Required Materials:

- Restaurant Management: Customers, Operations, and Employees, 3rd Edition, Robert Christie Mill, Pearson/Prentice Hall, Upper Saddle River, New Jersey, 2007.
- Student Manual – introduction handed out first lab; remainder needs to be printed from Blackboard website. Punch holes and place packet in a 3-ring binder for ease of use, bring it to every lab.
- Uniforms- See "Uniforms and Personal Appearance" section of the syllabus for details.

Course Overview:

- HMGT 4250 – Restaurant Operations II, (3 credit hours) is a laboratory-based course designed to provide students with an understanding of quantity food production principles and techniques. Students in this class apply organizational and management skills in the actual operation of a restaurant facility. In addition to an online lecture, students participate in a laboratory session on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday.

Course Prerequisites:

The following courses are prerequisites for HMGT 4250 and are strongly enforced:

- 1420 - Food Sanitation
- 1470 - Introduction to Professional Food Preparation
- 2280 - Hospitality Industry Financial Accounting
- 2480 - Hospitality Industry Managerial Accounting
- 2860 - Management Foundations
- 3250 - Restaurant Operations I
- 4210 - Hospitality Cost Controls

Student Objectives:

- Learn and demonstrate appropriate image and behavioral standards for leadership positions in the hospitality industry.
- Develop overall knowledge of contemporary food production and service systems.
- Develop and practice management skills.
- Understand and apply the goals, procedures, specific tasks, and responsibilities pertaining to the "back of the house" job descriptions.
- Formulate strategies for effective and efficient workgroup operations.
- Demonstrate the ability to apply principles of foodservice management, including food science and technology, personnel management (staffing, training and supervision), fiscal management (budget and cost controls), marketing, sanitation and food safety.
- Convert recipes, write standardized recipes, prepare food, create production schedules and allocate manpower resources.
- Demonstrate food preparation methods related to quantity food production and plate design.
- Demonstrate appropriate safety and sanitation techniques during food production (applicable to food products as well as employee behavior).

- Develop and use correct work schedules for employee scheduling and production assignments.
- Identify appropriate names for common commercial food service equipment and small wares, and demonstrate proper usage and operation of each item.
- Demonstrate the ability to deal with diversity in cultural and ethnic backgrounds, language and personalities while creating an effective work team.
- Demonstrate crisis management skills.
- Evaluate work performance on both an individual and group basis.

Course Requirements / Student Responsibilities:

- Students are responsible for all materials presented in the online lecture and labs including guest speakers, discussions, reading assignments, information in the course content section in Blackboard and all other announcements, assignments and projects.
- Students are responsible for completing all exams, quizzes, and assignments as scheduled or as announced by the instructor.
- Students are responsible for all announcements, schedule changes, assignment changes, and other information, which may be covered during the online lecture or lab period. Details concerning specific weekly assignments will be on the calendar and/or announced in the online course or in lab. If you miss a lab, you are responsible for finding out what was discussed or assigned during that class, and for obtaining notes and handouts from a fellow classmate.
- If you have any questions about this class, please ask for assistance. Contact one of your instructors if you are having difficulties in this class. We are here to help you whenever the need arises. You are required to meet all the requirements outlined in this syllabus, the course manual, and on the HMGT 4250 Blackboard website.

Policy on Attendance:

- The policy outlined below takes effect the first week of lab and applies to the entire semester.
- Students are required to attend all labs. Attendance will be taken, and absences will affect the final grade in this course.
- Your presence and participation in these laboratory sessions are critical to your education and to the successful planning and service of the meals.

Excused absences:

- Should a laboratory absence be anticipated and unavoidable, you are required to notify your lab instructor prior to the anticipated absence and make arrangements to "make-up" the lab by arranging a date with the instructor. When you make up the lab, the normal points eligible are available. Not following these steps will result in an unexcused absence, and you will not be able to make up the lab.

Unexcused Absences:

- Failure to show up for lab without notifying the instructor in advance of the beginning of the lab will constitute an unexcused absence.
- An unexcused absence will result in the loss of all points for that day and it cannot be made up.
- Two unexcused absences in the semester will result in the student being dropped from the course.

