The student will receive practical application of skills in both laboratory and management assignments. The student will receive a training of stage management principles, paperwork, techniques and practices in the theatre. This lecture/lab class will require students to participate in classroom discussions and activities.

During the course of the semester, you will:

- Define, Analyze and Demonstrate knowledge of the responsibilities of the stage manager.
- Advance organizational skills, which can be used in multiple fields.
- Develop Methods and Techniques to communicate with other artists.
- Create and Develop Paperwork.

THIS SYLLABUS IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE
AS THE NEEDS OF THE
STUDENTS AND INSTRUCTOR CHANGE

Notices

ADA Accommodation

The University of North Texas makes reasonable accommodation for students with disabilities. Students needing a reasonable academic accommodations must first register with the Office of Disability Access (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the student will request their letter of accommodation. ODA will provide faculty with a reasonable accommodation letter via email to begin a private discussion regarding a student's specific needs in a course. Students may request reasonable accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of reasonable accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation.

Note that students must obtain a new letter of reasonable accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. Students are strongly encouraged to meet with faculty regarding their accommodations during office hours or by appointment.

Faculty members have the authority to ask students to discuss such letters during their designated office hours to protect the privacy of the student.

For additional information, refer to the Office of Disability Access website (<http://www.unt.edu/oda>). You may also contact ODA by phone at (940) 565-4323.

Emergency Notification & Procedures.

UNT uses a system called Eagle Alert to quickly notify students with critical information in the event of an emergency (i.e., severe weather, campus closing, and health and public safety emergencies like chemical spills, fires, or violence).

In the event of a university closure, please refer to Canvas for contingency plans for covering course materials.

Copyright Compliance Policy Statement.

It is the policy of the University of North Texas that all faculty, staff, and students respect the rights of ownership of intellectual property by adhering to United States copyright laws.

Academic Integrity Standards and Consequences.

According to UNT Policy 06.003. The University of North Texas promotes the integrity of learning and embraces the core values of trust and honesty.

Academic integrity is based on educational principles and procedures that protect the rights of all participants in the educational process and validate the legitimacy of degrees awarded by the University.

In the investigation and resolution of allegations of student academic dishonesty, the University's actions are intended to be corrective, educationally sound, fundamentally fair, and based on reliable evidence

Sexual Harassment

It is the policy of UNT that acts of sexual harassment will not be tolerated. All members of Administration, Faculty, staff and students are subject to disciplinary action for violation of this policy.

Sexual harassment can take many forms, for more details please see the policy book Chapter 16.

Sexual harassment and other forms of sexual misconduct may be reported to report.unt.edu

PARTICIPATION

This class has a lab portion to it. These lab items will take place in class or as homework. You will be expected to participate in assignments in groups and with others during class time.

For each class you will receive 25 points for being physically in class. You can receive up to an additional 25 points (5 at a time) for actively participating in the class. A total of 50 points for each class day.

This part of your grade will depend upon:

- Active involvement in classroom activities and discussions (this includes asking questions)
- We will be building teamwork with assignments in class.
- You should come to class prepared to asked questions and engage in discussions.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is vital for this class. Since we only meet once a week, every class meeting is essential to your success. Research has shown that students who attend class are more likely to be successful. Students are expected to attend each class for the entire class period. Everyone has 1 free class pass.

You should attend every class unless you have a university excused absence, for more information please see the Student Attendance and Authorized Absences Policy (06.039) (https://policy.unt.edu/sites/default/files/06.039_StudAttnandAuthAbsence.Pub2_.19.pdf).

It is important that You communicate with the professor prior to being absent, please notify via UNT email in advance so you, and the professor, can discuss and mitigate the impact of the absence on your attainment of course learning goals.

TARDINESS

Repeated lateness will lower your grade. Attendance will be taken in the 1st 10 mins of class. If you are more than 15 mins late, you will be considered absent.

Tardiness and Absences will affect your final grade in the following way.

3 tardiness = 1 absence

3 absences = ½ letter drop

4 absences = full letter drop

Every following absence will drop your grade another ½ letter

CLASSROOM REQUIREMENTS

- Students are required to check their UNT email accounts. It is suggested you check your account daily for possible notifications from the instructor. UNT email is the university's official means of communication.
- Students are required to check their UNT Canvas accounts.
- Students must keep up with all due assignments, including reading assignments. Falling behind in daily assignments and readings will have a negative impact on your success and grade in this course.
- The student is required to purchase items, such as books, and supplies to complete assignments.
- Students are expected to be disciplined in their work; meet all assignments on time; be receptive to ideas from others; use class time wisely; seek help from the instructor and ask for further explanation when needed; keep up with daily assignments.
- Students must give credit to all sources and provide a bibliography for research materials used in this course.

