SEXUAL DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT & ASSAULT:
UNT is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences any of these acts of aggression, please know that you are not alone. The federal Title IX law makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses. UNT has staff members trained to support you in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more.
UNT’s Dean of Students’ website offers a range of on-campus and off-campus resources to help support survivors, depending on their unique needs: http://deanofstudents.unt.edu/resources_0. Renee LeClaire McNamara is UNT’s Student Advocate and she can be reached through e-mail at SurvivorAdvocate@unt.edu or by calling the Dean of Students’ office at 940-565-2648. You are not alone. We are here to help.

ADA ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT:
In accordance with university policies and state and federal regulations, the university is committed to full academic access for all qualified students, including those with disabilities. To this end, all academic units are willing to make reasonable and appropriate adjustments to the classroom environment and the teaching, testing, or learning methodologies in order to facilitate equality of educational access for persons with disabilities. See UNT Policy 04.015.

Students seeking accommodation must first register with the Office of Disability Accommodation (ODA) to verify their eligibility. If a disability is verified, the ODA will provide you with an accommodation letter to be delivered to faculty to begin a private discussion regarding your specific needs in a course. You may request accommodations at any time, however, ODA notices of accommodation should be provided as early as possible in the semester to avoid any delay in implementation. Note that students must obtain a new letter of accommodation for every semester and must meet with each faculty member prior to implementation in each class. For additional information see the Office of Disability Accommodation website at http://disability.unt.edu. You may also contact them by phone at (940) 565-4323.

FINANCIAL AID SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS:
A student must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue to receive financial aid. Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA in addition to successfully completing a required number of credit hours based on total registered hours per term. Students cannot exceed maximum timeframes established based on the published length of the graduate program. If a student does not maintain the required standards, the student may lose their financial aid eligibility.
If at any point you consider dropping this or any other course, please be advised that the decision to do so may affect your current and future financial aid eligibility. Please visit http://financialaid.unt.edu/satisfactory-academic-progress-requirements for more information about financial aid Satisfactory Academic Progress. It may be wise for you to schedule a meeting with an academic advisor in your college or visit the Student Financial Aid and Scholarships office to discuss dropping a course before doing so.

CENTER FOR STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:
Each University of North Texas student is entitled to certain rights associated with higher education institutions. See www.unt.edu/csrr for further information. Cases of academic dishonesty will be referred to University authorities. See UNT Policy 06.003.

ACCEPTABLE STUDENT BEHAVIOR:
Student behavior that interferes with an instructor’s ability to conduct a class or other students’ opportunity to learn is unacceptable and disruptive and will not be tolerated in any instructional forum at UNT. Students engaging in unacceptable behavior will be directed to leave the classroom and the instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students to consider whether the student’s conduct violated the Code of Student Conduct. The university’s expectations for student conduct apply to all instructional forums, including university and electronic classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The Code of Student Conduct can be found at http://deanofstudents.unt.edu.

BUILDING EMERGENCY PROCEDURES:
In case of emergency (alarm will sound), please follow the building evacuation plans posted on each floor of your building and proceed to the nearest parking lot. In case of tornado (campus sirens will sound) or other weather-related threat, please go to the nearest hallway or room on your floor without exterior windows and remain there until an all clear signal is sounded. Follow the instructions of your teachers and act accordingly.

COURSE RISK FACTOR:

INSTRUCTOR’S POLICIES:

1. ATTENDANCE - Students are expected to attend class, arriving in a punctual manner. Roll will be taken at the beginning of the class. If the student misses roll, it will be the student's responsibility to see the instructor after class to gain credit for attendance. The student is responsible for all material covered during any class missed, and should take the initiative to meet with a classmate to acquire missed information. Working on other course projects or falling asleep in class will be marked as absent. Every 3rd tardy will convert to an unexcused absence. The 3rd unexcused absence will cause a final grade reduction of one letter grade. For each additional 3 absences, the grade will be lowered another letter grade (For example, if a student has earned an "A" in the course, but has accumulated 6 unexcused absences, the student will receive a "C" in the class). A written excuse for an absence must be presented upon the first day returning from the absence(s) in order to be considered. Visit http://policy.unt.edu/sites/default/files/06.039_StudentAttendance_2016.pdf for UNT attendance policy.