Policy on Tardiness & Early Departures:

- It is the responsibility of the student to be in complete uniform, clock-in on the POS system, and to sign the roll sheet by 8:00 am or before, neglecting to do so will result in a tardy or an absence.
- Each lab tardy during this time will result in a loss of 15 points off the final course grade, and if the student arrives after a quiz or an in-class assignment has been administered, the student will also lose those points.
- Plan your commute so you can arrive 5 - 10 minutes early.
- Two (2) tardies in lab will constitute 1 unexcused laboratory absence. This absence will count toward the two resulting in the automatic 'WF' as outlined in the policy on attendance.
- Leaving lab early must be pre-approved by the Lab Instructor, failure to do so will result in a loss of 15 points.
- Falsifying your arrival time or departure time for lab will be considered a violation of University Honesty Policy in this course and may result in further disciplinary action.

Policy on Written Work, Exams, Quizzes and Assignments:

- All written assignments must be neatly typed in a standard font, unless other forms are provided.
- Points will be deducted for errors in grammar and spelling.
- Two copies of your manual must be turned into your instructor.
- Assignments are due at the beginning of the class period on the specified due date unless stated otherwise by your instructor. If late work is accepted, a 10 point penalty will be assessed for papers/assignments turned in after the beginning of class on the due date and an additional 10 point penalty will be assessed for each additional day late thereafter.
- All late assignments should be handed directly to an instructor OR turned in to the CMHT Main Office, Chilton Hall #331, stamped with the date and time by an office staff person, and put in the instructor's mailbox. Do not place any assignments under the instructor's door or the door of the main office. By doing so, the assignment will be recorded as received on the date the instructor actually receives it.
- Exams and quizzes are based on information presented in lectures and laboratories, guest speaker presentation and assignments.
- All exams, quizzes and assignments must be taken/completed when scheduled or announced. Unannounced quizzes and assignments may also be given. Makeup exams, quizzes or assignments will not be given, except in the case of an excused absence.
- No cell phones will be allowed to be used as calculators during quizzes or exams.

Marketing Assignment & Procedures:

- The purpose of marketing the restaurant is to enhance the student's learning experience in Restaurant Operations II. All food and beverage operations must employ strong marketing techniques for the facility to be successful.
- The marketing requirement for this course is to market and sell a minimum of 2 books of season tickets or the equivalent number of individual tickets. No partial credit given for selling 1 booklet. These tickets are to be sold outside of the Club at Gateway Center; any exceptions must be approved by the instructors.
- This marketing assignment does not include selling tickets books to yourself so that you can obtain points. Each student has permission to purchase one (1) ticket book for personal use. However, students will not receive credit for additional ticket books purchased by the student. Doing so will be considered cheating on this assignment, and may result in a failing grade in this course.
- Students are expected to turn in money, IDOs and the completed ticket information page from the back of each ticket book from ticket sales on a weekly basis as tickets are sold. This must be placed in a sealed envelope with the student's name, course number, and lab day written clearly on the outside of the envelope.
- Students are accountable for the dollar value of the tickets in their possession, and students are expected to secure these tickets and funds in a safe location. In the event a ticket book or collected funds are lost while in the possession of the student, the student will be expected to replace the entire value of the missing item.
- Marketing Assignment Deadline: Students are able to sell tickets until the final deadline shown on the syllabus in which all money, documentation and unsold tickets are officially accounted for by the Instructor for the student's grade. It is the responsibility of the student to turn in all this material on or before the deadline. If money, documentation and/or unused tickets are unaccounted for by this deadline, a 10 point penalty will be assessed for each additional day late thereafter including weekends until each component has been accounted for.
- Feel free to ask the instructors for help in marketing tickets. They have lots of ideas.

Teamwork Policy:

- Teamwork and fairness between students completing manuals is crucial. Each student will receive a grade for each assignment regardless of how the work was completed.

Cell Phones:

- Cell phones should not be brought to class, or must be placed in locked lockers before 8:00 am. Use of cell phones for any activity during lab hours will result in the loss of 15 points per use. Contact your instructor if there is an emergency situation that requires you to stay in contact via cell phone.

Extra Credit:

- Extra credit points may be awarded at the discretion of the instructors for such activities as working in the lab on special days, participation in CMHT events and activities, etc. Never assume extra credit will be awarded - students must always discuss extra credit with your lab instructor beforehand.
- Do not attend extra lab sessions or ask students from other lab sessions to help your team during your lab session without the prior approval of your lab instructor.

