on your floor without exterior windows and remain there until all all clear signal is sounded. Follow your instructor’s direction and act accordingly.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
Good attendance and punctuality are expected for this class and will strongly affect your grades. Roll will be taken at the beginning of every class. You be considered late if you arrive after roll has been taken. If you are late, it is your responsibility during that class period to make sure the instructor knows that you are present by leaving a note with your name, date and time of arrival with the instructor. If not received, you will be marked as absent. You will receive two (2) free tardies. After the first two tardies, every four (4) tardies will equal one (1) unexcused absence. Only three (3) unexcused absences will be accepted. The fourth unexcused absence will lower your final semester grade by one letter grade. The fifth unexcused absence will lower your grade by two letter grades. The sixth unexcused absence will lower your grade by three letter grades and so on. A total of seven absences, excused or unexcused, will result in you receiving a failing grade (F) for the class. There are no excused absences for anything but a verifiable death in the immediate family or with a doctor’s note on his/her stationary with a telephone number. The doctor’s note must be presented at the next class. A receipt is unacceptable. If you are more than 30 minutes late, it will be counted as an unexcused absence.

If you are absent, you are responsible for contacting a class member in order to get any information or assignments that were given in class. The instructor will not use any class time to repeat missed lectures or assignments. Do not call the main office to leave the instructor a note that you are missing class for any reason. Under no circumstances should you leave a project with anyone in the main or design office. The office will not accept any projects. Incomplete daily work may result in additional unexcused absences at the discretion of the professor.

Cell phones should be turned off when class begins. Laptops will only be opened for in class work. No facebooking, checking email or text messaging will be allowed. Failure to comply with this rule may result in point deductions in the professionalism section of your grade or an unexcused absence at the discretion of the professor. Let your instructor know in advance if you have an extenuating circumstance with regard to the above rules.

All projects are due on the day and time given at the beginning of class. No late projects will be accepted for grading. You are responsible for turning in work on time regardless of attendance.

Plagiarism is literary or artistic theft. It is the false assumption of authorship; the wrongful act of taking the product of another person’s mind and presenting it as one’s own. Copying someone else’s writing or art, in tact or with inconsequential changes, and adding one’s name to the result constitutes plagiarism. Plagiarism will result in the immediate failure of the class and may result in expulsion from the university. Disciplinary probation, suspension from the university, expulsion (permanent), or revocation of degree. (See student guidebook)