2. PROJECTS - Projects MUST be turned in to the instructor at the beginning of the class and ready for the critique. No late work will be accepted for grade. Excused attendance late work must be accompanied by a written excuse upon the first day the student returns to class and the late work will ONLY BE ACCEPTED ON THAT DAY AND WITH ONE LETTER GRADE REDUCTION.

3. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY - UNT’s policy on academic integrity can be found here: http://policy.unt.edu/sites/default/files/untpolicy/pdf/7-Student_Affairs-Academic_Integrity.pdf. The definitions of cheating and the consequences for cheating are enforced in this course.

4. E-MAILING THE INSTRUCTOR - Students are expected to attend class, take notes, keep all handouts and course information, utilize class time for questions and discussion, and refer to the textbook for further clarification of information. If a student is still having difficulties then an appointment should be made during the instructor's office hours to discuss the matter. E-mailing the instructor for missed class assignments, course or assignment grades, or to answer and individual question is prohibited. Assignments and grading will be posted on Canvas. Your questions will benefit others and should be saved for class. Instructor email is NOT to be utilized as your private tutoring tool.

5. RESPONSIBILITY CHECKING UNT E-MAILS

6. Commercial patterns are not allowed to use for class assignments and projects.

7. If you need a letter of recommendation from the instructor, below is a list of requirements to be eligible for a letter.
   a. You must have completed at least 2 studio classes with me and earned a “B” or better with excellent attendance.
   b. The instructor needs a two-week notice when you give the request.
   c. Request must be given in written form with the information of who/or what this letter is to be written to.

8. The instructor of record determines all grades for each project, in class work, and attendance.
PERMISSION TO USE STUDENT WORK:

1 Grant of Permission. I, the undersigned, am a student at the University of North Texas (UNT) and I am enrolled in ADES 4555 Fashion: Collection. By my signature below I hereby grant permission to UNT to use, copy, reproduce, publish, distribute or display any and all works created to comply with the requirements of this course in accordance with the terms set forth below. Additionally, I consent to the disclosure of the work created in this class as may be accompanied by my name and other personally identifiable information for purposes as set forth below.

2 Scope of Permission. This permission extends to the use of the described work and images of such work: (1) for academic purposes in order to demonstrate examples of student work to current and future UNT students; (2) for public display in the galleries or on the campus of the UNT or on the UNT website; (3) for promotional materials created by UNT in all forms of media now known or later developed, including but not limited to exhibition catalogues, direct mail, websites, advertising and classroom presentations. My permission is on-going and will continue until such time as I revoke it by giving UNT three months written notice of revocation to the professor of record for this course. UNT will have three months from the date of my notice to stop all use in accordance with this permission.

3 Certificate of Ownership. I am the owner of all work submitted in accordance with the requirements of the named course and the work is not subject to any grant or restriction that would prevent its use consistent with this permission. All aspects of the work are original to me and have not been copied. I understand that as owner of the work I have the right to control all reproduction, copying and use of the work in accordance with U.S. copyright laws.

4 Privacy Release. I hereby authorize and consent to the release, maintenance and display of my name if necessary and any other personally identifiable information that I have provided in connection with the work and its use in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

5 Signature. By signing below, I hereby grant the permissions indicated above. I understand that this grant of permission relates only to the use of the described work. This is not an exclusive right and I may sell, give or otherwise transfer the rights to such work to others on a non-exclusive or exclusive basis. However, in the event that I do sell, give or otherwise transfer ownership or the exclusive right to use my work to another party, I will notify UNT immediately in writing through the professor of record for this course. UNT will have three months from the date of my notice to stop all use in accordance with this permission.