Policy on Tobacco, Alcohol and Drugs:

- The Club at Gateway Center is a tobacco-free environment (this includes smokeless tobacco). Students are not allowed to smoke any time during the scheduled lab time.
- The use of any type of alcohol or illegal drugs by students at The Club at Gateway Center is absolutely forbidden! (Alcohol may be used in the preparation of recipes only). Disciplinary action will be taken and may include a failing grade in the course and further action taken by the University.
- In the event an instructor suspects that a student is under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs or is "hung-over" during lecture or lab sessions, the instructor reserves the right to contact the authorities and pursue disciplinary action accordingly.

Uniforms & Personal Appearance Requirements:

- In general, students who fail to meet uniform and personal appearance requirements below will lose points and will be sent home. Numerous violations may result in a failing grade for this course and/or further disciplinary action.
- All students must wear the required uniform and comply with all personal appearance guidelines anytime the student is working in the restaurant laboratory, to include prep night.
- Uniforms and personal appearance requirements are checked before every lab session at 8:00 am lineup and throughout the day.
- Uniform components are available for purchase at the University Book Store or www.chefuniformsofDallas.com\UNT.
- The required uniform consists of a double-breasted white chef jacket with white buttons with UNT logo, name tag or student's first name embroidered on front pocket area; black and white checkered chef pants with full-length legs, a white chef's hat, and black colored comfortable closed toe shoes w/ slip-resistant soles (No athletic, crocs, or "tennis" type shoes allowed).
- Uniforms must be washed before each lab session. Uniforms must remain in presentable condition or you may be required to purchase new uniform components during the semester.
- Personal appearance guidelines must be followed that conform to sanitation regulations, safety standards, and the expectations of the faculty and clientele of the restaurant.
- Hands and fingernails must be scrupulously clean. Nail polish of any kind must not be worn. Students will be required to remove polish or the student will be sent home with an unexcused absence.
- Fake nails are not allowed in a food service kitchen due to safety and sanitation requirements! Beginning the 2nd week of lab for the duration of the semester, a student wearing fake nails of any kind will be sent home with an unexcused absence. No exceptions!
- Hair must be clean and restrained under the hat in such a way that hair strands do not fall out of the hat. Points will be deducted for violations and students may be asked to wear a hair net.
- The only acceptable piece of jewelry that may be worn during this lab is one smooth ring (a wedding band w/o any stones or loose parts). No other visible jewelry or accessory is permitted.
- Men must be clean-shaven. Neatly trimmed moustaches and beards may be permitted, subject to instructor's approval.
- Students will be required to use foodservice gloves during labs when appropriate.
- Students must bring a food service instant read thermometer for their use each lab session.

Personal Items:

- During lab times, the proper uniform is the only personal items that the students may have. All other items should be safely secured either offsite or in a locker in the locker room which is locked by the student with their own lock.

Revisions:

- The instructors reserve the right to revise this syllabus, class schedule, assignments and list of course requirements when such revisions will benefit the achievement of course goals and objectives. Any major revisions will be announced during the lecture and/or lab period.

Vision of the Hospitality & Tourism Management Program

To be a global leader in advancing education, creating knowledge, and shaping the hospitality and tourism professionals of the future.

Mission of the Hospitality & Tourism Management Program

Educating students for leadership in the global hospitality and tourism industries and advancing the profession through excellence in teaching, research, and service.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Hospitality and Tourism Management, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate basic knowledge of theoretical constructs pertaining to the hospitality and industries.
2. Apply the basic principles of critical thinking and problem solving when examining hospitality and tourism management issues.
3. Apply technical aspects of the hospitality and tourism industry.
4. Demonstrate professional demeanor, attitude, and leadership needed for managerial positions in the hospitality industry.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

- Students majoring in Hospitality and Tourism Management are required to have a minimum grade point average of at least 2.35 on all courses completed at UNT. First term/semester transfer students must have a transfer grade point average of 2.35.
- A grade of C or above must be earned in each merchandising, digital retailing, hospitality and tourism management course completed in residence or transferred to UNT.
- Academic requirements for graduation with a BS in Hospitality and Tourism Management from the College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism include:
 - A minimum GPA of at least 2.35 on all courses completed at UNT.
 - A grade of C or above in each hospitality and tourism management course completed in residence or transferred to UNT. This includes all courses with prefixes CMHT, HMGMT, MDSE, DRTL and HFMD.
 - A minimum of 2.35 GPA in all work attempted, including transfer, correspondence, extension and residence work.