25% Class Participation
 25% Quizzes/Homework
 30% Projects
 20% Final Exam

OFFICE HOURS

Office Hours will take place post class on Monday's or by appointment.

If normal hours do not work with your schedule, please reach out and we can schedule another time virtually or in person.

EXPECTATIONS FOR OUT-OF-CLASS STUDY

Beyond the time required to attend each class meeting, students enrolled in this course should expect to spend at least 6 additional hours per week of their own time in course- related activities, including reading required materials, completing assignments, preparing for exams, etc.

For all of the following assignments, a reminder you must do your own work and not copy from another student or copyrighted text.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

Throughout the course of the class, you will be assigned homework to be turned in each week. In person homework is due at the start of class. Homework will be returned with criticism of its effectiveness, neatness and clarity. Students will have the option of resubmitting to raise the assignments grade for items scoring under a 60.

LATE WORK

Even if absent it is still your responsibility to turn items in on time. (items that are due at 2pm, will be late when not turned in at the start of class) Late Assignments may be turned in with a doctor's excuse/ approved absence to receive full credit.

If you are unable to have your work at the start of class it is due, the grade will drop 50% if turned in within 24 hours. After 24 hours it will not be accepted. This will be amended for excused absences.

Please understand that this policy allows me to continue to work at a high level outside of class to continue to improve the department.

AND Deadlines in theatre are real.

If a situation arises where you foresee yourself unable to turn in assignments on time, please reach out to me so we can find a solution for you. (This must be done least 48 hrs. prior to the due date and time)

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Student behavior that interferes with an instructor's ability to conduct a class or other students' opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT.

Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student's conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct.

The Code of Student Conduct can be found at deanofstudents.unt.edu/conduct

CELLPHONES

Cellphones should be put away in class, except when on breaks.

If you foresee an emergency or time sensitive phone call, please discuss with me before the start of class.

Descriptions of Major Assignments and Examinations

QUIZZES

All Quizzes will be online. Most chapters are divided into each chapter as a quiz even if reading multiple chapters. Each quiz is on a 30 min time limit. Each weeks Quiz's will be online via Canvas and due at Noon on the Sunday prior to class. The next quiz will be available by 5pm each Monday, if not before.

A reminder you must write answers in your own words. The professor will be checking for plagiarism.

If the student has issues with Canvas, assistance is available through the UNT helpdesk via phone 1-940-565-2324.

PROJECTS

Professional Stage Manager Interview Project

The student will be assigned a Professional Stage Manager to contact and interview. The student will be required to interview one Professional Stage Manager via zoom. The student will oversee contacting this stage manager and creating interview questions. You will write a 3-page paper detailing your experience and what you learned from discussing the field. This project will be discussed in detail during class on Monday October 29th. A handout with more details will be handed out at that class.

Due: By December 1st. This assignment can be turned in earlier in the semester if the student wishes.

Cue Calling Exercise

The student will choose a YouTube video to use in a cue calling exercise. We will discuss this project in class on September 15th.

After the student's video has been approved, they will create a "Calling Script". The student will call multiple types of cues (Light, Sound, Rail, Spotlight etc.) during this video.

The student and professor will have a meeting to review the cues in their script on October 6th/13th

A presentation meeting will take place on October 20th where each student will "call" their video.

This project counts as several grades.

HOW TO SUCCEED IN THIS CLASS

Communication is an essential of one's career in any field. This class will ask you to cultivate communication skills, using them in class and outside for your homework. You are your own best advocate. The professor will expect the student to reach out, when they need assistance.

Email course questions and personal concerns, including grading questions, using your @unt.edu email. Email is the preferred method of contact, and will yield the fastest response. Email will be checked at least once per day Monday through Friday. I will respond to all emails within 24 hours during the week, and within 48 hours during the weekend.

I am happy to schedule one-on-one during office hours or via Teams.

A major way that I will communicate is via the Announcements in Canvas each week. It is your responsibility to read all announcements, and to contact me should you have any questions or concerns. I may also send you an individual, direct email about your work or progress in the course.

Assignment feedback is another way that we will communicate with each other. It is expected that you will read all feedback, and use the information to improve your work on future assignments. If you have questions or need clarification on any feedback you receive, please contact me via email.

Every student in my class can improve by doing their own work and trying their hardest with access to appropriate resources. Students who use other people's work without citations will be violating UNT's Academic Integrity Policy.

Please read and follow this important set of guidelines for your academic success(https://policy.unt.edu/policy/06-003). If you have questions about this, or any UNT policy, please email me or come discuss this with me during my office hours.

As the instructor for this course, I reserve the right to adjust this schedule in any way that serves the educational needs of the students enrolled in this course. – Laura E. Berrios