For additional information regarding requirements and policies, refer to the 2012-2013 Undergraduate Catalog.

Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Undergraduates

A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per semester. Students cannot exceed attempted credit hours above 150% of their required degree plan. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose financial aid eligibility.

If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so has the potential to affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. Please visit <http://financial.aid.unt.edu/satisfactory-academic-progress-requirements> for more information about financial aid Satisfactory Academic Progress. It may be wise for you to schedule a meeting with your CMHT academic advisor or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The CMHT Advising Staff recommends that students meet with their Academic Advisor at least one time per long semester (Fall & Spring). It is important to update your degree plan on a regular basis.

- Please check prerequisites carefully prior to enrolling in courses. Students MUST complete all prerequisite courses before enrolling in upper division courses.
- It is imperative that students have paid for all enrolled classes. Please check your online schedule daily through the 12th class day (January 28) to insure you have not been dropped for non-payment. Students unknowingly have been dropped from classes for various reasons such as financial aid, schedule change fees, etc. CMHT will not be able to reinstate students for any reason after the 12th class day regardless of situation. It is the student's responsibility to ensure all payments have been made.

ACADEMIC ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Understanding the academic organizational structure and appropriate Chain of Command is important when resolving class-related or advising issues. When you need problems resolved, you should start with your individual faculty member and/or advisor who will then help you navigate the Chain of Command shown below:

OFFICE OF DISABILITY ACCOMMODATIONS

The University of North Texas and the College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism make reasonable academic accommodation for students with disabilities. Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to deliver letters of accommodation during faculty office hours or by appointment. Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at <http://www.unt.edu/oda>. You may also contact them by phone at 940.565.4323.

COURSE SAFETY STATEMENTS

Students in the College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism are urged to use proper safety procedures and guidelines. While working in laboratory sessions, students are expected and required to identify and use property safety guidelines in all activities requiring lifting, climbing, walking on slippery surfaces, using equipment and tools, handling chemical solutions and hot and cold products. Students should be aware that the University of North Texas is not liable for injuries incurred while students are participating in class activities. All students are encouraged to secure adequate insurance coverage in the event of accidental injury. Students who do not have insurance coverage should consider obtaining Student Health Insurance for this insurance program. Brochures for this insurance are available in the UNT Health and Wellness Center on campus. Students who are injured during class activities may seek medial attention at the UNT Health and Wellness Center at rates that are reduced compared to other medical facilities. If you have an insurance plan other than Student Health Insurance at UNT, please be sure that your plan covers treatment at this facility. If you choose not to go to the UNT Health and Wellness Center, you may be transported to an emergency room at a local hospital. You are responsible for expenses incurred there.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or exams; dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor, the acquisition of tests or other material belonging to a faculty member, dual submission of a paper or project, resubmission of a paper or project to a different class without express permission from the instructors, or any other act designed to give a student an unfair advantage. Plagiarism includes the paraphrase or direct quotation of published or unpublished works without full and clear acknowledgment of the author/source. Academic dishonesty will bring about disciplinary action which may include expulsion from the university. This is explained in the UNT Student Handbook.

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at www.deanofstudents.unt.edu

CLASSROOM POLICIES

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom, and the instructor may refer the student to the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The University's expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classrooms, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at http://www.unt.edu/csrr/student_conduct/index.html.

The College of Merchandising, Hospitality and Tourism requires that students respect and maintain all university property. Students will be held accountable through disciplinary action for any intentional damages they cause in classrooms. (e.g., writing on tables). Disruptive behavior is not tolerated (e.g., arriving late, leaving early, sleeping, talking on the phone, texting or game playing, making inappropriate comments, ringing cellular phones/beepers, dressing inappropriately).

TUTORING SERVICES

UNT offers free tutoring services through the Learning Center <http://learningcenter.unt.edu/tutoring>. Please go to the Learning Center website to sign up.

In addition, as their service project, Eta Sigma Delta (ESD) International Hospitality Management Honor Society members have offered their time to tutor Hospitality and Tourism Management students. If you need tutoring, please contact the ESD Tutoring Coordinator at hospitalitytutoring@yahoo.com. Place the following message in the Subject line of the e-mail: URGENT!!! Need Tutoring. In the body of the message, include your cell phone number and the number and name of the class with which you need help. The ESD Tutoring Coordinator will contact a tutor and provide your e-mail information and cell phone information. An ESD tutor will then contact you directly. Please remember that this is a VOLUNTEER service. The ESD students will make every effort to meet your needs, but they may be unable to accommodate your schedule or the specific topic with which you need help. This service is only available during the Fall and Spring semesters; it is not available during the summer sessions.

STUDENT EVALUATION OF TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS (SETE)

The Student Evaluation of Teaching Effectiveness (SETE) is a requirement for all organized classes at UNT. This short survey will be made available at the end of the semester to provide students a chance to comment on how this class is taught. Student feedback is important and an essential part of participation in this course.

FINAL EXAM POLICY

Final exams will be administered at the designated times during the final week of each long semester and during the specified day of each summer term. Please check the course calendar early in the semester to avoid any schedule conflicts.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

As you know, your access point for business and academic services at UNT occurs within the my.unt.edu site www.my.unt.edu. If you do not regularly check Eagle Connect or link it to your favorite e-mail account, please do so, as this is where you learn about job and internship opportunities, CMHT events, scholarships, and other important information. The website that explains Eagle Connect and how to forward your email: <http://eagleconnect.unt.edu/>

COURSES IN A BOX

Any Hospitality and Tourism Management equivalent course from another university must receive prior approval from the CMHT academic advisor to insure that all UNT Hospitality and Tourism Management degree plan requirements are met. For example, courses that are taken online or from a program that offers course material via CD, booklet, or other manner of correspondence must have prior advisor approval. This includes “courses in a box” from other educational institutions (HMGT 4250, HMGT 4820, etc.). “Courses in a box” do not meet the UNT Hospitality and Tourism Management degree plan requirements and will not be approved.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR F-1 STUDENTS TAKING DISTANCE EDUCATION COURSES

To comply with immigration regulations, an F-1 visa holder within the United States may need to engage in multiple on-campus experiential components for this course. This component (which must be approved in advance by the instructor) can include activities such as taking an on-campus exam, participating in an on-campus lecture or lab activity, or other on-campus experience integral to the completion of this course.

If such an on-campus activity is required, it is the student’s responsibility to do the following:

- (1) Submit a written request to the instructor for an on-campus experiential component within one week of the start of the course.
- (2) Ensure that the activity on campus takes place and the instructor documents it in writing with a notice sent to the International Advising Office. The UNT International Advising Office has a form available that you may use for this purpose.

Because the decision may have serious immigration consequences, if an F-1 student is unsure about his or her need to participate in an on-campus experiential component for this course, students should contact the UNT International Advising Office (telephone 940-565-2195 or email international@unt.edu) to get clarification before the one-week deadline.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION & PROCEDURES

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify you with critical information in an event of emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence). The system sends voice messages (and text messages upon permission) to the phones of all active faculty staff, and students. Please make certain to update your phone numbers at www.my.unt.edu. Some helpful emergency preparedness actions include: 1) ensuring you know the evacuation routes and severe weather shelter areas, determining how you will contact family and friends if phones are temporarily unavailable, and identifying where you will go if you need to evacuate the Denton area suddenly. In the event of a university closure, check your Blackboard for instructions.

Course Safety Evaluation Form

Policy on Safety

Students in the CMHT are urged to use proper procedures and safety guidelines while handling equipment (both large and small), machines, tools, food, chemicals, and other potentially hazardous items.

While working in laboratory sessions, students are expected and required to identify and use proper safety guidelines in all activities requiring lifting, climbing, walking on slippery surfaces, using equipment and tools, handling chemical solutions, and handling hot and cold food products.

Students should be aware that the University of North Texas is not liable for injuries incurred while students are participating in class activities. All students are encouraged to secure adequate insurance coverage in the event of accidental injury. Students who do not have insurance coverage already should consider obtaining the Student Health Insurance offered through the University of North Texas. Brochures for this insurance program are available in the CMHT office (Chilton Hall #331) or at the Student Health Center on campus.

Students who are injured during class activities may seek medical attention at the University Student Health Center, Chestnut Hall, at rates that are reduced compared to other medical facilities. If you have an insurance plan other than Student Health Insurance at UNT, please be sure that your insurance plan covers treatment at this facility. If you choose not to go to the University Student Health Center, you may be transported to an emergency room at a local hospital. You will be responsible for expenses incurred there.
